

FOREWORD

To ensure the earliest possible release of annual data to criminal justice agency administrators, the Bureau of Criminal Statistics presents its statistical information in two separate types of reports.

The first is made up of standardized reference material. Jurisdictional detail is shown in these reports to provide the management information needed by local contributors. This reference report addresses the subjects of crimes and arrests in California. Subsequent reference reports will address superior court prosecution, adult and juvenile probation, adult criminal detention and other major subjects.

The second report is analytical. It is an annual presentation of crime and delinquency in the state. The data in this publication provide less jurisdictional detail but emphasize trends in offenses and how offenders are handled in the different sets of agencies administering criminal justice. This annual presentation, Crime and Delinquency in California, will be released in August, 1972.

1971 CRIME AND DELINQUENCY IN CALIFORNIA - REFERENCE TABLES
CRIMES AND ARRESTS

MAJOR CRIMES - SEVEN OFFENSE GROUPS

TABLES 1-A AND 1-B

There were 714,688 serious crimes (seven major offense groups) reported to the 416 California policing agencies in 1971. This represents a crime rate of 3526.7 per 100,000 population, an increase of 8.1 percent over the 1970 rate. All of the seven major crime groupings show rate increases.

Crimes of personal violence had a 9.3 percent rise in rate in 1971 over 1970. The crime of willful homicide had the largest rate increase over the prior year, 18.9 percent.

Property crime rates rose by 7.9 percent. The largest rate increase at 10.8 percent was for burglary. Burglary crimes accounted for 391,157 offenses, which is 54 percent of the total 714,688 seven major offenses reported to the police.

Comparative crime rates for the two years are shown in Table 1-B for each of the ten counties with over 500,000 population. San Mateo is the only county that had a rate decrease, 1.1 percent. The other nine counties all reported rate increases ranging from 1.5 percent in San Francisco County to 21.2 in Sacramento County, as did the 48 counties grouped under "balance of state."

ADULT FELONY ARRESTS

TABLES 2-A AND 2-B

There were 229,476 adults arrested for felony offenses which is a rate of 1132.4 arrests per 100,000 population, for an increase of 5.4 percent in 1971 over the arrest rate for 1970. (Adults are those persons over 18 years of age.)

Arrests for auto theft and the drug law violation grouping for marijuana both declined in rate. The other 12 offense groups had rate increases with arrests for grand theft (except auto) showing the largest increase, 15.0 percent. Although the rate of arrests for marijuana violations declined by 5.6 percent in 1971, arrests for heroin and other narcotics increased, 11.6 percent, as did dangerous drug arrests, 11.7 percent, when comparing the two years.

Los Angeles County had an increase in rate for adult felony arrests of 2.8 percent and all of the other counties with the exception of San Diego and Alameda Counties show rate increases. Sacramento County had the highest rate increase, 43.2 percent. The other 48 counties, grouped into "balance of state" was next highest at 17.8 percent.

FELONY COMPLAINTS FILED AFTER ARRESTS

TABLES 3-A AND 3-B

There was a slight increase in the proportion of all felony arrests which resulted in the filing of felony complaints. However, forgery and checks, other sex offenses, total drug law violations and the "all other" category show a decline in felony complaints filed after an arrest when comparing 1971 to 1970. Heroin and other narcotics was the only drug law violation exception and had a rise in complaints filed after arrest in 1971.

ADULT MISDEMEANOR ARRESTS

TABLES 4-A AND 4-B

Total statewide adult misdemeanor arrests had a 1.8 percent decline in rate. Arrests for obscene matter, indecent exposure, drunkenness, disorderly conduct, drunk driving, gambling and other misdemeanors all declined in rate when comparing 1971 to 1970.

The other misdemeanor offenses for which adults are arrested show a rise in rate, with the offense of annoying children having the highest rate increase, 42.2 percent. Arrests for petty theft increased 10.2 percent by rate.

Three counties of over 500,000 population, Los Angeles, Orange and San Francisco Counties, had rate increases for adults arrested on misdemeanor offense charges. The other seven counties and the "balance of state" counties all show rate decreases for misdemeanor arrests.

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY ARRESTS

TABLES 5-A AND 5-B

For the second year in a row the overall total arrests of juveniles had a decrease in rate which amounted to 2.2 percent. Overall drug law violations show a decrease in rate of 6.3 percent in 1971, for the second consecutive year the drug law arrests of juveniles has declined. There was an increase in arrests of juveniles for heroin and other narcotics from 779 arrests in 1970 to 875 arrests in 1971. Dangerous drug violation arrests also had a slight increase. Arrests for marijuana violations, 9.7 percent, and other drug law violations, 13.0 percent, show larger decreases in rate, which offset the heroin and other narcotics and dangerous drug arrest increases.

Arrests for major law violations and minor law violations show slight increases in rate. Arrests for delinquent tendencies which account for 208,358 of the total 379,454 juvenile arrests had a 4.9 percent decrease in rate when comparing 1971 to the prior year.

Los Angeles County showed no change when comparing the two years. Orange County and Contra Costa County had a rate increase of 3.9 and 3.5 percent, respectively. All other counties, including the "balance of state" counties, show rate decreases when comparing the two years.

TOTAL ARRESTS REPORTED

TABLE 6

California law enforcement agencies reported a total of 1,347,479 arrests in 1971, a rate decrease of 0.7 percent. Felony arrests of both adults and juveniles for major crimes had a rate increase of 4.2 percent. The misdemeanor arrests of adults and juveniles had a rate decrease of 1.5 percent and the category of delinquent tendency arrests of juveniles show a rate decrease. Felony drug law violations accounted for 119,184 arrests, or more than 35 percent of all arrests for felony violations, but show a slight decrease in rate when compared with 1970, at 0.6 percent.

Eleven policing agencies had partial reporting for crimes reported to the police and eight agencies did not report arrests for every month of 1971. The missing data would account for less than one-half of one percent of the statewide totals. The Police Department of the University of California, Los Angeles, keeps records on crimes committed and arrests made on campus. No figures are shown for this agency because the data are included in the Los Angeles Police Department's statistics.
