Letter of Transmittal

To: Presiding Justice Owen McGivern
Presiding Justice Frank A. Gulotta

From: Mr. Justice David Ross

The Annual Report of the Criminal Court of the City of New York is submitted herewith.

I am pleased to inform you that the Criminal Court's record of performance in 1973 has continued to show improvement despite the significant gains already achieved during the prior two years and the diversion of energy to the development of programs for the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court.

Highlights of 1973 Criminal Court activity as compared with 1972 include:

INTRODUCTION

The Criminal Court of the City of New York is part of the unified court system of the State of New York. It is subject to administrative supervision by the Administrative Board of the Judicial Conference of the State of New York and the Appellate Divisions of the First and Second Judicial Departments. Funds for the operation of the court are supplied by the City of New York. The court's current budget for fiscal 1973-1974 amounts to $15,521,762, an increase of only 4.7% over the previous fiscal year when the budget was $14,830,961. The increase resulted from salary increases for non-judicial employees through collective bargaining, an increase in Judges' salaries and in part from the addition to the City budget of Night Court positions previously covered by a Federal Grant.

The Criminal Court is authorized to have 98 judges. In 1973 there were nine vacancies at the beginning of the year. Two were filled in January, two in February, one in May, two in June and one in October. One vacancy developed in November, and five in December. Three appointments were made in December leaving four vacancies as of December 31, 1973. The names of judges who served during any part of 1973 appear in Exhibit A , page 112. Criminal Court Judges are appointed by the Mayor, serve ten year terms and received a salary of $33,575 as of January 1, 1973, increased to $36,451 as of September 1, 1973.

During the calendar year 1973 the court's intake was 185,853 arrest cases and 451,071 summons cases. The number of arrest cases disposed of amounted to 185,306. Summons case dispositions were 177,214. Arrest cases pending disposition at the end of 1973 amounted to 13,548 cases, and there were 3,141 cases awaiting sentence. This compares with 14,411 cases pending disposition and 2,525 cases awaiting sentence at the end of 1972. Detailed statistical data appear in Part II, p.37

The Criminal Court's judicial operations were carried out in 62 Parts which handle arrest cases and 7 Parts which handle summons cases. These were housed in 11 courthouses. Exhibit B, p.114, contains a list of the courthouses in use in 1973.

The Court has a total of 1,201 authorized non-judicial employees all of whom are civil service employees. A list of the number of positions and the respective civil service titles appears in Exhibit G, p.153.

SPEEDY TRIALS

The Speedy Trial Law (Chapter 184 of the Laws of 1972) requires the processing of cases within certain time limits. This has placed additional record-keeping burdens on the courts. In order to monitor compliance with the law a method of recording the chargeable and excludable adjournments on the case papers has been developed. Exhibit J, p166 contains a copy of the revised Record of Court Action Sheet which provides for recording relevant speedy trial information on every adjournment.

Timing statistics maintained by the Court would appear to indicate that the caseload is being processed during an average time period which is well within the statutory limits. (See Comparative Statistical Profile reports and charts, page 37.) The average duration of a case from filing to disposition has been reduced to approximately 3.5 weeks, a drop of 38% from the 1971 figure, on a citywide basis. While there are no comparable citywide figures for previous years, a special study prepared by the Rand Institute, of adult cases in Manhattan (The Flow of Arrested Adult Defendants through the Manhattan Criminal Court in 1968 and 1969, John B. Jennings) indicate an average duration of case of 10.8 weeks in 1968 and 9.0 weeks in 1969. This compares with court data for average duration of case in Manhattan of 3.09 weeks in 1971, 2.32 weeks in 1972 and 2.12 weeks in 1973.

The following table shows the average duration of a case for the years 1971, 1972, and 1973 as represented by the Comparative Statistical Profile reports and for the years 1968 and 1969 as noted in the special Rand Institute study:

A Central Records Bureau has been established with responsibility for supervision over and performance of the following functions:

- Microfilm Operations
  - Criminal Disposition Reporting (JC 500)
  - Initial Court Report of Criminal Cases (JC 501)
  - Identification Cards for Court Employees in the City of New York
  - Revealing and Sealing Order Procedures
  - Fingerprinting and securing arrest records from New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services
- Microfilm Unit
- Exhibit C , page 116 contains a report on the amount of filming, processing and duplicating completed by the microfilm unit.

In addition to its other projects, this Unit continued to assist the New York County Clerk and the Family Court in roll film duplicating and processing.

