The three-story structure, faced with buff modular brick topped with limestone copings, contains finished suites for 11 judges and unpartioned space for a twelfth suite. Construction was completed in 24 months. There are 41,235 square feet in the building.

An eighth judgeship authorized for the Second Circuit will be filled by election in 1988. This court hears appeals from the 20 northernmost Louisiana parishes.

Left to right: Judge Leon Ford, III, representing the Louisiana Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges; Mr. Paul M. Haygood, representing the Louisiana State Law Institute; Mr. Sidney E. Fleming, representing the Louisiana District Judges Association (term expited 12/31/87); Judge Billy Ross Robinson, representing the Louisiana City Judges Association; Honorable Joseph Accardo, Jr., State Representative; Mr. Duncan S. Kemp, Ill, representing the Louisiana District Attorneys Association; Judge Nancy Amato Konrad, representing the Louisiana Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges.

Four new appellate judgeships were created by the Legislature, effective January 1, 1988, after approval by the Committee to Evaluate Requests for the Creation of New Appellate Judgeships chaired by Judge James C. Gulotta and staffed by Dr. Hugh M. Collins. The Third Circuit Court of Appeal, Lake Charles, will have three judgeships and the Second Circuit Court of Appeal, Shreveport, will gain one judgeship.

The Appellate Court Delay/Court Reporting Subcommittee chaired by Judge Cleveland J. Marcel, Retired, and staffed by Ronald Wm. Stritzinger of the Judicial Administrator's Office, succeeded in having legislation passed which amended and reenacted the Code of Criminal Procedure, relative to appeals, to provide for changes in the granting of extensions for preparation of the appellate record timely and to provide for sanctions for failure to do so. Another bill dealing with provisions applicable to the trial court and clerk's office failed to get out of committee.

As part of the celebration of the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution, the Louisiana Judicial Council approved a resolution urging every judge in Louisiana to acknowledge the Bicentennial on September 17, 1987, the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution. This resolution was proposed by Justice James L. Dennis, Chairman of the Louisiana Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution. As part of Louisiana's celebration, our Supreme Court has convened to hear actual cases pending before it at Benjamin Franklin Public High School in New Orleans, Louisiana College in Pineville, and in the Civic Center in Shreveport. Additional travels are planned for 1988. Under the auspices of the Commission, the famed "Roads to Liberty" brought the Magna Carta to Baton Rouge and to New Orleans. The Bicentennial celebration has been recognized in the legislature and in numerous communities throughout the state.

Justice Harry T. Lemmon's Committee on Appointment of Ad Hoc Judges succeeded in having the legislature and the voters approve a constitutional amendment to give sole authority to the Supreme Court to provide by rule for appointment of attorneys as temporary or ad hoc judges of city, municipal, traffic, parish, juvenile or family courts.

The Committee to Formulate Amendments to the Louisiana Small Claims Act and Book VIII of the Code Civil Procedure, chaired by Judge Darrell D. White, was successful in having the legislature pass revisions in the law relative to small claims procedures providing for service of citation, filing fees, for arbitration, and changes in the clerk's role. This legislation effectively reestablished the litigant focused aspect of the small claims court in Louisiana.

The Committee to Develop Time Standards for District Courts, chaired by Judge Gerald P. Fedoroff and staffed by Dr. Hugh M. Collins, collected detailed information concerning the status of civil dockets in Louisiana. The committee compared its results with the American Bar Association (ABA) standards and as a result has established 5 pilot projects in the state - the 7th, 15th, 19th and 37th Judicial Districts, and Orleans Civil District Court - in which the ABA standards will be submitted to practical application by representative courts.

The Committee to Develop Time Standards for Courts of Appeal, chaired by Chief Judge James C. Gulotta and staffed by Dr. Hugh M. Collins, has studied extensive data from the courts of appeal and has created preliminary time standards. In addition, Chief Justice John A. Dixon, Jr. as asked this committee to formulate time standards for the Supreme Court.

