ONLINE RESOURCES

The best of the Internet—reliable information, innovative technologies, increased collaboration and connection—can be hard to find. Now you don't have to search. The following Web sites offer practical, trustworthy, up-to-date information and services for crime victims and those who serve them. (When available, toll-free phone numbers are also provided.)

National Criminal Justice Reference Service (www.ncjrs.gov)

Administered by the Office of Justice Programs (OJP), U.S. Department of Justice, the National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS) provides crime, victim assistance, substance abuse, and public safety information to support research, policy, and program development worldwide. Trained content specialists are available to respond to inquiries and direct individuals to appropriate resources. Additional services include:

- 24-hour access to view and order OVC and other agency publications and resources online
- A searchable knowledge-base of more than 125 victim-related questions and answers
- A database of upcoming events
- An online Library and searchable Abstracts Database, featuring over 30,000 victim-related documents.
- Justice Information (JUSTINFO) electronic newsletter containing agency resources, events, funding opportunities, and more.

OVC Training and Technical Assistance Center (OVC TTAC) (www.ovcttac.org)

The Office for Victims of Crime Training and Technical Assistance Center coordinates a unique learning community focused on strengthening the capacity of victim assistance organizations across the country. In addition to providing customized training assistance and consulting services, OVC TTAC develops and produces workshops held across the United States throughout the year as well as the biannual National Victim Assistance Academy, an intensive one-week curriculum with separate tracks to meet the needs of service providers at all levels.

OVC TTAC draws on the expertise of a network of consultants and seasoned victim service professionals with first-hand experience in designing and delivering customized responses to satisfy a variety of training and technical assistance needs. From its comprehensive database of experts, OVC TTAC provides developmental support, mentoring, and facilitation in such areas as program design and implementation, strategic planning, program management, evaluation, quality improvement, collaboration, and community coordination. OVC TTAC also supports the victim services community by providing technical assistance to the State Victim Assistance Academies, professional development and victim/survivor scholarships, and state and national conference support programs.

Ethics in Victim Services (www.ovcttac.gov/ethics)

This downloadable version of the instructor-led Ethics in Victim Services training explores common ethical conflicts and their resolutions using ethical standards and decision-making processes. The goal of the training is to increase self-awareness and understanding of how personal attitudes and beliefs influence responses to victims of crime. The training is meant for anyone interested in learning about common ethical conflicts in providing victim services and some possible resolutions.

Sexual Assault Advocate/Counselor Training (SAACT) (www.ovcttac.gov/saact)

The SAACT is an OVC online, downloadable curriculum, which uses case studies, role playing, slides, vignettes, and other interactive exercises to help practitioners increase their understanding of sexual assault and gain the skills needed to assist victims of sexual assault.

Victim Impact: Listen and Learn (www.ovcttac.gov/victimimpact)

This downloadable curriculum is geared toward helping offenders become more aware of the impact that crime has on victims so they can take responsibility for their actions and begin to make amends.

Victim Assistance Training Online (VAT Online) (www.ovcttac.gov/vatonline)

The OVC Victim Assistance Training Online (VAT Online) is a basic victim advocacy Web-based training program that offers victim service providers and allied professionals the opportunity to acquire the basic skills and knowledge they need to better assist victims of crime. Specific information is also provided to meet the needs of target populations.

Identity Theft Victim Assistance Online Training: Supporting Victims' Financial and Emotional Recovery (www.ovcttac.gov/identitytheft)

This Identity Theft e-learning training is a user-friendly tool that provides victim service providers and allied professionals with the knowledge and skills they need to more effectively serve victims of identity theft, and assist with their financial and emotional recovery. The training includes a reference library where participants can view information on types of identity theft, the various forms and paperwork that may need to be completed, referral agencies and resources, and information on victims' rights. Three case studies also are included, and each case study highlights different forms of identity theft. Participants interact with the victim in their role as a victim advocate during each phase of recovery.

cial feature allows service providers and allied professionals to add their organizations' events to the calendar.

OVC HELP for Victim Service Providers Web Forum (<http://ovc.ncjrs.gov/ovcproviderforum>)

The OVC Web Forum gives victim service providers and allied professionals a unique opportunity to tap into a national support network, learn about cutting-edge issues and best practices, and gain peer insight through shared challenges and experiences. Through the guest host series, OVC makes national experts available each month to answer questions on a timely topic.

SART Toolkit: Resources for Sexual Assault Response Teams (www.ovc.gov/sartkit)

This toolkit is a compilation of resources for communities wanting to develop SARTs—coordinated teams of people who serve victims of sexual assault—and for communities wanting to improve their SART responses. The toolkit reviews the basics, lays out the steps involved in putting together your SART, describes how to retain focus on victims, highlights SART programs throughout the country, and includes sample resources to use when developing and evaluating your team.

Existe Ayuda Toolkit (www.ovc.gov/pubs/existeayuda)

This toolkit includes replicable Spanish-language tools and resources to help improve the cultural competence of service providers and the accessibility of services for Spanish-speaking victims of sexual violence. Resources include Spanish terms related to sexual assault and trafficking; PowerPoint slides used in presentations to promotoras (community health workers) and victim advocates; and a pocket card, handout, fact sheets, and scripts for public service announcements and outgoing answering machine messages.

National Center for Victims of Crime Web Site (www.ncvc.org)

This national resource and advocacy organization that supports victims of crime and those who serve them provides more than 80 online “Get Help” bulletins on victim-specific issues, outreach materials on a wide range of topics, and dozens of reports and resources for victim service providers and allied professionals—including the new report “Making Restitution Real: Five Case Studies on Improving Restitution Collection,” funded by the Office for Victims of Crime. The Web site also features practice and legislative information for victim service providers; the Stalking Resource Center and the Youth Initiative—dedicated resources areas on stalking and crimes against youth; and national and regional training opportunities. (This site is not associated with OVC or NCJRS.)

VictimLaw (www.victimlaw.info)

VictimLaw is a unique and groundbreaking resource offering the first comprehensive, online database of more than 18,000 victims' rights related legal provisions, including: federal and state victims' rights statutes, tribal laws, constitutional amendments, court rules, administrative code provisions, attorney general opinions, and case summaries of related court decisions. This user-friendly tool is available free of charge and provides instant access to a wide range of previously hard-to-find, regularly updated legal information. ♦

The following organizations are official partners of the 2012 National Crime Victims' Rights Week Resource Guide. In addition to working with the Office for Victims of Crime, U.S. Department of Justice, and the National Center for Victims of Crime to promote the annual observance, each of the following organizations represents additional collaboration opportunities for the field and makes available a wide range of victim-related information that you may be able to integrate into your own outreach and public awareness initiatives.
