8. Where an application is made under section 5, the chairman of the Board shall refer the application,

(a) to the Board for a hearing conducted by at least two members of the Board; or

(b) to one member of the Board for a hearing by him, as the chairman may direct. 1971, c. 51, s. 8.

9.—(1) The Board or member to whom an application is referred under section 8 shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the application and shall at least ten days before the day fixed cause notice thereof to be served upon the applicant, upon the Minister, upon the offender where practicable and upon any other person appearing to the Board or member to have an interest in the application.

If a person is convicted of a criminal offence in respect of an act or omission on which a claim under this Act is based, proof of the conviction shall, after the time for an appeal has expired or, if an appeal was taken, it was dismissed and no further appeal is available, be taken as conclusive evidence that the offence has been committed. 1971, c. 51, s. 11.

12. All hearings shall be held in public except where, in the opinion of the Board, it is necessary to hold the hearing in camera for the reason that a public hearing,

13.—(1) The Board may make an order prohibiting the publication of any report or account of the whole or any part of the evidence at a hearing where the Board considers it necessary but in making an order under this subsection the Board shall have regard to the desirability of permitting the public to be informed of the principles and nature of each case.

(2) Any person who publishes a report or account of any evidence at a hearing contrary to an order of the Board under subsection 1 is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or to both.

(3) Where a corporation is convicted of an offence under subsection 2, the maximum penalty that may be imposed upon the corporation is $25,000 and not as provided therein. 1971, c. 51, s. 13.

14. Where,

(a) the applicant is in actual financial need; and
(b) it appears to the Board that it will probably award compensation to the applicant, the Board may, in its discretion, order interim payments to the applicant in respect of maintenance and medical expenses and, if compensation is not awarded, the amount so paid is not recoverable from the applicant. 1971, c. 51, s. 14.

15.—(1) Any notice or document required to be served under this Act or the regulations is sufficiently served if delivered personally or sent by registered mail addressed to the person upon whom service is required to be made at the latest address for service appearing on the records of the Board.

(2) Where any notice or document mentioned in subsection 1 is served by registered mail, the service shall be deemed to be made on the third day after the day of mailing unless the person to be served did not, acting in good faith, through absence, accident, illness or other cause beyond his control receive the notice or document until a later date.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2, the Board may order any other method of service of any notice or document mentioned in subsection 1. 1971, c. 51, s. 15.

16.—(1) An order for compensation may be made whether or not any person is prosecuted for or convicted of the offence giving rise to the injury or death but the Board may, on its own initiative or upon the application of the Minister, adjourn its proceedings pending the final determination of a prosecution or intended prosecution.

17.—(1) In determining whether to make an order for compensation and the amount thereof, the Board shall have regard to all relevant circumstances, including any behaviour of the victim that may have directly or indirectly contributed to his injury or death. 1971, c. 51, s. 17 (1).

(1a) The Board may, in its discretion, refuse to make an order for compensation where it is satisfied that the applicant has refused reasonable co-operation with, or failed to report promptly the offence to, a law enforcement agency. 1973, c. 34, s. 1.
(2) In assessing pecuniary loss, the Board shall take into consideration any benefit, compensation or indemnity payable to the applicant from any source. 1971, c. 51, s. 17 (2).

18. The Board may order compensation to be paid in a lump sum or in periodic payments, or both, as the Board thinks fit. 1971, c. 51, s. 18.

19.—(1) The amount awarded by the Board to be paid in respect of the injury or death of one victim shall not exceed,

(a) in the case of lump sum payments, $15,000; and

(b) in the case of periodic payments, $500 per month, and where both lump sum and periodic payments are awarded, the lump sum shall not exceed half of the maximum therefore prescribed in clause a.

(2) The total amount awarded by the Board to be paid to all applicants in respect of any one occurrence shall not exceed,

(a) in the case of lump sum payments, a total of $100,000; and

(b) in the case of periodic payments, a total of $175,000.

(3) Where the total amount awarded in respect of any one occurrence exceeds the maximum amount prescribed by subsection 2, the amount prescribed shall be distributed pro rata in proportion to the amounts of the awards that would otherwise have been made.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the Board may deem more than one act to be one occurrence where the acts have a common relationship in time and place.

(5) Subsection 1 does not apply to amounts awarded in respect of an injury or death incurred under clause b or c of section 5 and such amounts shall not be taken into account for the purposes of subsection 2. 1971, c. 51, s. 19.

19a. Any money paid or payable by way of compensation under this Act or held by the Public Trustee or other person under an order made by the Board under subsection 3 of section 20 is not subject to garnishment, attachment, execution, set-off or any other legal process and the right thereto is not assignable. 1973, c. 34, s. 2.
20.—(1) An order for the payment of compensation may be made subject to such terms and conditions as the Board thinks fit,

(a) with respect to the payment, disposition, allotment or apportionment of the compensation; or

(b) as to the holding of the compensation or any part thereof in trust for the victim or the dependants, or any of them, whether as a fund for a class or otherwise.

(2) Any compensation payable for expenses under section 7 may, in the discretion of the Board, be paid directly to the person entitled thereto. 1971, c. 51, s. 20.

21. Notwithstanding section 19, the Board may, with respect to any hearing or other proceeding under this Act, make such order as to costs as it thinks fit. 1971, c. 51, s. 21.

22. Subject to section 24, a decision of the Board is final except that an appeal lies to the Supreme Court from any decision of the Board on any question of law. 1971, c. 51, s. 22.

23. The Board shall, upon request, release documents and things put in evidence at a hearing to the lawful owner or the person entitled to possession thereof within a reasonable time after the matter in issue has been finally determined. 1971, c. 51, s. 23.

24.—(1) The Board may at any time on its own initiative or on the application of the victim, any dependant of the victim, the Minister or the offender, vary an order for payment of compensation in such manner as the Board thinks fit, whether as to terms of the order or by increasing or decreasing the amount ordered to be paid, or otherwise.

(2) In proceedings under subsection 1, the Board shall consider,
(a) any new evidence that has become available;

(b) any change of circumstances that has occurred since the making of the order or any variation thereof, as the case may be, or that is likely to occur; and

(c) any other matter the Board considers relevant.

(3) This Act, except section 6, applies to a review under subsection 1 in the same manner as to an application for compensation. 1971, c. 51, s. 24.

25.—(1) Subject to subsections 2, 3 and 4, nothing in this Act affects the right of any person to recover from any other person by civil proceedings damages in respect of the injury or death.

(2) The Board is subrogated to all the rights of the person to whom payment is made under this Act to recover damages by civil proceedings in respect of the injury or death and may maintain an action in the name of such person against any person against whom such action lies, and any amount recovered by the Board shall be applied,

(a) first, to payment of the costs actually incurred in the action and in levying execution; and

(b) second, to reimbursement of the Board for the value of the compensation awarded, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the person whose rights were subrogated.

(3) Any settlement or release does not bar the rights of the Board under subsection 2 unless the Board has concurred therein.

(4) An applicant for or a person awarded compensation shall forthwith notify the Board of any action he has brought against the offender who caused the injury or death of the victim. 1971, c. 51, s. 25.

26.—(1) Compensation ordered to be paid shall be paid out of the moneys appropriated therefor by the Legislature.

(2) Any reimbursement to the Board under section 25 shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund. 1971, c. 51, s. 26.