Judge Alfred A. Mansour, Chairman, and his Committee on the Funding of Court Reporters surveyed the courts of the state discovering that there is no standardization in the funding of Court Reporters and that nineteen of the courts of general jurisdiction are having difficulty paying their court reporters. Results of the survey, including a description of all of the methods currently used to fund court reporters, have been distributed to all chief judges in the state.

The Committee to Evaluate Requests for New District Judgeships recommended no new judgeships in 1987. This committee, chaired by Judge Thomas W. Tanner, continues to determine the validity of all requests made for additional judgeships in the district courts.

The Council passed a resolution reaffirming its support for the law prohibiting a city court judge from making more money from all sources than a district court judge. In other action, as a result of a recommendation of the Judicial Council, the legislature passed legis-

The Judicial Administrator Reports

HUGH M. COLLINS, Ph.D. Acting Judicial Administrator

After sixteen years at the helm of the Judicial Administrator's office of the Louisiana Supreme Court, Eugene J. Murret retired on July 31, 1987. He subsequently accepted the post of Circuit Executive of the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit in Denver, Colorado. I have served as acting Judicial Administrator since Gene's retirement.

While Gene's absence is felt on a personal basis, and although we all know how hard he worked, this fact has been brought into sharp focus in the last five months, during which time my staff and I have absorbed his job. Most of the projects underway or coming to fruition now were begun during Gene's time in office and are a tribute to his leadership and vision.

Of major importance to the judicial system was the creation and passage of the judicial appropriation bill, the result of the first formal, separate judicial appropriation process. This product required extensive compilation and analysis by Tim Palmatier, our chief fiscal officer, and by Michelle S. Speaser, his assistant, who worked long hours on submitted budget requests, participated in formal hearings and made recommendations to the Judicial Budgetary Control Board and the Supreme Court justices in their determination of final recommendations to the Legislature.

Passage of Amendment No. 1, giving sole authority to the Supreme Court to provide by rule for the appointment of judges ad hoc and pro tempore to courts of limited jurisdiction was achieved through the efforts of Justice Harry T. Lemmon and his Committee on Appointments of Ad Hoc Judges. The administrative tasks attendant to the implementation of Amendment No. 1 have been considerable. My staff and I have made the necessary in-house changes. There remains the process of educating each of the courts concerning new procedures.

Meanwhile, planning for the renovation of the old New Orleans Courts Building continues. This project, begun in 1980, has reached the stage where architectural plans are complete, asbestos removal and replacement of the roof are about to proceed, and a 4.7 million dollar line of credit has been extended by the bond commission for the continuation of this project. This building will house not only the Supreme Court but the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeal, the Attorney General and the Law Library of Louisiana. At present, the Louisiana Supreme Court is operating in a building that provides only 65% of its space requirements.

The Committee on Standards for Juror Use and Management chaired by Judge Melvin A. Shortess, for which I serve as staff, has reviewed the American Bar Association (ABA) Standards, and Louisiana law, rules, and practice, and has prepared a draft of recommendations for improvements in Louisiana.

The Committee to Study and Recommend Time Standards for the Processing of Cases Through the Courts of Appeal, chaired by Judge James C. Gulotta, and staffed by me, has reviewed the American Bar Association's Standards. The committee plans to complete its work by the fall of 1988. In the meantime, the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeal has been named as part of a national demonstration project, as one of the courts where the ABA will work to develop model appellate procedures.

As part of the National celebration of the 200th anniversary of our constitution, the Judicial Administrator of each state was designated by the National Committee on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution, chaired by former Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, to coordinate in his or her state, the National Bicentennial Writing Competition. In Louisiana, this task was assigned to Paulette Holahan, of my office, who received the cooperation of numerous members of the bench, bar, media, and civic-minded citizens throughout the state, who acted as judges for the large number of essays submitted. Louisiana's top winner was Michael Bagelman* from New Orleans. Michael received $1,000 and a trip to Washington, D.C. to meet President Reagan. U.S.A. Today, the National Committee on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution, and the American Bar Association jointly sponsored the essay contest.