A move of major significance was a Grant Award of $226,026 to the Supreme Court First Judicial Department and the Criminal Court for the microfilming of Court Reporters' notes. This established the microfilm unit as an integral part of the staff of the Criminal Court and Supreme Court, Criminal Branch, First Judicial District.

With the assistance of personnel supplied by the Urban Corps, the Coop Trainee Program and volunteers, a project has moved forward to microfilm documents relating to administration of justice. Such documents as annual reports, special studies, statistical reports, management surveys, etc. are being filmed. The film is then cut up for insertion into microfiche jackets. As many as sixty pages are accommodated by a single 4 by 6 inch jacket. An index by title and author is also being set up. This will make available a centralized permanent record of valuable documents representing vast expenditures for research relating to criminal justice. Copies of these documents would be readily and economically available for distribution in the form of diazo duplicates of microfiche jackets.

Other projects handled by the Microfilm Unit are noted in Exhibit C ,page 116.

JC 500 Reporting

In 1973, 144,227 Criminal Court disposition report forms were completed. In addition, 3,917 Supreme Court report forms for New York County and 4,318 for Bronx County, were completed.

These reports constitute a vital part of the criminal history system operated by the Judicial Conference and the State Division of Criminal Justice Services. The following table indicates the scope of this activity:

501 Reporting

Effective December 1972 a new form JC 501 is forwarded to the Judicial Conference on all defendants who were fingerprinted on arrest. It reports docket numbers, dismissals prior to arraignment (by A.D.A.) and dismissals at arraignment (by Judge).

This new form contains a check digit so that the arrest data can be associated with the docket number issued by the Court. These forms are forwarded daily by the Docket Room staff to the Central Records Unit in each county, where they are spot checked for accuracy and completeness. At the end of each week these forms are forwarded to the Judicial Conference.

Below is a summary of JC 501 activity:

In March 1973, this Unit began servicing the Supreme Court, Criminal Branch, First Judicial District. Fingerprint clearance that used to take from five to six weeks is now being done the same day or within twenty-four hours. Before this consolidation of service there were five Senior Court Officers assigned to fingerprint duties in the Supreme Court, Criminal Branch, First Judicial District. These five Senior Court Officers were replaced by five Identification Officers at an annual saving of approximately $20,000.

Below is a summary of the work of the Identification Bureau.

Revealing and Sealing Orders

Centralized processing of these orders dealing with papers sealed by a Judge pursuant to the Criminal Procedure Law began in March 1972. For the remainder of 1972, 1,745 sealing orders and 838 revealing orders were processed. In 1973 there were 3,191 sealing orders and 2,323 revealing orders.

A Sealing Order is prepared whenever a Judge orders a record sealed pursuant to Section 170.56 of the Criminal Procedure Law. This section mandates that upon or after dismissal of charges under 170.56 against a defendant not previously convicted of a crime, the court shall order that all official records and papers relating to the defendant's arrest and prosecution whether on file with the court, a police agency or the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services, be sealed and not made available to any person or public or private agency, except that such records shall be made available upon order of a court to determine, in subsequent proceedings, whether the person qualifies under 170.56 for Dismissal or Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal of the accusatory instrument.

A Revealing Order is prepared whenever a Judge orders, under section 170.56 that the record of a defendant including any record sealed pursuant to 170.56 be made available to the Court. This section authorizes revealing the sealed record for purposes of determining whether the defendant qualifies under the same section for Dismissal or an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal of the accusatory instrument filed against him in a subsequent proceeding. Revealing orders are also issued (in the Criminal Court) pursuant to Article 720 of the Criminal Procedure Law, in order to determine whether the defendant had previously been found to be a youthful offender, and is therefore not eligible for mandatory youthful offender finding under this Article.

LAW DEPARTMENT

In March, 1973 an integrated Law Department was created with 6 Criminal Court law assistants and 8 law assistants from the Supreme Court, Criminal Branch, First Judicial District (three additional Supreme Court law assistants were added in September, 1973 pursuant to the Dangerous Drug plan). The law stenographers from both courts were also integrated, and with the law assistants all serve under a single Deputy Executive Officer, formerly the Chief Law Assistant of the Criminal Court. This has promoted greater efficiency in the use of the staff to service both Criminal and Supreme Court judges and the Administration.

