ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This document was designed and developed by staff and consultants from the American Probation and Parole Association (APPA). Funding for this project was provided through a grant from the Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), also contributed to this project. This Guide draws on the ideas and experiences of many who work in teen court programs across the nation. It would be impossible to acknowledge individually all who contributed; however, we would like to especially express our appreciation to all of those who sent in program materials, responded to the APPA Teen Court Program Survey, and took the time to discuss their programs and answer our numerous questions.

The following individuals provided consultation in the review of this Guide. Their contributions and support are greatly appreciated.

Cathy Moeller
Former Teen Court Coordinator
LaPorte Teen Court Program
LaPorte, Indiana

Linda Blair
Teen Court Coordinator
Fort Worth Teen Court Program
Fort Worth, Texas

Scott B. Peterson
Director
Youth Courts of the Capital Districts, Inc.
Latham, New York

William C. Pericak
Assistant U.S. Attorney
President, Board of Directors
Youth Courts of the Capital Districts, Inc.
Latham, New York

Special thanks and acknowledgments also are extended to: James B. Wright, Project Monitor with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, for his invaluable and continued guidance and support; David J. Steinhart and Betsy A. Fulton for their respective contributions in the writing of Chapter 3, "Legal Issues for Teen Courts" and Chapter 10, "Program Evaluation;" the staff and volunteers of the Buncombe County Teen Court Program in Asheville, and the Cumberland County Teen Court Program in Fayetteville, North Carolina for their insight and input; Paula Nessel, Project Coordinator with the National Law-Related Education Resource Center of the American Bar Association, for her support and assistance in promoting teen courts on a national level; and Timothy H. Matthews, APPA Staff Director, and Kimberly Borwig, Administrative Assistant, for their ongoing guidance and support throughout the development of this Guide.