My staff and I continue to afford support services to the various committees and subcommittees of the Judicial Council: Ronald Wm. Stritzinger serves as staff for the Science and Technology Committee of the Judicial Council affording advice and expertise to all state courts; the Appellate Court Delay/Court Reporting Subcommittee; and along with Paulette Holahan, staffs the Committee to Consider the Adoption of Letter Size Paper as a Standard for Louisiana Courts.

Lansing L. Mitchell, Jr. continues to work with the district courts, serves on assignment to the Judiciary Commission, and along with Paulette Holahan and me, continues to assist with the evaluation of requests for new judgeships.

Rose Marie Bye is in charge of the Supreme Court Court Reporting Pool and supplies valuable staffing when legislation regarding Court Reporters, is presented to the Judicial Council.

Paulette H. Holahan conducts our annual survey of District Judges, serves as Public Information Officer, staffs the Court/Community Relations subcommittee, co-staffs with Ronald Wm. Stritzinger, the Committee to Consider the Adoption of Letter Size Paper as a Standard for Louisiana Courts, and also assists with the staffing of the Judicial Council. In addition, she is Vice-President of the Louisiana Court Administrators Association.

*Other winners were: Barclay Barrios, Second Place; Steven Cozine, Third Place; Honorable Mention: Holly Harvey, Suzanne B. Landry, Etienne Maumus, Wynn Stewart Pinkston, Michelle Sieff, Scott Willcox, and David Wnessner.

lation prohibiting any person appointed to fill a vacancy in the office of Justice of the Peace from running as a candidate for that office.

The Judicial Planning Committee (J.P.C.) of the Judicial Council, chaired by Associate Justice James L. Dennis has numerous subcommittees which were active in 1987.

The Science and Technology subcommittee of the J.P.C. along with the Louisiana Court Administrators Association sponsored a program on electronic in-house incarceration at the Spring Judges Conference. A pilot project in Baton Rouge City Court has been developed as a result of this presentation. Additionally, an evaluation was made of the merits of the most popular computer-aided transcription systems. This committee, chaired by Judge Leon Ford, III, and staffed by Ronald Wm. Stritzinger, continues to serve as a clearinghouse for information on technology in Louisiana's courts.

Judge Salvadore T. Mulé, Chairman of the Juvenile Courts Subcommittee, and the members of his subcommittee are cooperating in the work of creating a Juvenile Code for Louisiana and are serving on the liaison committees of the Departments of Corrections and of Health and Human Resources.

The Courts/Community Relations Subcommittee, chaired by Mr. Richard F. Knight, Esquire, and staffed by Paulette H. Holahan, planned and implemented, with the very able assistance of Professor Paul E. Baier of the L.S.U. Law Center, a highly successful Court Personnel and the Public Seminar. 146 people from around the state participated. Additionally, legislation clarifying the notification of jurors by mail has been successfully passed as a result of efforts by this subcommittee.

The annual survey of the district judges sponsored by the Judicial Planning Committee for the Judicial Council was completed by Paulette H. Holahan. This year's survey queried the courts on computer use. The results were made available to the courts and Technology Subcommittee for analysis.

Chief Justice John A. Dixon, Jr. created the following committees: Committee to Study Changing the Terms of the Clerks of Court Throughout the State to Coincide with the Terms of the District Judges, chaired by Judge Philip C. Ciaccio and staffed by Dr. Hugh M. Collins; Committee to Study the Adoption of Letter Size Paper as a Standard for Louisiana Courts, chaired by Judge Arthur J. Planchard and staffed by Ronald Wm. Stritzinger and Paulette H. Holahan.

The Judicial Council of the Supreme Court of Louisiana was established in 1950 and received its first funding by the State legislature in 1954.

