AUSTIN-

The Texas Judicial Council released today statistics on the 1977 activities of the Texas courts. The Texas Supreme Court delivered a total of 109 opinions and disposed of 717 applications for writs of error from decisions of the courts of civil appeals during 1977. The Court of Criminal Appeals wrote 2,778 opinions, and the fourteen courts of civil appeals wrote a total of 1,771 opinions during the same period. Some 346,374 cases were disposed of by the 284 district, domestic relations and special juvenile courts, an increase of five percent over 1976. In county courts, 345,098 cases were disposed. In the reporting justice of the peace courts, over one million traffic cases were filed, comprising 67 percent of the total cases filed in those courts. Total revenue collected by the justice of the peace courts was $32,823,947. The municipal courts in the 214 cities with population of 5,000 or greater reported over 2,300,000 traffic cases filed during 1977, accounting for 85 percent of the total number of cases filed in those courts. Revenue collected by those courts totalled $53,922,849.

SUPREME COURT. The Supreme Court of Texas is composed of the Chief Justice and eight associate justices. It is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of the state.

The Court delivered 84 deciding opinions in 1977, compared with 107 in 1976. A total of 109 opinions was written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 12 per justice.

The Supreme Court disposed of 717 applications for writs of error from decisions of the courts of civil appeals, compared to 667 in 1976. Fourteen percent of these were granted. Of the granted writs, the courts of civil appeals were reversed in 66 percent of the cases for an effective reversal rate by the Supreme Court of six percent.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS. The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges.

Two thousand seven hundred seventy-eight opinions (including dissents and concurrences) were written in 1977, 28 percent more than the 1976 total of 2,177. Twenty-four percent of these were authored opinions.

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision in 74 percent of the cases reviewed and dismissed or abated the appeal in an additional ten percent.

COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS. The 14 courts of civil appeals exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil cases. Each court has geographic jurisdiction in a Supreme Judicial District. Each of the courts has three justices, for a total of 42 intermediate appellate justices in the state.

In 1977, a total of 1,771 opinions were written by the courts of civil appeals, compared to 1,562 in 1976.

The average number of written opinions per judge for all courts of civil appeals was 42.

DISTRICT COURTS. The 284 district courts experienced a five percent increase in cases filed — to 356,042 cases from 338,382 in 1976.

In 1977, four percent more civil cases were docketed in the district courts than in 1976. New criminal cases increased from 67,269 in 1976 to 71,839 — an increase of six percent.

Civil cases accounted for 77 percent of the new cases filed in 1977. Almost half (45 percent) of the civil cases filed were divorce or annulment actions. Personal injury cases comprised nine percent and tax cases seven percent of the civil cases filed.

Criminal cases accounted for 20 percent of the total new cases filed in 1977. Of the criminal cases, 21 percent involved a charge of burglary, 21 percent theft, six percent each robbery and felony DWI, and 13 percent drug offenses, including marijuana.

An average of 1,219 cases per judge was disposed of in 1977, down 43 cases per judge from 1976.

Texas courts granted five percent more divorces in 1977 than 1976. In 1977, 117,539 divorce cases were disposed of — 34 percent of all the cases handled by district courts.

COUNTY COURTS. In terms of numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 66 percent of the 405,273 new cases filed or cases appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 20 percent and probate 14 percent. New juvenile cases filed were less than 1/2 percent of the total.

Concerning the criminal cases only, 31 percent (81,441) of those filed or appealed to the county courts from lower courts were for driving while intoxicated. Thirteen percent (34,221) were for worthless checks and nine percent (25,303) for violations of laws concerning marijuana possession or delivery.

Looking at all cases (except probate), the county courts disposed of 345,098 cases, which is 98 percent of the 352,992 cases filed or appealed.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 67 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Over one million traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1977. Non-traffic criminal cases and civil cases (including "small-claims" cases) provided 21 and 12 percent of the new cases filed, respectively.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Seventy-three percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 16 percent at trial and 11 percent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 83 percent were disposed of prior to trial practically all by payment of fine. Of the 13 percent that went to trial, 98 percent of the cases were tried before a judge alone and the remaining two percent were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 95 percent of the cases before the judge alone and in 78 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

MUNICIPAL COURTS. The municipal courts in the 214 cities with population of 5,000 or greater were asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in their courts. Traffic cases comprised 85 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Over 2,300,000 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1977. Non-traffic criminal cases provided the other 15 percent of the new cases filed.

Seventy-one percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 15 percent at trial and 14 percent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 72 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 86 percent of those by payment of fine and 14 percent by bond forfeiture. Of the 14 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the other one percent before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial the defendant was found guilty in 80 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and 62 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

The above statistics are included in the 49th Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council. For the past 49 years, the Texas Judicial Council has been collecting information concerning caseloads for the district and appellate courts. Beginning in 1973, the Council expanded its data collection activities by gathering and publishing statistics on case loads of county, municipal and justice of the peace courts.

