The Honorable Carroll A. Campbell
Governor of South Carolina
Chairman, Budget and Control Board
State House, First Floor, West Wing
Box 11369
Columbia, South Carolina 29211

Dear Governor Campbell:

It is my pleasure to submit to you the Annual Report of the Board of Corrections and the Commissioner of the South Carolina Department of Corrections for the period July 1, 1986 to June 30, 1987.

As you are well aware, the Department continues to be under pressure to accommodate an ever increasing prison population, comply with the terms of the Nelson v. Leeke Consent Decree, and manage within given resources while carrying out the goals of corrections: punishment, deterrence, incapacitation, and rehabilitation.

The Annual Report contains information on the Department's correctional institutions, personnel, programs, and statistical data on the inmate population. We hope that the Report will be useful to you and to others who require information about South Carolina's prison population.

Very truly yours,

Parker Evatt

MISSION STATEMENT

It is the mission of the South Carolina Department of Corrections to:

1. Protect the public by maintaining those persons remanded to its custody, in the least restrictive, most cost effective environment consistent with public safety.
2. Provide humane supervision and conditions of confinement in accordance with the South Carolina Department of Corrections' constitutional and statutory mandates and with the American Correctional Association's Standards.
3. Provide programs and services which are intended to enhance the community re-integration, the emotional stability, and the economic self-sufficiency of those persons placed under the jurisdiction of the South Carolina Department of Corrections.
4. Promote efficiency and cost-effectiveness in correctional operations and administer all aspects of the department in a fair and equitable manner, while providing for the safety and general welfare of employees and inmates.
5. Comply with legislative, judicial and executive directives at all times, and ensure that the constitutional rights of those under custody or control of the South Carolina Department of Corrections are maintained.
6. Develop goals, objectives, and plans that implement the mission of the South Carolina Department of Corrections and review them annually.

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Corrections in South Carolina has evolved, over the years, from county-operated prison systems to state-operated institutions and from a single state penitentiary to a network of prison facilities throughout the State. The following summary of significant developments and events during this evolution provides a perspective for the current *issues confronting the South Carolina Department of Corrections.

Dual Prison System and Creation of SCDC

As an humane alternative to conditions prevailing under county supervision of convicts, the General Assembly passed an act which transferred the control of convicted and sentenced felons from the counties to the State and established the State Penitentiary during the 1860's. This act stripped the counties of their responsibility for handling felons. Shortly thereafter, the counties' demands for labor for building and maintaining roads prompted the reversal of this provision. By 1930, county supervisors assumed full authority to choose either to retain convicts for road construction or to transfer them to the State. This dual prison system of state-operated facilities and local prison and jail operations resulted in inequitable treatment of prisoners and caused widespread criticism of the system. In the midst of the political and legal developments concerning state and county jurisdiction over convicts, the "State Penitentiary" became a network of penal facilities throughout the State. Changes reflecting the evolution of correctional philosophy to include educational and vocational training along with productive work programs were also made. Despite notable improvements, overcrowding and mismanagement prevailed. As a result, the state correctional system was reorganized, and the Department of Corrections was created through legislative action in 1960. But the autonomy of the state and local systems remained intact, and the dual prison system continued.

Problems inherent in the dual prison system became increasingly evident as crime rates soared in the 1960's. The most critical problems were related to the absence of adequate planning and programming, the inefficiency of resource utilization and the inequitable distribution of services. Reform of the total adult corrections system in South Carolina became a serious state issue.

* For greater details of these developments and events, see previous SCDC Annual Reports.

Consolidation of the South Carolina Adult Corrections System

While the problems of the dual prison system and the need for system reform had long been recognized, the major impetus for reform of the South Carolina adult corrections system was the 1973 Adult Corrections Study conducted by the Office of Criminal Justice Programs in the Governor's Office. The major changes implemented as a result of this study were the elimination of the dual prison system in favor of a consolidated state system and the regionalization of SCDC operations.

The major step toward consolidation was the closure of county prison operations. Legislation passed in June, 1974, gave the State jurisdiction over all adult offenders with sentences exceeding 90 days, and counties were required to transfer any such prisoners in their facilities to the State for custody. Counties began transferring their long-term prisoners to the Department and closing their prison operations in May, 1973. Several counties also transferred their prison facilities to the State, many of which were, in fact, unsatisfactory for long term use.

It continued to be permissible for any county to operate its own prison camp, however, provided the facility met certain basic standards. This local option was carried out when the Department, through agreement with the jurisdictions' governing bodies, designated local detention facilities as suitable to house state inmates. The Department, then, returned a limited number of inmates to these "designated facilities" to work.

The assumption of county prisoners and the closing of many local prison systems enabled the Department to take steps toward the regionalization of SCDC operations. An examination of regionalization was undertaken as an integral part of the Comprehensive Growth and Capital Improvements Plan done in FY 1977. The distribution of SCDC facilities throughout the State, the commitment trends of the inmate population, the Department's manpower and financial resources and the capital improvement requirements suggested that the Department establish three correctional regions. By the end of 1979, the three regions, Appalachian, Midlands, and Coastal, were established and became fully operational through regional corrections coordinating offices. The current configuration is illustrated in Figure 2.

Population Trends

SCDC's efforts to regionalize were made more difficult by the fact that this occurred during a time of unprecedented increases in crime in South Carolina, as well as throughout the nation. As a result of increasing crime, the counties' transfer of inmates to the State, and the legislative mandate for all long-term prisoners to be under SCDC jurisdiction, the Department experienced an unprecedented influx of offenders through the state corrections system during FY 1975. The number of inmates under state jurisdiction on June 30, 1975, (5,658) was 53% higher than on the same date the previous year (3,693). There was also an increase of more than 30% in the average daily population from FY 1974 to FY 1975. The average daily population in FY 1976 increased by an even higher rate, 35.6%, over the previous year's, the largest known yearly increase in the average daily population in SCDC history. In FY 1977 the trend continued, with a 14.4% increase in the average jurisdictional population.

During the period from FY 1978 through FY 1985, the average jurisdictional population continued to increase, but at a lower rate of an average of 4.5% per year. During FY 1986 and FY 1987, however, the average jurisdictional population increased 6.3% and 9.6%, respectively, a significant acceleration in the population growth. In absolute numbers, the average jurisdictional population for FY 1987 was 11,786 (excluding 768 on EPA), or 1,031 greater than it was for the previous year.