It should be noted that during 1973, the Law Department implemented a federal grant whereby the judges of the Criminal Court received various reference materials. The Law Department published and copyrighted a "Handbook of Dangerous Drug Laws and other 1973 Criminal Law Revisions" and a "Handbook of Jury Trial Charges and Procedures" for the Supreme Court (a similar charge book for the Criminal Court had been published in 1972).

During 1973 the supervisory responsibility over both Supreme and Criminal Court appeals was assumed by the Law Department and all appeals emanating from the Criminal Court of the City of New York and from the Supreme Court Criminal Branch of New York County are now being handled centrally.

The Supreme Court Motions Unit and the Supreme Court library have also come under the supervision of the Law Department.

Exhibit D , p. 118contains a description of the major categories of the work of the Law Department with a summary listing of law department work for the year. Included also is a report from the Appeals Bureau.

TRAINING PROGRAMS

A. Judges - Orientation Programs

Two week orientation programs are provided to newly appointed Judges.

One week is devoted largely to sessions at which heads of the various divisions of the Court System provide brief accounts of the operation of their units. Most of the second week involves sitting in court with experienced judges and a review of the Criminal Procedure Law.

Representatives of court-related agencies such as Police, Youth Council Bureau, Probation and Correction provide additional background.

(See Exhibit E , p. 126 for a typical schedule)

B. Uniformed Court Officers

During 1973 the Training Center provided the following instruction:

206 Uniformed Court Officer recruits and 73 Senior Court Officer recruits were trained; 62 Uniformed Court Officers and 70 Senior Court Officers received training in firearms.

C. Tours of the Court

Sixty-seven tours of the Criminal Court were provided:

High schools - 25

Colleges - 6

Visiting dignitaries - 5

N.Y.C. Police Dept. recruits - 11

N.Y.C. Transit Police - 3

N.Y.C. Housing Police - 5

Port Authority Police Dept. - 3

Miscellaneous groups - 9

D. Law Day Program

On May 1, 1973, through the joint efforts of the Mayor's Office, Board of Education, Alliance for a Safer New York, District Attorneys of New York and Kings Counties, Legal Aid and the Criminal Court, arrangements were made to invite high school students to attend special programs in six (6) parts in Manhattan and six (6) parts in Brooklyn.

A one hour court program was presented depicting typical court procedures such as arraignment, hearings and trials. A total of five hundred (500) high school students participated in this program. Feedback from the teachers and students indicated the program was interesting, informative and an excellent educational experience.

E. Instruction in Courtroom Procedure

Through the use of mock courtrooms, instruction in courtroom procedure and decorum was provided to Port Authority Police recruits on six separate occasions.

F. Courses Attended by Instructional Staff of the Training Center

- 1) One instructor completed Instructor Training course given by the N.Y.C. Dept. of Personnel.

- 2) Two instructors completed FBI Advanced Defense Tactics School.
- 3) One instructor completed FBI Defensive Tactics Instructors School.
- 4) One instructor completed Court Security Training Course, U.S. Marshals Service Training Academy.
- 5) One instructor completed FBI Advanced Firearms School.
- 6) One instructor completed Firearms Instructors School.
- 7) One instructor was certified by the National Rifle Association as a Police Firearms Instructor.

G. Data Processing Training Program

In preparation for the introduction of automation in the Courts, most key management personnel have participated in industry sponsored data processing training programs. These programs, lasting from several days to one week, were aimed at providing managers with basic understanding of the applications and limitations of automated record keeping and management information systems.

NON-JUDICIAL PERSONNEL VACANCIES

Vacancies have continued to be a problem in the processing of court business, particularly in the security area where a large number of court officer positions have remained unfilled.

Exhibit G p. 153 contains a list by title, of authorized positions and existing vacancies as of February 1974.

PSYCHIATRIC CLINIC

The Criminal Court Psychiatric Clinic provides psychiatric services to both the Criminal Court and the Criminal Term of the Supreme Court in Manhattan. A major reorganization, undertaken in June 1972 and introduction of innovative procedures have led to improved operation and more expeditious services:

- . Performance of fitness and pre-sentence examinations expeditiously despite considerable increase in the number ordered.
- . Prompt return of higher percentage of defendants to court as fit to proceed.
- . Lowest proportion of cases sent to hospital for completion of fitness examinations thus minimizing delays in judicial process.
- . More efficient scheduling of patients and staff.
- . Practice of joint examinations replacing former practice of examination of fitness cases by two psychiatrists at two separate time periods.
- . Expansion of services through Mental Health Worker Unit.
- . Upgrading of professional staff and therefore improvement of services.
- . Plans to undertake two new programs-psychiatric screening for Criminal and Supreme Court Arraignment Parts; and establishment of a new consultation and treatment program in conjunction with Fortune Society for defendants discharged from prison.
- . Maintenance of more accurate and meaningful statistics on clinic activity.
- . Frequent interchange of information among staff.

