

A silhouette of Lady Justice, blindfolded and holding scales, is positioned on the left side of the image. She is standing on a complex grid of scaffolding that covers the left half of the frame. The scales she holds are also part of the scaffolding structure.

30 years:
restoring the balance of justice

NATIONAL CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS WEEK | APRIL 6-12, 2014