INTRODUCTION

To research and monitor the dynamics of Code implementation the Commission relied on a variety of methodological approaches, many of which involved the analysis of data. The results of these analyses, including some of the key data elements, are presented in Volume I of the Commission's report. This Volume contains the original data and is intended as an addendum to the report for those readers interested in reviewing the data in more detail.

This Volume is divided into seven sections. Section One, Arrests, contains information about the arrests of juveniles from 1977 through 1984. Information about juvenile arrests in New Jersey was extracted from the State Police's Crime in New Jersey reports. National juvenile arrest figures are from the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Uniform Crime Reports.

Sections Two through Four, Docketing, Intake, and Adjudicated: Dispositions detail six month (January—June 1985) "windows" of Unit Case information. Section Two contains information on cases docketed; Section Three contains information on cases which were diverted, referred, transferred or adjudicated, and Section Four contains information on cases disposed. This approach provides a "snapshot" of system functioning during a time period rather than describing system response to a cohort of cases. As a result, the juveniles described in any one of those sections are not necessarily the same juveniles described in the other two sections.

An important characteristic of the Unit Case System is that every juvenile who is docketed in a Family Division Superior Court receives a unique identification number. All subsequent court-juvenile interactions which occur in the same county are recorded under the same unique identifier. Optimally the system would utilize a statewide identification scheme. To the extent that delinquency is an intra-county phenomena, however, the system made it possible, for the first time, to distinguish cases from juveniles and to describe the population of unique juveniles in the court system.

Section Five contains detailed case histories on three samples of juveniles; those committed to DOC institutions, those on probation and in a DOC residential program, and those in, or awaiting placement in, a DYFS residential facility as a result of a court referral. Sample selection and data collection proceeded in varying ways for each of these three samples.

The DOC commitment sampling frame consisted of the 453 juveniles sentenced to incarceration during the six month Unit Case study period. Court staff for the counties submitted background data, collected during the preparation of pre-disposition reports, on 214 (47%) of these juveniles. Background data on juveniles in DOC residential programs was also provided by the county court staffs for 39 (35%) of the juveniles sentenced to such programs during the study period. This sample was augmented with the collection of background data from case files for 108 juveniles who were on probation and in a DOC residential program during October and November, 1985. Background data, also collected by the counties during the preparation of pre-disposition reports, was provided by the AOC for 29 of the 60 (48%) juveniles sentenced to a DYFS residential program during the six month study period. The Commission was able to collect data from DYFS case files for an additional 17 of these juveniles, bringing the total sample to 46, or 77% of the sampling frame.

Section Six, Detention, contains information relevant to the use of detention. This information comes from two sources; annual reports of the Juvenile Detention and Monitoring Unit and the Unit Case Information System.

Section Seven, Key Actor Surveys, contains summaries of phone and mail surveys of Family Division Case Managers, Department of Human Services Departmental Liaisons, and with DYFS workers, Assistant Prosecutors and Deputy Public Defenders identified by their own agencies as having primary responsibility for the handling of delinquency cases in their offices.

4. The new Code provides for a continuum of dispositional options. There is however, a question as to whether the range of services and programs needed to support this continuum exists and how available these options are. How would you generally characterize the range of dispositional services available in your county?

Adequate	4(29)
Somewhat adequate, minor expansion needed	8(57)
Inadequate, major expansion of continuum needed	2(14)

5. What is your best estimate of the percentage of dispositions where parental participation is ordered?

1-10%	7(50)
11-20%	3(21)
21-30%	3(21)
65%	1( 7)

6. What are parents most frequently ordered to do? (multiple responses indicated)

Attend counseling, either with/without juvenile	13(93)
Ensure that the juvenile is home before curfew	2(14)
Make restitution	2(14)
Attend substance abuse prevention program	1( 7)
Ensure the juvenile's attendance at school	1( 7)
Attend an alcoholism evaluation program	1( 7)

7. What is your best estimate of the percentage of cases where parents do not comply with the court order?

No	23(43)
Unsure	19(35)
Sometimes	1( 2)

5. Do you think Judges have realistic expectations about what DYFS should do in delinquency cases?

Yes	11(20)
No	40(74)
Do Not Know	3( 5)

6. If no, why not?

Judges expect provision of unavailable services	18(33)
Judges order residential placement inappropriately	10(19)
DYFS receives inappropriate referrals	6(11)
Judges expect DYFS to function within unrealistic time frames	3( 5)
Court orders granting DYFS care are vague	1( 2)
Judges unaware of Division's constraints on service provision	1( 2)
Other	6(11)
No reason given or response N/A	9(17)

7. Do judges ask for DYFS input even in those cases where a DYFS referral may not be made?

Often	11(20)
Sometimes	32(59)
Never	4( 7)
Unsure/Undecided	7(13)

