Labor Trafficking has many faces

Construction worker. Housekeeper. Farm worker. Dishwasher.

Across America, men, women, and children are trafficked for their labor. Their employers threaten their lives or loved ones; confiscate their IDs or documents; deny them pay, food, or safe working conditions; or force them to work off illegal debts.

To find out more about labor trafficking and what you can do about it, contact the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 888-373-7888.