Prison overcrowding, or insufficient bedspaces to accommodate the incarcerated population has been a long-standing problem for the Department of Corrections. Overcrowding was an issue for both the local jurisdictions and the Department of Corrections at the time of the consolidation, and it has continued to be a chronic problem, with the population significantly greater than the capacity, despite serious efforts to remedy the situation.

Recent Developments

The problems of prison overcrowding led to the development of several early release programs during the late 1970's and early 1980's. In 1977, the Legislature authorized the Extended Work Release Program, which allowed qualified offenders to live and work in the community under intensive supervision during the final phase of their sentences. In 1978, the Litter Control Act became law, which established the Earned Work Credit Program as a means of reducing the amount of time served for inmates engaged in productive work while in prison. In 1980, the Good Time provisions were modified to consolidate two previous good time measures and to allow additional time off for inmates with clear disciplinary records.

In 1982, the Community Corrections Act established the Supervised Furlough Program and reduced the time served for parole eligibility for non-violent offenders from 1/3 of the sentence to 1/4. In 1983, the Prison Overcrowding Powers Act authorized the Governor to declare a state of emergency when certain conditions of overcrowding existed and to order the sentences of qualified offenders to be "rolled back," i.e. reduced, to effect the immediate release of prisoners. The Prison Overcrowding Powers Act was subsequently amended by the Omnibus Criminal Justice Improvement Act to allow the release of a set number of prisoners, rather than reducing the sentence length of all eligible prisoners. (See previous Annual Reports and appendices for further descriptions of early release programs.)

In the early 1980's public opinion focused on issues related to the victims of crime. In 1985 and 1986, the Legislature responded to public opinion calling for harsher penalties for offenders, particularly those who were repeat offenders or who had committed violent crimes. Several laws were subsequently passed which limited parole eligibility for repeat and violent offenders or increased the minimum sentence for certain crimes. The 1985 Burglary Bill, for example, eliminated the offense of housebreaking and established 1st, 2nd, and 3rd degree burglary with harsher penalties. An earlier law in 1976 had already increased the time served before parole eligibility for offenders convicted of murder from ten to twenty years.

The Omnibus Criminal Justice Improvement Act of 1986 revised several early release provisions, e.g. eligibility for parole and supervised furlough, and earned work credits. The Act established a minimum of 30 years to be served before parole eligibility for offenders convicted of murder with aggravating circumstances and sentenced to life. An "enhancement" measure was included in the Act, whereby persons convicted of a violent crime who had possession of a firearm or knife now receive an additional "flat-time" five year sentence. The Act also established two alternative programs: shock probation (90-day incarceration followed by probation) and restitution centers, both of which were to be operational in 1987-88. (See 1986 Annual Report for full description of this Act.)

Despite early release programs, prison population has continued to grow as a result of a high commitment rate, reduced parole rates, increased admissions and longer sentences, resulting in an even greater demand for additional prison bedspaces. Shortage of bedspaces, resulting in overcrowding, has been a persistent problem in South Carolina even though a substantial capital improvements program has expanded the supply of bedspaces significantly. Between FY 1980 and FY 1983 the Department opened three new prisons: Perry, Cross Anchor, and Dutchman, adding a reception and evaluation center and 1,632 beds in the Appalachian Region. During the same period, additions were made to several existing prisons and the Department closed several of its smaller, inefficient acquired facilities. During FY 1986 and FY 1987 the Department opened two more new prisons: Lieber and McCormick Correctional Institutions, adding a reception and evaluation center to the Coastal Region, and 1,296 beds to the prison system. Three more prisons are under construction: Broad River Correctional Institution is scheduled to open in FY 1988, and the prisons in Marlboro and Allendale Counties are scheduled to open in FY 1989.

During the last ten years, the Department of Corrections has come under increased pressure from the federal courts to remedy living conditions within the prisons, compounding the problem of insufficient bedspaces for the prison population. In 1978, the Department signed a consent agreement resulting from a 1976 class action suit, Mattison v. S.C. Board of Corrections. The suit addressed overcrowding, health care, and safety at the state's oldest prison, Central Correctional Institution (CCI). In 1985, the Department entered into a consent decree on the 1982 Nelson v. Leeke class action suit in which conditions for the whole prison system were challenged. In both cases, the Department, with the participation of the Budget and Control Board, the Attorney General's Office, and the Legislature, made a concerted effort to comply with the terms of the agreement and eliminate overcrowding and other unacceptable conditions as mandated. (See "Nelson Highlights" in this report for major issues.)

AGENCY ORGANIZATION

The South Carolina Department of Corrections is governed by the State Board of Corrections, a seven-member board, six of whom are appointed by the Governor upon the consent of the Senate. The Governor serves on the Board as an ex officio member. The Board is responsible for setting overall policy.

The agency is headed by a commissioner, appointed by the Board of Corrections, who administers Board policy and oversees day-to-day management.

The agency is organized into three primary functional offices, or areas of responsibility: administration, operations, and program services, each of which is headed by a deputy commissioner. Other specific staff functions are attached to the Commissioner's Office. The functions of each of the offices are described below.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER

Within the office of the Commissioner are the following specialized administrative staff support divisions/offices:

Public Affairs

The Division of Public Affairs is responsible for all public information and public relations; it includes the crime prevention programs, the victim-witness liaison, and the law enforcement liaison.

Legal Advisor

The Legal Advisor's Office provides legal counsel to the Board, the Commissioner, and the Department, and it represents the Department in legal actions. The Office of Legal Settlements and Compliance is responsible for monitoring compliance with the terms of any court orders or consent decrees, in particular, the Nelson v. Leeke consent decree, under which the Department is currently operating.

Special Projects

The Special Projects Office handles efforts to accredit individual prisons by the Commission on Accreditation and directs the policy-change process for the Department. This office also directs SCDC's Internship Program.

Internal Affairs, Audits, and Inspections

This Division is responsible for conducting annual inspections of all local detention facilities. In addition, the Division conducts internal investigations and audits. The Ombudsman's Office investigates inmates' complaints.