For statistics on Psychiatric Clinic activity, see Exhibit F, page 131.

INCIDENT REPORTS

Reports are submitted by court personnel on all incidents occurring while in performance of their duties on the job, and while acting in the capacity of peace officers off the job. Also covered are incidents having some relation to or effect on the individual's employment or conditions of employment.

Exhibit I , p.164contains a record of all incidents reported during 1973 together with a summary by major categories.

PART II

STATISTICS

COMPARATIVE STATISTICAL ANALYSIS OF COURT ACTIVITY

In order to make statistics a more effective tool of court management, a new statistical reporting system known as the Comparative Statistical Profile (CSP) was instituted in 1971 by the Criminal Court of the City of New York. It has permitted a type of monitoring of court activity not hitherto available. For every major court action, monthly reports show percent change from previous month, year to date figures, actions per judge day and comparison with a like period of the previous year. Timing statistics such as average duration of a case, average length of adjournment and average number of appearances were also developed for the first time.

Despite prolonged efforts to secure computerization of court statistics, the reports for the Arrest Parts, appearing in this section have been produced using a manual system supported by a programmable electronic calculator and printing attachment. Instructions and data are stored on magnetic cards. A more sophisticated electronic calculator has been acquired which should permit extension of the system including mechanical charting.

Statistical data embodied in the Comparative Statistical Reports point to a complete turn around of the Criminal Court system during the past three years. Despite the dramatic progress reported for 1971 and 1972, the effects of administrative innovations continued to be felt in 1973.

The pending caseload, which had risen to 59,406 by the end of 1970 dropped to a low of 16,689 by the end of 1973 for a decline of 72%. This compares with 21,727 at the end of 1971 or a 23% drop. The 1973 pending figure even shows a decline of 1.5% from the 1972 figure of 16,936 which was already close to a minimum since it equals approximately one month's intake or filings. The important component of the pending caseload, namely cases pending disposition, showed a substantial drop of 6% from the number pending at the end of 1972.

While the number of judge days showed a slight (5%) drop the considerably larger percentage drop in number of calendared cases (14%) has permitted more judicial attention to be available to the individual case and improvement in the quality of justice dispensed.

The warrant situation remains satisfactory. Warrants issued declined by 5.8% compared with 1972 and by 32.4% over 1971. This decline in number of warrants issued reflects the more current calendars as well as the great reduction in average length of adjournment (a 40.3% drop as compared with 1971) and the continued practice of "front loading" the system (increased numbers of dispositions at arraignment of the less significant offenses which should not get into the system).

While the number of warrants executed declined by 10.6%, they remained at a relatively high 78% of issued. The 1972

Dismissals showed a decline of 14.7% over 1972, approximately the same rate as the decline in dispositions (14.3%). As a percent of dispositions, dismissals continued at the same rate in 1973 (40.5%) as in 1972 (40.7%).

Two basic indicators of court activity, the duration of a case and the average length of adjournment have both stabilized at satisfactorily low figures after having dropped sharply during 1971 and 1972. In 1973, the average duration of a case has been approximately 3.5 weeks and the average length of adjournment, approximately 1.5 weeks. This constitutes a drop of 38% in average duration of case and a drop of over 40% in average length of adjournment as compared with 1971.

Another indicator, the average number of appearances per case has dropped slightly - from 3.37 to 3.33.

The number of defendants in detention awaiting disposition in the Criminal Court reached the unusually low figure of 1271, a decline of 3.5% from the already low 1317 at the end of 1972 and a decline of 70% from the high of 4207 in October of 1969.

EXHIBIT D

LAW DEPARTMENT ACTIVITY

Description of Major Categories of Law Department Work

1. Requests from Administrative Staff for legal opinions

Requests for legal opinions are often made by the Administrative staff in matters regarding administration, personnel, workmen's compensation, legislation, criminal law and procedure, grievance procedures, etc. Most requests result in written memoranda (see LD-ADM listing).

