

crime victims' rights:

FAIRNESS.
DIGNITY.
RESPECT.

Every year, the National Crime Victims' Rights Week Resource Guide abounds with suggestions for working with the media, ideas for special events, ready-made public awareness posters, the latest statistics on crime victimization, and much more. This impressive collection of resources joined with the creativity and passion of victim service providers across the nation creates a tremendous force for positive change. Use this section's additional resources as you educate public officials, media representatives, business leaders, and others in your community about the importance of treating crime victims with fairness, dignity, and respect.

- Online Resources—The Internet exponentially increases our capacity for gathering information, but can often be a little overwhelming. This section provides links to reliable online resources provided by the Office for Victims of Crime, U.S. Department of Justice, and the National Center for Victims of Crime.
- NCVRW Resource Guide Partners—Once again, we are proud to partner with these organizations that support 2010 National Crime Victims' Rights Week and are ready to work with other organizations and groups to improve victims' rights in the United States. Each partner is listed with a description of their work to help you identify possible outreach and collaboration opportunities.
- New! OVC Gallery—This online collection of multimedia products features selected posters, promotional materials, and artwork from past National Crime Victims' Rights Week observances. (Visit www.ovc.gov/gallery.)

Online Resources

Internet technology is increasing exponentially the opportunities we have to share information and make a difference in the world. No where is this phenomenon truer than in the criminal justice and victim services communities. From victim service providers participating in online training programs, to law enforcement agencies accepting text messages through 911 call centers, to members of Congress tweeting their constituents about current events, technology is making it easier to communicate at break-neck speed. The following pages offer a wide range of cutting-edge online resources for helping crime victims' and those who serve them. (When available, toll-free phone numbers are also provided.)

Ethics in Victim Services

(www.ovcttac.gov/ethics)

This downloadable version of the instructor-led Ethics in Victim Services training explores common ethical conflicts and their resolution using ethical standards and decision-making processes. The goal of the training is to increase self-awareness and understanding of how personal attitudes and beliefs influence responses to victims of crime. The training is meant for anyone interested in learning about common ethical conflicts in providing victim services and some possible resolutions.

Sexual Assault Advocate/Counselor Training (SAACT)

(www.ovcttac.gov/saact)

The SAACT is another one of OVC’s online, downloadable curricula. SAACT uses case studies, role playing, slides, vignettes, and other interactive exercises to help practitioners increase their understanding of sexual assault and gain the skills needed to assist victims of sexual assault.

Victim Impact: Listen and Learn

(www.ovcttac.gov/victimimpact)

This downloadable curriculum is geared toward helping offenders become more aware of the impact that crime has on victims and take responsibility for their actions and begin to make amends.

Victim Assistance Training Online (VAT Online)

(www.ovcttac.gov/vatonline)

The OVC Victim Assistance Training Online (VAT Online) for victim service providers, is a basic victim advocacy Web-based training program that offers victim service providers and allied professionals the opportunity to acquire the basic skills and knowledge they need to better assist victims of crime. Specific information is also provided to meet the needs of target populations.

Identity Theft Victim Assistance Online Training: Supporting Victims’ Financial and Emotional Recovery

(www.ovcttac.gov/IdentityTheft)

The overall goal of the Identity Theft e-learning training is to provide a user-friendly tool that will teach victim service providers and allied professionals the knowledge and skills they need to more effectively serve victims of identity theft, and assist with their financial and emotional recovery. The training includes a reference library where participants can view information on the types of identity theft, the various forms and paperwork that may need to be completed, referral agencies and resources, and information on victims’ rights. Three case studies also are included, and each case study highlights different forms of identity theft. Participants interact with the victim in their role as a victim advocate during each phase of recovery.

OVC Online Directory of Crime Victim Services

(<http://ovc.ncjrs.gov/findvictimservices>)

The OVC Online Directory of Crime Victim Services helps victim service providers and others locate non-emergency services in the United States and abroad. Service providers are invited to post relevant information.

OVC National Calendar of Events

(<http://ovc.ncjrs.gov/ovccalendar>)

OVC’s online calendar lists upcoming conferences, workshops, and notable victim assistance-related events. A special feature allows service providers and allied professionals to add their organizations’ events to the calendar.

OVC HELP for Victim Service Providers Web Forum

(<http://ovc.ncjrs.gov/ovcproviderforum>)

The OVC Web Forum gives victim service providers and allied professionals a unique opportunity to tap into a national support network, learn about cutting-edge issues and best practices, and gain peer insight through shared challenges and experiences. Through the guest host series, OVC makes national experts available each month to answer questions on a timely topic.

At the top, it features the U.S. Department of Justice logo and the text "Office of Justice Programs" with the tagline "Innovation * Partnerships * Safer Neighborhoods". Below this is the "OFFICE FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME" logo and the word "Gallery" in a large, stylized font, with the tagline "Promoting crime victims' rights and services". The OVC logo is also present in the top right corner. A navigation bar includes links for "AWARD RECIPIENTS", "POSTERS", "MULTIMEDIA", "WEB BANNERS", "EVENT PHOTOS", and "GALLERY HOME". The main content area is titled "GALLERY" and includes a sidebar with links to "Award Recipients", "Posters", "Multimedia", "Web Banners", and "Event Photos". The "About the Gallery" section welcomes visitors and lists the types of content available. A "Quick Links" section provides information on how to get more details, stay informed, and access various resources. The footer contains a list of links for "About OVC", "OVC Home", "Site Map", "User Tips", "Contact OVC", "National Crime Victims' Rights Week", "Crimevictims.gov", "Privacy Statement", "Legal Policies and Disclaimers", "FOIA", and "USA.gov".