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER FOR ADMINISTRATION

Within the Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Administration are the following six Divisions: Planning and Budgeting; Industries; Support Services; Personnel Administration; Resource and Information Management; and Staff Training. The function of each of the divisions is described below.

Planning and Budgeting

The Division of Planning and Budgeting prepares all budget requests for submission to the Budget and Control Board and Legislature, reconciles expenditures with appropriations, and prepares all capital improvement plans and requests for bond approval. The division also conducts monitoring; allocation and internal control.

Industries

The Division of Industries manages prison industries and farming operations. Its products and services include the state motor vehicle license tags; furniture refinishing and repair; vehicle repair; laundry; and milk and meat. It employs an average work force of 875 inmates.

Support Services

This Division directs purchasing, food services, and the operation of the commissary and prison canteens.

Personnel Administration

The Division of Personnel Administration performs all the activities associated with recruiting and hiring new employees, maintaining personnel records, and payroll.

Resource and Information Management

This Division includes financial accounting; offender records; offender management information; statistical reporting and analysis; and automated systems management.

Training and Staff Development

The Division of Training and Staff Development provides pre-employment and in-service training for all security and non-security employees.

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER FOR OPERATIONS

The Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Operations directs the management of all prison operations, security, construction, engineering, and facility and equipment maintenance throughout the prison system. Within the Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Operations are the following divisions and offices: Inmate Operations and Control; Construction, Engineering and Maintenance; Security; and the three regional offices for prison operations, Appalachian, Midlands, and Coastal. A description of each of those divisions and offices follows.

Construction, Engineering and Maintenance

This division manages certain phases of new construction, acts as liaison with architects, engineers and contractors working on construction projects. Other activities include management of projects in which inmate labor is used, and maintenance and operation of the physical plants, i.e. institutions, other buildings and facilities. This Division has primary responsibility for implementation of the capital improvements plan.

Inmate Operations and Control

This Division oversees certain activities related to the movement, status, and number of inmates in SCDC facilities and in designated facilities and administers the Interstate Corrections Compact. This Division also contracts with counties for inmate work crews.

Security

The Director of Security is responsible for the Department's readiness to respond to emergency situations such as riots or hostage-taking. This office ensures that the special response teams, e.g., Reserve Emergency Platoons, Situation Control Teams, and Corrections Emergency Response Teams, are properly trained. This office also conducts regular security audits of high security institutions.

Institutional Operations: Regional Offices

The state is divided into three geographical regions to facilitate management and operations. Each of the regions is headed by a regional administrator who directs prison operations within his region. The regions are: Appalachian, Midlands, and Coastal. See Figure 2 for the composition of the regions; see "Historical Perspective" for an account of the development of the corrections regions.

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER FOR PROGRAM SERVICES

The Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Program Services directs the classification, health, mental health, education, and employment programs for inmates. Delivering a broad spectrum of program services under the supervision of this office are the Divisions of Classification, Youthful Offender and Community Services; Human Services; Educational Services; and Health Services.

Classification, Youthful Offender and Community Services

This Division directs the classification of inmates for security and custody purposes. It also oversees the custody and parole supervision of those offenders sentenced under the Youthful Offender Act (see Appendix C for further information on this Act). And it directs activities related to the placement and supervision of offenders in community programs, namely, work release, extended work release, supervised furlough, and other early release programs.

Human Services

The Division of Human Services administers and provides a variety of programs and services directed at improving offenders' mental health, and emotional well being. The programs include: psychological assessment; social work services; substance abuse therapy; religious services and pastoral counseling; and athletic and other recreational activities.

Educational Services

The Division of Educational Services, which is the Palmetto Unified School District #1, administers and provides academic, vocational, special and career education and library services to the inmate population at 16 institutions, with satellites at pre-release and work release centers. The School District offers a variety of vocational programs, including auto mechanics, carpentry, plumbing, and heavy equipment operation and repair, and academic programs, including GED preparation.