LAW LIBRARY OF LOUISIANA 1987 ANNUAL REPORT

Last year's annual report focused on the changes that computers have generated in the law library. During 1987 it became increasingly clear that rather than making our jobs easier, automation challenges us to learn new procedures and discover new computer applications in order to make the library operate more effectively. Our staff has been avidly involved in professional development activities that keep them abreast of innovations in their field.

Randal Owen, reference librarian, who will complete law school in the spring, has developed exceptional expertise as a Westlaw researcher. He was honored in July by the American Association of Law Libraries with one of its coveted scholarships for law librarians attending law school. Serving in the dual capacity of cataloging and reference librarian, Janice Schull also conducts Westlaw searches. Operating the only public terminal in Louisiana, these two librarians performed 470 searches during 1987—a 12% increase over 1986. The service yielded $1,918 in profits, which was used for book purchases.

The cataloging department processed 311 new titles, accounting for 479 new volumes. Janice Schull has gained proficiency in the use of the Zenith Z-158 computer acquired in July with dBase III Plus, Lotus 1-2-3, and Wordstar software. As other staff members learn to use the computer, many record-keeping and budgeting procedures can be streamlined. D. D. Thompson, assistant in cataloging, maintains the microform collection, recording 7,458 new microfiches.

Acquisitions/Serials Librarian Betty Kern recorded a net gain of 1,635 hard-copy volumes and 1,243 equivalent volumes of microforms for the year, bringing the total collection to 129,000 volumes. She has begun to supervise the streamlining of order records using the Wang computer system and looks forward to the automation of serials records. Frequently assisting with the acquisitions and serials procedures is the library's new employee, Ruth Mahoney, an experienced legal secretary.

William Luster, the library's senior staff member, knows the collection intimately as supervisor of the stacks. He also handles the responsibility for the mail and copying machines. David Laurent, a retired C.P.A., brings expertise to his bookkeeping duties and also maintains the up-to-dateness of the Justices' chamber libraries and is in charge of loose-leaf services.

Total expenditures for fiscal year 86/87 were $458,607, an increase of roughly $16,000 over 85/86. The cost of books and subscriptions purchased totalled $250,265, nearly $9,000 more than the previous year. The appropriation for 87/88 provides a book budget of $260,590. Unfortunately the state's financial crisis has prevented the library from requesting additional funds for 1988/89. Since 93.5% of last years book costs were attributable to subscriptions and continuations, the library will be fortunate to stand still.

The Friends of the Library continue to bring not only much needed financial support, but also recognition to the library. At the AALL national convention in Chicago, the law library staff was presented with the association's Publications Award for the Friends' Newsletter. In March the Friends co-sponsored one of the first events in the state to celebrate the Bicentennial of the Constitution. Chief Justice John A. Dixon, Jr. and Federal District Judge George Arceneaux spoke on "Judging and the Constitution: A View from the Bench."

One of the most significant events of 1987 for the library us its designation in February as a depository of Louisiana State documents. This means that the library now automatically receives free of charge all materials published by the state in subject areas deemed useful to law library patrons.

Director Carol Billings meets regularly with her counterparts at Tulane and Loyola Law Schools and the U.S. Fifth Circuit Library to share information on new publications and technology and to cooperate in joint acquisitions programs.

Carol Billings has been involved in detailed planning with the architects and engineers working on the restoration of the old Royal Street Courthouse. She travelled with the other librarians to the Southeastern Chapter of AALL meeting in Charleston, South Carolina, where she presided and spoke on the program. In Chicago at the association's national meeting she again appeared on the program and assumed the chairmanship of the State, Court and County Law Libraries section. She also spoke at the Northeastern Regional meeting in Albany, New York, and attended a meeting on "National Law Library Resources" at Harvard Law School.

The staff participates actively in the New Orleans Chapter of AALL. This year Janice Shull has served as secretary and as co-editor of the newsletter with Betty Kern. Randal Owen is Chairman of the Scholarship Committee.