2. Requests from Judges

Represents the bulk of the work of the law department. This often results in written memoranda (see LD-JM listing). Frequently telephone requests or other oral requests are made, necessitating discussion and conversation regarding pending cases.

3. Judges' Opinions

Oftentimes, judges request the assistance of the law department in the preparation of their opinions, i.e., research, writing, etc. Opinions are typed by the law stenographers and forwarded for publication to the New York Law Journal and the State Reporter.

4. Disciplinary Hearings and Grievances

When a determination is made that charges will be brought against an employee of this Court, the Law Department will draw up the charges and specifications and will prosecute the matter, i. e., represent the employer-court at the hearing.

5. Personnel Matters

During 1973 three Law Assistant II's, three Law Stenographers and two Court Clerk II positions were made available to the Law Department pursuant to the Phase I staffing of the new Dangerous Drug parts. Canvassing, interviewing and hiring was done by the Law Department.

6. Consultation with Outside Agencies

Often problems beset the Court that are best handled by informal meetings with outside groups, e. g., meeting with an assistant district attorney relative to the new motion practice, meeting with a representative of C.J.C.C. relative to a library grant, etc.

7. Law Suits and Subpoenas

The Law Department will accept service of process directed to the Administrative Judge, all the judges of the Court and the administrative staff. These cases are reviewed, accompanying memoranda of law are often prepared, and they are forwarded to either the office of the Corporation Counsel, Attorney General or the Judicial Conference, as our counsel. Follow-up is conducted by this office (see LD-LA listing).

The court is often served with subpoenas from other courts or administrative agencies (usually duces tecum). These will also be reviewed and processed by the Law Department.

8. Motions

The Law Department (Criminal Court) receives and reviews motions, may return them to the movant because of insufficiency or lack of jurisdiction, or may place same on a judge's calendar. These motions include motions for re-sentence, discovery procedures, etc.

The Law Department (Supreme Court) receives dockets and calendars motions (the motion clerk). These are then forwarded to the law assistants for review and writing of a decision. These include motions for discovery, bills of particular, post-judgment relief, suppression, inspection of grand jury minutes, etc.

9. Legislative Memoranda

Every session of the state legislature or City Council produces bills of extreme importance to the Court in the areas of criminal law and procedure, administrative law and local laws. These are reviewed by the Law Department and capsuled in memoranda directed to the judges.

10. Revised Jury Charges

With amended laws come the need for revised jury charges. Often judges will request a specific charge that does not appear in the "charge book". This would be prepared by the law assistant, given to the judge making the request and later distributed to all the judges for inclusion in their "book" along with the revised charges.

11. Criminal Law Digest

This is a monthly publication digesting recent cases in the field of criminal law and procedure. The cases are selected from the Law Journal, advance sheets, Criminal Law Reporter, slip decisions, etc.

12. Correspondence from Public, Prisoners, etc.

Complaints and inquiries regarding cases make up the bulk of the correspondence received from the public. Attorneys and defendants may inquire regarding specific cases. Defendants and victims of crime often complain. Often a simple letter from a defendant is in fact some post-conviction application and must be treated as such.

13. Visits and Telephone Requests from the Public, Court Clerks, etc.

Requests are made on points of law, procedure, legislation, official directives, personnel matters, library matters, etc. All reasonable requests are filled.

14. Judicial Assistance Program

The Law Department administers this program whereby law students from the local law schools are recruited, trained and "placed" with judges of our court to act as law interns.

MEMORANDUM

To: All Personnel February 13, 1974
From Julian M. de La Rosa
Chief Clerk
Assistant Deputy Executive Officer Operations
Subject: Index for Directives and Memoranda
Administrative Judge- Executive Officer - Chief Clerk

Attached hereto is an Index of selected Directives and Memoranda issued in 1973 by the Administrative Judge, Executive Officer and the Chief Clerk.

The Index should be used in conjunction with the Indexes of Directives and Memoranda issued previously.

The Index is intended, primarily, to reference those items which would be helpful to non-judicial personnel in the performance of their duties and as so approaches completeness only with respect to Directives issued by the Chief Clerk.

Directives	are preceded by the letter	D
Memoranda	are preceded by the letter	M
Issuances by the Administrative Judge	are preceded by the letters	AJ
Issuances by the Executive Officer	are preceded by the letters	EO
Issuances by the Chief Clerk	are not preceded by letters

Please inform me of any errors of omission or commission you may discover.
Suggestions directed toward improvement of the Index are welcome.