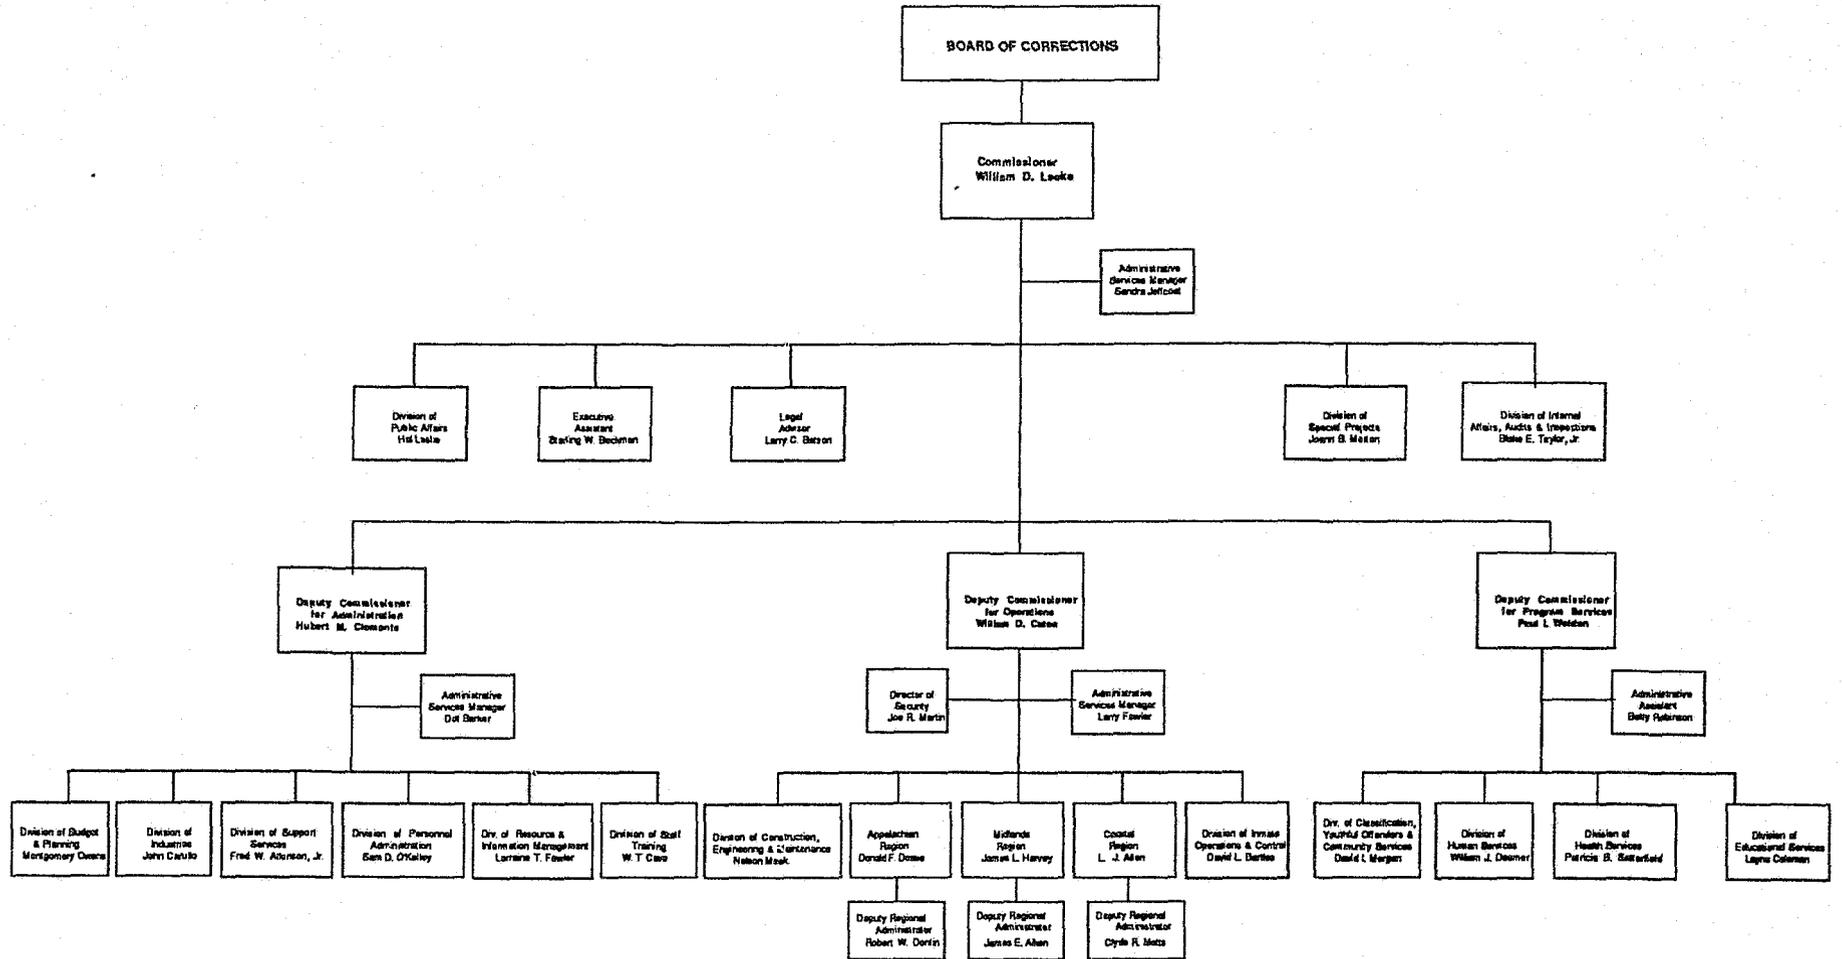

Health Services

The Division of Health Services renders medical, dental and psychiatric care to the inmate population. The Department operates 24-hour out-patient clinics at the large institutions; two infirmaries; and it utilizes the 5th floor at the Byrnes Clinical Center, Department of Mental Health, for general hospital care. The Department operates seven dental clinics. It has several Transitional Care Units for intermediate psychiatric care; and the Gilliam Psychiatric Center, for acute psychiatric care. The Department provides most of the health care services with in-house staff; however, it contracts for health care services at four institutions.

The Safe and Reasonable Operating Capacity, after meeting approval of the Budget and Control Board, was adopted in March, 1983 by the Board of Corrections.

* McCormick Correctional Inst. had a daily population of 157 from June 21, 1987 to June 30, 1987.

The reception and evaluation components at Perry and Lieber Correctional Institution provide intake services for the Appalachian and Coastal Regions.

 Broad River R & E's daily population was 251 from June 22 to June 30, 1987.

*The Midlands R&E closed on June 21, 1987. The figures shown are from the beginning of the period through the closing date.

INSTITUTIONS

The South Carolina Department of Corrections operated 28 correctional institutions as of June 30, 1987. Institutions range in size from the largest (and oldest), Central Correctional Institution, with a "safe and reasonable" operating capacity of 1,394, to the smallest, Lower Savannah Work Release Center, with a "safe and reasonable" operating capacity of 48. The Department operates 26 prisons for male offenders, one for female offenders, and one, State Park Correctional Center, that is comprised of two units, one for male geriatric and handicapped prisoners, and one for females on work release.

The Department of Corrections operates seven institutions classified as medium/maximum security, one medium security, eleven minimum security, one minimum/medium, and eight pre-release/work release.

With the completion of the Lieber Reception and Evaluation Center, each of the three correctional regions has a facility for intake processing. The reception and evaluation centers are adjacent to medium/maximum security institutions: Lieber, Perry, and the Broad River Correctional Institutions (the Broad River Correctional Institution is under construction). The Broad River Reception and Evaluation Center replaced the old Midlands Reception and Evaluation Center (112 beds), which closed in June, 1987.

McCormick Correctional Institution (600 beds) and the Broad River Reception and Evaluation Center (192 beds) both became operational in June, 1987.

Institutions accredited by the Commission on Accreditation are: Palmer Work Release Center, Dutchman Correctional Institution, Watkins Pre-Release Center, Cross Anchor Correctional Institution, Livesay Work Release Center, and State Park Correctional Center. Campbell Work Release Center was successfully audited with accreditation imminent.

