OFFENSE CODE CARD

Census of Juveniles in Residential Placement

This card presents a list of offenses divided into two main categories: delinquent/criminal offenses and non-delinquent/non-criminal offenses. Questions in Section I ask you to classify young persons assigned beds in your facility at the end of the day on Wednesday, October 29, 1997 BECAUSE OF OFFENSES into one or the other of these two main categories. Information on this card may make it easier for you to classify the young persons with offenses.

In Section II, column 7, you are again referred to this card. There, you are asked to match each young person's offense to the category and type of offense on this card, note the two-digit code number, and write that number in Section II, question 7, on the line for that person. Please record the most serious offense for which this person was assigned a bed here on October 29, 1997.

Attempted offenses should be coded as if they were actual offenses, except for attempted murder which should be coded as 20 (assault, aggravated).

Definitions of the offenses are provided on the back of this card.

Section I - GENERAL INFORMATION - Continued

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS

The following items ask you to provide counts of persons assigned beds in this facility at the end of the day on Wednesday, October 29, 1997. This date has been chosen carefully to give a standardized and representative one-day count of persons in facilities like yours across the country.

You will be asked to divide your facility population into two age groups:

1. those persons under age 21; and
2. those persons age 21 and older.

You will then be asked to classify those UNDER THE AGE OF 21 who are assigned beds in this facility on October 29, 1997, into one of three categories:

1. those here for delinquent/criminal offenses, that is, offenses which are considered illegal for adults;
2. those here for offenses that are non-delinquent and non-criminal, that is, offenses which are illegal in your state for underage persons but not for adults;
3. those here for reasons other than offenses.

Please classify each young person assigned a bed in this facility into just one of the three categories. More detailed descriptions of these categories are provided in the questions. The Offense Code Card included in your questionnaire package shows lists of these types of offenses.

Please use your records for October 29, 1997, to answer the following questions.
