INTRODUCTION

This directory was developed as a guide to the array of programs in Virginia which contribute to youth violence prevention. These programs focus on developing relevant life skills in individuals, families and communities rather than attempting to address negative behaviors and conditions. They are often family-focused and neighborhood-based. Funding support comes from a wide variety of sources.

This directory was compiled by the Virginia Partnership for the Prevention of Youth Violence. This group represents a step towards collaboration at the state and local level in addressing the critical issue of youth violence.

VIRGINIA PARTNERSHIP FOR THE PREVENTION OF YOUTH VIOLENCE

DEFINITION OF YOUTH VIOLENCE PREVENTION

YOUTH is defined as ages 5-18 for the purposes of this directory; however, there are additional violence prevention programs listed in this directory which target youth over the age of 18.

VIOLENCE is defined as illegal behavior that threatens, attempts, or completes infliction of physical, social, and/or psychological harm, which may or not be intentional.

VIOLENCE PREVENTION is defined as providing life skills for avoiding and/or resolving conflict in non-violent ways.