As of June 30, 1987, the Department's "safe and reasonable" operating capacity was 10,068. "Safe and reasonable" operating capacity as a standard was approved by the Budget and Control Board and the Board of Corrections in 1983 and has been the official basis for determining overcrowding. On January 8, 1988, the Department will adopt the Nelson capacity, as specified in the Nelson v. Leeke consent decree. A listing of the institutions and their capacities comprises Table 1.

SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENTS IN FY 1987

Inmate Population

- o The average jurisdictional population increased by 1,031 from FY 1986 to FY 1987, a 10% increase. The average custody population increased by 1,021 from last year, an 11% increase.
- o As of June 30, 1987, the custody population was 10,910; the jurisdictional population was 12,450 (excluding 712 EPA releasees under DPCC supervision).
- o At 12,450 on June 30, 1987, jurisdictional population was 917 over the June 30, 1986, population of 11,533, an 8% increase. The custody population increased from 10,090 (on June 30, 1986) to 10,910 on June 30, 1987.
- o During FY 1987, the Department admitted 7,952 offenders and released 6,969, resulting in a net increase of 983 inmates.
- o The average sentence length of offenders admitted during FY 1987, 5 years 3 months, showed an increase of 5 months over the average for admissions in the previous fiscal year.

Ordered Early Release

- o On July 22, 1986, the Federal Court that is monitoring compliance with the Nelson v. Leeke consent decree authorized SCDC to either release or find new bed spaces for 530 inmates to reduce overcrowding. The Department constructed three "temporary" barracks with a capacity of 96 beds each, and released 149 prisoners an average of 27 days early.
- o The Department of Parole and Community Corrections began to release inmates pursuant to the State of Emergency declared by Governor Carroll A. Campbell, as of April 29, 1987, as authorized by the Prison Overcrowding Powers Act. The Executive Order signed by Governor Campbell specified that 300 inmates in the five lowest risk categories, as determined by the Department of Parole and Community Corrections, could be released during the six months following the executive order. Between May 15, 1987 and June 30, 1987, 16 inmates were released under "EPA II."

Changes in Prison Capacity and Other Capital Improvements

- o Lieber Correctional Institution, located in Ridgeville, became fully operational with the opening of the Reception and Evaluation Center for the Coastal Region and the completion of the remaining living areas.

- o A new 96-bed dormitory added at the Women's Correctional Center became operational in November, 1986.
- o Renovations to existing institutions added a net of 80 beds to the bedspace capacity.
- o Three 96-bed barracks, located at MacDougall, Walden, and Northside, were completed in September, 1986. The Department now has five barracks in operation.
- o The Broad River Reception and Evaluation Center opened on June 22, 1987, replacing the old R&E Center in downtown Columbia. The new intake facility, with a capacity of 192, will be attached to the new medium security prison, the Broad River Correctional Institution. The combined capacity will be 792 upon completion in Spring, 1988.
- o McCormick Correctional Institution opened on June 22, 1987. It is a medium security prison, with a capacity of 600.
- o The Department of Corrections Training Academy is under construction. When operational, it will have eight classrooms, dormitory space for 132, and office space for instructors. Basic and advanced training for correctional officers as well as in-service training for other employees will be conducted at the new Academy.
- o Nearly completed at the end of the fiscal year, the 96-bed shock probation center for men opens at Wateree River Correctional Institution July, 1987. A 24-bed shock probation facility for women adjacent to the Women's Correctional Center will open later.
- o A change in the prototypical medium security prison capacity was approved by the Budget and Control Board and the Joint Bond Review Committee, increasing the capacity from 600 beds to 808 beds by enlarging 208 73-square-foot cells to 100 square feet, thereby allowing partial double celling.
- o Capital funding has been approved for two new 808-bed medium security prisons. They will be located in Allendale and Marlboro Counties. Preliminary work is underway for the two prisons, both of which are scheduled for completion in mid-1989.
- o At year end, the "safe and reasonable" capacity for the Department of Corrections was 10,068, an increase of 1,654 during the fiscal year.
- o The Budget and Control Board and the Joint Bond Review Committee approved the establishment of a $300,000 project for the planning of the relocation of the Central Correctional Institution (CCI).

Funding/Expenditures

- o The Budget and Control Board ordered an across-the-board cut of $1,577,092 in November and $443,102 in February, 1987. The total budget cut was $2,020,194.
- o The total expenditure of all funds for FY 1987 was $132,191,462 (includes state, federal, special revenue, canteen, and prison industry funds, but excludes capital improvements funds). The total expenditure of state, federal, and special revenue funds for FY 1987 was $120,964,766 (excludes prison industry, canteen, and capital improvements funds). The total expenditure of state appropriated funds was $118,379,721.
- o The cost of incarceration per inmate per year in state funds was $11,471; in state, federal, and special revenue funds it was $11,721 (based on the average population in SCDC institutions).
- o The value of the agricultural commodities marketed and/or utilized by SCDC during the year was $1,604,218.
- o Total sales of Prison Industries' products amounted to $6,018,929; net profit was $62,699.

Personnel

- o The Department had 657 new positions for FY 1987, all of which were designated for McCormick Correctional Institution or third year compliance with the Nelson v. Leeke consent decree. Additional security officers were added to implement the Adult Internal Management System (AIMS), i.e. the separation of violent from non-violent inmates, and "sight and sound" observation capabilities. Social workers, mental health professionals, and classification caseworkers were added to implement Nelson Health/Mental Health Staffing Study recommendations.
- o At year end, the Department had 4,353 employees.
- o The FY 1987 turnover rate for security personnel was 23.2%; for all Department personnel it was 21.1%.
- o The Staff Development and Training Division provided orientation to 1,833 new employees and basic correctional officer certification instruction to 1,043 new security employees.

- o At year end the SCDC workforce was 53% white, 47% non-white, 69% male, 31% female.

