RE: Annual Report for 1991

Dear Citizens of Huron County:

I am pleased to provide you with this Annual Report of the Huron County Juvenile Court for 1991, which includes data required by Ohio Revised Code Section 2151.18, and then some. If anyone wishes additional information or comparison of the numbers, we will try to accommodate each written request.

Huron County Juvenile Court had another busy year in 1991. Firstly, the number of hearings and trials increased by more than seven percent (7%). Along the same lines, it is also interesting to note that since 1982 the number of hearings and trials increased by one hundred twenty percent (120%), while the expenditures increased by fifty-two percent (52%). Adjusted for inflation on the Consumer Price Index (C.P.I.) it was a 4.85% increase in expenditures. Secondly, the court was very busy with efforts at preventing and ameliorating cases of abuse, neglect, dependency, delinquency and unruliness. The ROY Program (big brother/big sister type program) continues to match volunteer mentors as role models with children at high risk. The guardian ad litem program (C.A.S.A., Court Appointed Special Advocates) with its core of volunteers continues to make remarkable contributions to the protection of children and the rehabilitation and reunification of troubled families. The Collaborative for the 90's, a community partnership for primary prevention of abuse of alcohol and other drugs, is beginning to blossom with its recent community partnership grant from the U.S. Office of Substance Abuse Prevention.

The Collaborative for the 90's and its recent Office of Substance Abuse Prevention grant deserve some special attention. Huron County's efforts at primary prevention of the abuse of alcohol and other drugs began organizing in 1988. There is ample money in this grant to accomplish the grant's purpose. There remains the clear challenge to generate the necessary community commitment and effort to effectively respond to the real danger of the abuse of alcohol and other drugs.

Very truly yours,

Thomas E. Heydinger, Judge
Huron County Common Pleas Court
Juvenile Division

(Section 2151.031 ORC)