8. How is this input given (formally/informally; individually as an advocacy team member, etc.)?
- |  |        |
|--|--------|
| Formally                                 | 4( 7)  |

| Not Indicated | 2( 4)  |
12. If you feel that some referrals are inappropriate, please explain why:
- |   |        |
|---|--------|
| Cases could be handled by other more appropriate agency (CIU, probation, corrections, etc.)         | 13(24) |
| Residential placement is ordered and the Division feels community alternatives are more appropriate | 10(14) |
| Problems of some delinquents are beyond the scope of DYFS services                                  | 7(13)  |
| DYFS does not have appropriate programs   | 7(13)  |
| Cases could be handled by other agency, and residential placement is ordered inappropriately        | 3( 5)  |
| Judge has failed to order parent/family participation   | 3( 5)  |

| Never            | 1( 2)  |
16. In determining service plans for juveniles adjudicated delinquent, how often does DYFS adhere to a judge's preference?
- |   |        |
|---|--------|
| A judge's preference is always followed | 6(11)  |
| A judge's preference is followed:       |        |
| Most of the time                        | 26(48) |

Incarceration	13(28)
Residential Drug/Alcohol	10(22)
Drug/Alcohol Unspecified	10(22)
Residential Sex Offender	9(19)

4. The new Code provides for a continuum of dispositional options. There is a question, however, as to whether the range of services and programs needed to support this continuum exists and how available these options are. How would you generally characterize the range of dispositional services available in your county?

Adequate	4( 9)
Somewhat Adequate	23(50)
Inadequate	19(41)

5. Some argue for increased use of incarceration. Others argue that we are overutilizing incarceration as a disposition because of the limited number of alternative options. Based on your experience, for every 100 cases of incarceration, what would you estimate would be placed in an optional residential or quasi-residential setting geared to delinquents if a sufficient number of such programs existed?

0- 25%	28(61)
26- 50%	5(15)
51- 75%	6(13)
76-100%	3( 6)

SUMMARIZATION OF PUBLIC DEFENDER SURVEY

1. It would be helpful for us to have a profile of all (not just those you represent) juveniles who come before the court on delinquency charges. Please try to characterize this population by checking the category which best indicates the percentage of cases with certain characteristics as follows:

	Less Than 25%	25-55%	56-75%	More Than 75%	Not Indicated
Drug Abuse	9(32)	10(36)	6(21)	2( 7)	1( 4)

Restitution	18(64)	4(14)	3(11)	0( 0)	0( 0)	1( 4)	2(7)

4. Please list by name, in order of priority, those dispositional programs or services you believe need highest priority attention in your county. Note what would be done with each e.g., establish, expand, improve, etc. (multiple responses indicated)<sup>1</sup>

Residential general	16(57)
Residential drug/alcohol	8(29)
Alternative alcohol	6(21)
Drug/alcohol programs/unspecified	5(18)
Mental health programs/unspecified	5(18)

5. The new Code provides for a continuum of dispositional options. There is a question, however, as to whether the range of services and programs needed to support this continuum exists and how available these options are. How would you generally characterize the range of dispositional services available in your county?

Adequate	4(14)
Somewhat adequate, minor expansion of the continuum needed	11(39)
Inadequate, major expansion of the continuum needed	13(46)

6. Some argue for increased use of incarceration. Others argue that we are overutilizing incarceration as a disposition because of the limited number of alternative options. Based on your experience, for every 100 cases of incarceration, what number would you estimate would be placed in an optional residential or quasi-residential setting geared to delinquents if a sufficient number of such programs existed?

0- 25%	7(25)
26- 50%	10(36)
51- 75%	4(14)
76-100%	5(18)
Not Indicated	2( 7)

7. Do you think that the provisions of the new Code have impacted on the utilization of the various dispositional options available to your jurisdiction?

Yes	8(29)
No	14(50)
Undecided	3(11)
Not indicated	2( 7)

8. If yes, please list those options which are being used more frequently under the new Code and those which are being used less frequently under the new Code. (multiple responses indicated)

Dispositions being used more frequently:

Community-based programs	3(37)
Non-residential outdoor programs	1(13)
Incarceration	1(13)
"Other" programs	5(63)

Dispositions being used less frequently:

Incarceration	3(37)
"Other" programs	1(13)

1. Since almost all responses called for the creation or expansion of listed options, "action to be taken" is not indicated here.

9. Have any specific programs been created in your jurisdiction as a result of the expanded dispositional options available to judges under the provisions of the new Code?
- |               |        |
|---------------|--------|
| Yes           | 10(36) |

| Others                           | 7  |
13. What impact do you think the existence of the county 60-day option would most likely have (or is having if one exists)?
- |  |        |
|--|--------|
| Would be used in place of state correctional system commitment                             | 11(39) |
| Would not be used in place of state correctional system commitments but for other purposes | 11(39) |
| Undecided  | 4(14)  |
| Not indicated  | 2( 7)  |
14. If you do not think that the 60 day option would be used as a substitute for state-level incarceration, what do you think it would be used as an alternative to?<sup>4</sup>