Programs for Inmates

- o The Adult Internal Management System (AIMS) was implemented at seven additional institutions.
- o A total of 10,438 inmates was assigned to community work/pre-release centers during FY 1987, an average of 870 per month. In addition, about 160 inmates per month were assigned to the Extended Work Release Program. The inmates assigned to the work and extended work release programs were paid $5,675,433 in gross wages; approximately $1.1 million was paid back to the Department for room and board, $594,256 was paid to dependents, $916,581 was paid in federal and state taxes, and the remainder was paid to the employed inmates.
- o The Palmetto Unified School District #1 awarded 479 GED certificates and 487 vocational certificates, and 441 inmates completed the 8th grade curriculum. Literacy training was provided to 1,157 and employability skills training to 741 inmates. Average monthly enrollment in all educational programs was 2,474.
- o Health services were delivered under contract with a private provider at three institutions in the Coastal Region and at McCormick Correctional Institution in the Midlands Region.
- o A transitional care unit providing intermediate mental health care was added at Kirkland Correctional Institution.
- o All of the major institutions now have 24-hour health care services coverage.
- o Prison Industries employed an average of 875 inmates in its various plants.

Legislation

- o Penalties for felony DUI were increased by amending Section 56-5-2945, Code of Laws of South Carolina. The mandatory incarceration penalty for violation, formerly 30 days to 1 year, was increased to 90 days to 10 years. The Act also specifies that no part of the mandatory sentence may be suspended, probation may not be granted for any portion, and it further defines "great bodily injury."
- o "Qualified prisoner," for the purposes of eligibility for participation in the Supervised Furlough Program, was further defined to prohibit from participation persons convicted of criminal sexual conduct in the third degree or committing or attempting a lewd act upon a child under the age of fourteen. Section 24-3-1120, Code of Laws of South Carolina was amended by this Act.

- o Prison Industries law, Section 24-3-310 and 24-3-400, Code of Laws of South Carolina was amended to provide that 5-20% of inmates' gross wages from prison industries be designated for victims' assistance programs; inmates working in prison industries can now be paid prevailing wages; and prison industry projects cannot displace privately employed workers located in communities with labor surplus.

NELSON V. LEEKE HIGHLIGHTS

- o Gary Wayne Nelson, an inmate at CCI, filed a class action suit against the Department of Corrections in 1982, charging that systemwide conditions violated the 8th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution prohibiting cruel and unusual punishment. The class action suit encompassed all inmates in the system at that time and any entering the system thereafter.
- o The Department negotiated with the plaintiffs for two years before coming to an agreement. The General Assembly found the agreement to be "...in the best interest of the State..." and authorized the Department to enter into the proposed consent agreement. Further, the General Assembly agreed to provide "...substantial additional funding...or other remedies..." to meet the terms of the settlement.
- o The Consent Decree, signed on January 8, 1985, stipulates that the Department will end overcrowding within five years, with January 8, 1990, the target compliance date. The bedspace capacities for existing institutions must conform to the Nelson-established capacities for minimum and medium/maximum security institutions.
- o Since the Consent Decree was signed, the General Assembly has authorized funds for the construction of four new prisons and additional funds for Lieber Correctional Institution and a unit at the Women's Correctional Center. The additional bedspaces are necessary to accommodate the projected population growth in compliance with the Consent Decree.
- o Although the primary focus is the elimination of overcrowding and inadequate staffing, the Consent Decree addresses many other issues affecting the operation of the prisons. The major issues include staff training, health services, fire and life safety, and physical plant.
- o An objective classification system was also ordered, primarily to provide separation of violent and non-violent inmates. Additional correctional officers and classification caseworkers have been required to implement this directive.
- o Quarterly reports on the Department's compliance must be submitted to the plaintiffs' counsel and the Court. If the Department is "out of compliance," the plaintiffs' counsel generally asks the Federal District Court for relief.

FISCAL INFORMATION

Expenditures by Budget Code

The Department of Corrections expended $132,191,462 in state appropriations, federal funds, special revenues, prison industry, and canteen funds (excluding capital improvement funds) in FY 1987. The major expenditures were for salaries and fringe benefits of employees (69%); supplies, which includes food, uniforms, medical, and office supplies (10%); and items for resale by canteens, and Prison Industries (6%). Table 2 enumerates the expenditures by state budget code.

Expenditures by Program

Based on the expenditure of state, federal and special revenues, the majority of the Department's expenditures were directly related to institutional operations, with 72.5% of the expenditures in that program category, as shown in figure 3. Inmate programs and services accounted for 11.6% of all expenditures; 9.4% was spent on physical and mental health programs and services; and 6.5% was spent on administration and support.

Cost Per Inmate

Based on the average number of inmates in South Carolina Department of Corrections institutions, it cost $11,471 in state funds to incarcerate one inmate for one year, and it cost $11,721 in state, federal, and special revenues. The cost per inmate per year in state funds increased $1,232 over the previous fiscal year, a 12% increase. The per-inmate costs per year for the last 15 years, shown in Table 3 and figure 4, have increased consistently, with greater percentage increases in the last several years.

INMATE AND PERSONNEL STATISTICS

Detailed inmate and personnel statistics are presented in the following pages. Tables 7 to 13 enumerate the characteristics of inmates admitted to SCDC during FY 1987. Tables 14 to 23 describe the inmate population in SCDC as of June 30, 1987. Tables 24 and 25 pertain to inmates released from SCDC during the fiscal year. Tables 26 through 31 relate to inmate statuses and to personnel.

Profile of Inmates Admitted to SCDC During FY 1987

- o 82.6% of the 7,952 admissions were sentenced by the courts; 72.2% had "straight sentences" and 10.4% had indeterminate sentences as provided by the Youthful Offender Act.
- o 7.9% of admissions were probation revocations; 5.4% were parole revocations; 3.1% were EPA revocations; and 0.8% were resentenced.
- o The average (mean) sentence length of inmates admitted during the fiscal year was 5 years 3 months (excluding life, death, and YOA sentences).
- o The most serious offenses* for inmates admitted during the fiscal year were: larceny, dangerous drugs, burglary, traffic offenses, fraudulent activities, assault, and robbery in rank order. Those offenses accounted for 5,385, or 67.7% of the 7,952 admissions.
- o 60.4% of the admissions were 17-29 years of age.
- o 37.9% of the admissions were white males; 54% were non-white males; 3.2% were white females; and 4.8% were non-white females.

Profile of Inmates Released from SCDC During FY 1987

- o 31.3% of 6,969 inmates released during the fiscal year "maxed out," that is, were released at the expiration of their sentence less "good time."
- o 19.8% were placed on probation, indicating a split sentence.
- o 14.8% were paroled by the Department of Parole and Community Corrections and 11.9% were paroled by the Youthful Offender Board of the Department of Corrections.

*The most serious offense is the offense with the longest sentence.

- o 17.2% were released by EPA I and EPA II.

Profile of Inmate Population as of June 30, 1987

- o The average sentence length of the "as of" population was 11 years 11 months.
- o 793 or 6.4% of the population were YOA's.
- o 48 or 0.4% of the population had death sentences.
- o 2,869, or 23%, had sentences of 20 years or more, including life.
- o 37% of the "as of" population were white males; 57.8% were non-white males; 2.1% were white females; and 3.1% were non-white females.
- o The average age of the population on June 30, 1987, was 30 years. 56% were 29 years of age or younger.

This category of inmates does not take up bedspace in SCDC facilities and has increased in number as institutional diversionary programs are implemented--Extended Work Release Program (in 1978), Supervised Furlough and Provisional Parole Program (in 1982). Special placements included those inmates assigned to the State Law Enforcement Division, the Commissioner's Home, hospital facilities, Alston Wilkes Half-way Houses, Interstate Compact, authorized absences, Extended Work Release, Supervised Furlough and Provisional Parole.

Since April 1, 1975, suitable county and local facilities have been designated as facilities to hold State inmates as a temporary measure to alleviate overcrowded conditions in SCDC facilities.

* Average calculated from January, 1987 - June, 1987 population figures.

An elaboration of these offenses is included in Section B of the Appendix.

Ranking is in descending order according to offense; the offense category with the largest total number is ranked number one.

All offenses committed by an inmate are counted; therefore, because of multiple offenses for some inmates, the total number of offenses exceeds the total number of inmates.

An elaboration of these offenses is included in Section B of the Appendix.

Ranking is in descending order according to offense; the offense category with the largest total number is ranked number one.

All offenses committed by an inmate are counted; therefore, because of multiple offenses for some inmates, the total number of offenses exceeds the total number of inmates.

*The total inmate population excludes 805 YOA parolees who are also under SCDC's jurisdiction and included in budgetary consideration.

 Percentage is less than 0.1%.

APPENDIX A

STATUTORY AUTHORITY OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

The South Carolina Department of Corrections was created in 1960 by Section 55-292, South Carolina Code of Laws as follows:

"There is hereby created as an administrative agency of the State government the Department of Corrections. The functions of the Department shall be to implement and carry out the policy of the State with respect to its prison system, as set forth in 55-291, and the performance of such other duties and matters as may be delegated to it pursuant to Law."

Section 55-291 as referred to in Section 55-292 sets out the Declaration of Policy as follows: "It shall be the policy of this State in the operation and management of the Department of Corrections to manage and conduct the Department in such a manner as will be consistent with the operation of a modern prison system and with the view of making the system self-sustaining, and that those convicted of violating the law and sentenced to a term in the State Penitentiary shall have humane treatment, and be given opportunity, encouragement and training in the matter of reformation."

Further significant statutory authority was provided the Department by Section 14, Part II, the permanent provisions of the 1974-75 General Appropriations Act which was signed on June 28, 1974. Section 14 is, in effect, an amendment of Section 55-321 and places all prisoners convicted of an offense against the State in the custody of the Department when their sentences exceed three months. The text of the statute is as follows:

"Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 55-321 of the 1962 Code, or any other provision of law, any person convicted of an offense against the State of South Carolina shall be in the custody of the Board of Corrections of the State of South Carolina, and the Board shall designate the place of confinement where the sentence shall be served.

The Board may designate as a place of confinement any available, suitable and appropriate institution or facility, including a county jail or work camp whether maintained by the State Department of Corrections or otherwise, but the consent of the officials in charge of the county institutions so designated shall be first obtained. Provided, that if imprisonment for three months or less is ordered by the court as the punishment, all persons so convicted shall be placed in the custody, supervision and control of the appropriate officials of the county wherein the sentence was pronounced, if such county has facilities suitable for confinement."

This statute was amended by an added provision in the 1975-76 General Appropriations Act to provide for notification to the Department of Corrections of the closing of county prison facilities as follows: "Section 14, Part II, of Act 1136 of 1974 is amended by adding the following proviso at the end thereof: Provided, further, that the Department of Corrections shall be notified by the county officials concerned not less than six months prior to the closing of any county prison facility which would result in the transfer of the prisoners of the county facility to facilities of the Department."

APPENDIX C

YOUTHFUL OFFENDER ACT

The Youthful Offender Act provides for indeterminate sentencing of offenders between the ages of 17 and 21, extended to 25 with offender consent. The specific provisions of the Act are as follows:

Section 5b - This section allows the court to release the youthful offender to the custody of the Department's Division of Classification and Community Services prior to sentencing for an observation and evaluation period of not more than 60 days.

Section 5c - This section allows the court to sentence the youthful offender, between 17 and 21, without his consent, indefinitely to the custody of the Department's Division of Classification and Community Services for treatment and supervision until discharge. The period of such custody will not exceed six years. If the offender has reached 21 years of age but is less than 25 years of age, he may be sentenced in accordance with the above procedure if he consents thereto in writing.

Section 5d - This section provides that if the court finds that the youthful offender will not derive benefits from treatment, it may sentence the youthful offender under any other applicable provision.

APPENDIX D

LEGISLATION RELATING TO SUPERVISED FURLOUGH

Supervised Furlough I: Pursuant to Section 24-13-710, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, the Supervised Furlough Program provides for first-time or second-time offenders committed to the South Carolina Department of Corrections with a total sentence of over one year but not more than five years, for crimes other than (1) Murder, (2) Armed Robbery, (3) Criminal Sexual Assault, (4) Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill, (5) Drug Trafficking, or (6) Kidnapping, to be released on furlough under the supervision of the Department of Parole and Community Corrections. These carefully selected and screened offenders have the privilege of residing in an approved residence and continuing treatment or employment in the community until parole eligibility or expiration of sentence. Additional eligibility requirements for program placement include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Maintain a clear disciplinary record for at least six months prior to consideration for program placement;
2. Demonstrate a general desire to become a law-abiding member of society;
3. Have an identifiable need for and willingness to participate in community-based programs and rehabilitative services.

Supervised Furlough II (also Section 24-13-710): By the authority granted under Article 9, Chapter 13 of Title 24, 1976 Code as amended upon approval by the Governor on June 13, 1983, the South Carolina Department of Corrections and the South Carolina Department of Parole and Community Corrections have developed a cooperative agreement for the operation of the Supervised Furlough Program. The Act provides for the placement of inmates who qualify under the criteria to be placed on furlough under the supervision of the Department of Parole and Community Corrections. In order to be released under the Supervised Furlough II Program, an inmate: must not have been sentenced to life imprisonment; must not have been sentenced for any of the following crimes--Murder, Armed Robbery, Criminal Sexual Assault (1st, 2nd, or 3rd degree), Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill, Kidnapping, Drug Trafficking, Non-Support, Contempt of Court, Violation of the Habitual Offender Act, Lewd act on a Child under the age of 14, Burglary in the 1st degree or 2nd degree with aggravating circumstances (16-11-312(B)), Assault with Intent to Commit Criminal Sexual Conduct, Felony DUI, Voluntary Manslaughter, Involuntary Manslaughter or Accessory Before the Fact of any of the above offenses; must not have any pending holds, wanteds, or detainers; must not be confined to lock-up for investigation or disciplinary action on placement date; must not be released directly from Psychiatric Unit; must not have been removed from participation in a community program during the six months prior to Supervised Furlough eligibility date; must not have been sentenced under the Youthful Offender Act; must not have a pending adjustment committee action; must not be a participant in the Extended Work Release Program; must not have escaped during the six months prior to Supervised Furlough eligibility date; must have a claimed place of residence with a verifiable address within the State of South Carolina which is approved by the Department of Parole and Community Corrections; must be within six months of the expiration of sentence; must have served at least six months toward the sentence; must have maintained a clear disciplinary record for at least six months prior to eligibility date; and must have served the minimum time of a mandatory minimum sentence.

APPENDIX E

EARNED WORK CREDIT PROGRAM (EWCP)

The EWCP was authorized as part of the 1978 Litter Control Act. In addition to providing for the use of inmates for litter control and removal, the Act amended Section 24-13-230 of the 1976 S.C. Code of Laws, and authorized SCDC's Commissioner to allow a reduction of time served by inmates assigned productive duty. Earned Work Credits are awarded on the basis of performance on the assigned job as well as job classification level. The job levels and the credits for a full-time job requiring more than four hours work per day are as follows:

- Level 2: One Earned Work Credit for each two days worked.
- Level 3: One Earned Work Credit for each three days worked.
- Level 5: One Earned Work Credit for each five days worked.
- Level 7: One Earned Work Credit for each seven days worked.

Those assigned to part-time jobs, requiring up to four hours each work day, can earn one-half of the amount of credits shown above.

During FY 1987, an average of 9,574 inmates (or 81 percent of the SCDC average daily population) were productively engaged and earned credits toward their time to serve. An additional 994 inmates, on the average, worked on jobs but due to their sentence category were not eligible for motivational work credits as specified by the Litter Control Act. Among those eligible for motivational work credit, a total of 880,424 credits were earned during this period for a productivity average of 92 credits per inmate. These credits ultimately will result in an earlier release date for each of these inmates at an average of 57 days per 100 credit days earned for those released with sentence served and 100 days per 100 credit days for those paroled. A detailed breakdown of the daily average of inmates in each job assignment and the total and average number of work credits generated by each job during this period is presented in Table 31. The profile of inmates at each job level of productive work close to the end of FY 1987 was as follows:

LEVEL	FULL TIME	PART TIME	NUMBER OF INMATES
2 (One day credit for each two days worked)	3,937	1	3,938 (31.6%)
3 (One day credit for each three days worked)	2,530	25	2,555 (20.5%)

LEVEL	FULL TIME	PART TIME	NUMBER OF INMATES
5 (One day credit for each five days worked)	1,645	137	1,782 (14.3%)
7 (One day credit for each seven days worked)	1,009	250	1,259 (10.1%)
Unassigned/Not Earning Credit*	2,916	--	2,916 (23.4%)
TOTAL	12,037	413	12,450 (100.0%)

*Inmates undergoing transfer, reception and evaluation processing, administrative disciplinary action, unassigned, or on Death Row.

The Earned Work Credit Program was conceived as a strategy to stabilize inmate population, thereby controlling the spiraling long-term capital improvements and operating costs. The effects of earned work credits on the SCDC population level and operational costs have resulted in the reduction of time served of released inmates. Between July 1, 1986, and June 30, 1987, 6,969 inmates were released from SCDC. Of that number, 5,422 inmates (78%) had their time served reduced via the productive work provisions of the Litter Control Act*.

The 1986 Omnibus Criminal Justice Improvements Act revised the earned work credit program to allow certain (non-violent) inmates to receive work credits if they enrolled in an academic program. However, inmates with life sentences are not eligible for work or educational credits and violent offenders are not eligible for educational credits.

*Of the remaining 1,547 inmates released, 434 had earned work credit, but because of a combination of circumstances were not affected in their release eligibility.

APPENDIX F

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

1. 30-Day Pre-Release Program: Inmates who complete their sentences with the SCDC or are provisionally paroled participate in this program. It offers participants a series of pre-release training sessions at the Watkins Pre-Release Center and the Blue Ridge Community Pre-Release Center. Inmates on the 30-Day Pre-Release Program do not work in the community.
2. Regular Work Release, Short-Term Work Release, Educational Release, Federal Referral Programs: Inmates participating in the Short-Term Work Release, Regular Work Release, Educational Release, and Federal Referral Programs work in the community during the day and reside in SCDC work centers. These programs have similar selection criteria but differ in terms of the inmates' remaining time to serve before eligibility for parole or other forms of release. The Federal Bureau of Prisons refers some of their inmates to SCDC who are legal residents of South Carolina and meet all the criteria for the SCDC Regular Work Release Program. For details on the programs' respective eligibility requirements, users of this report should consult the Division of Classification and Community Services.
3. Extended Work Release Program: This program allows the exceptional work release inmate to continue employment in the community and reside with an approved community sponsor. Program participants continue to be responsible to the work release center assigned and are maintained as authorized absentees. Information on eligibility criteria can be obtained from the Division of Classification and Community Services.