An informed citizenry is indispensable to the necessary support of the judicial branch and its continued improvement to meet its responsibilities in present-day society.

Only by working together at all levels of the judiciary can we provide a better forum for the administration of justice for all of our citizens. Only by the cooperation of the judges and clerks can we hope to inform our citizens of the work performed by the various courts.

The council expresses its appreciation to the many judges and clerks of the courts who have so promptly submitted the monthly reports and other requested information on the operations of the various courts which has enabled it to prepare this report on the judicial business of the state.

On behalf of the Texas Judicial Council, I hereby transmit to you the 49th Annual Report of the Council as required by Article 2328a, V.A.C.S. Also included is the first Annual Report of the Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System as required by Article 2328b, V.A.C.S.

This Report on court activities and statistics collected on the state judicial system for the calendar year 1977 contains special studies, charts and explanatory texts which we trust will provide illumination to the statistics.

For the first time, this Report contains a section on the activities of each of the state agencies and organizations which operate within the judicial branch of government. The inclusion of these reports will provide a broader view of the judicial branch of government than has been provided in past reports and hopefully will lead to a better understanding of its significance to all of our citizens.

The establishment of the Office of Court Administration in June, 1977, provided the judiciary with a vitally needed administrative staff to meet the ever-increasing demands upon the court's by citizens of our state seeking adjudication of their individual problems. By providing a unified staff for both this new office and the Texas Judicial Council, considerable savings of taxpayers' money is being realized and coordination of the two activities is assured.

I sincerely hope that the information contained in this Forty-Ninth Annual Report will prove helpful to each of you. Your suggestions on the improvement of the Report are earnestly solicited. Please call upon the Council or its administrative staff whenever we can be of assistance to you.

Respectfully submitted,

Martin Dies, Jr.

RESOLUTION OF THE TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL

In Recognition of the Distinguished Service of THE HONORABLE THOMAS M. REAVLEY

Honorable Thomas Morrow Reavley, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas since 1968, member of this Council since 1969 by delegation of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and Council president from 1971 until 1976, retired from the Court on October 5, 1977, thus terminating one of the most outstanding Council memberships in the Council's history of almost a half century.

Justice Reavley brought to this Council an abundance of native talent, energy, personality and devotion, in addition to an unusually broad and valuable store of scholarship and experience in the legal profession and otherwise. A native of East Texas, he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Texas, served two years of duty at sea as Lieutenant of the United States Navy in World War II and thereafter received a degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence from Harvard Law School. His later career before his election to the Supreme Court included some twelve years of successful private law practice in East Texas and Austin, presidency of the State Junior Bar of Texas, active membership in numerous important professional, civic and religious associations as well as official public service as Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County, County Attorney of Nacogdoches County, Secretary of State of Texas, District Judge of Travis County and Visiting Professor of Law at the University of Texas College of Law. During his membership on the Supreme Court he has been a lecturer at Baylor Law School and McMurry College. He holds honorary degrees of Doctor of Laws from Austin College and Southwestern University.

As to Justice Reavley's contributions to this Council, suffice it to say that he had an important and frequently leading role in every constructive Council action taken during his membership. Possessed as he is of unusual executive ability, his presidency was outstanding for its achievements of an executive nature, including beneficial expansion of Council activities, financial resources, staff and relations with other institutions, official and otherwise.

It is accordingly RESOLVED that this Texas Judicial Council hereby permanently records its indebtedness and gratitude and that of its membership and staff to Justice Reavley and his family for his contributions to the Council, for his devoted expenditure of time and effort in this behalf and for his invariably thoughtful consideration and friendship toward fellow Council members and Council staff;

Further RESOLVED that this Council's great regret at the termination of Justice Reavley's membership is tempered with the knowledge that he will always continue his strong interest in the work of the Council and with the hope that he will find occasion to attend many meetings of the Council as an ever-welcome guest.

REPORT OF THE OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION

Senate Bill 192 of the 65th Legislature (Article 2328b, V.A.T.S.) was signed by Governor Dolph Briscoe April 5, 1977, and became effective immediately, creating the state Office of Court Administration. On June 1, 1977, the Supreme Court of Texas implemented the provisions of this statute and appointed the first Administrative Director of the Courts. Under terms of Article 2328b, the staff of the Office of Court Administration also serves as the staff of the Texas Judicial Council. Thus many of the activities of the Office of Court Administration are conducted in the name of the Texas Judicial Council. The paramount example is the collection of statistical data on the caseloads of the courts and the publication of this Annual Report.

During 1977, the staff served the Texas Judicial Council alone until June 1 and both the Judicial Council and as the Office of Court Administration for the latter half of the year.

- 1. Forty-eighth Annual Report. The Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council was published in the spring. Containing 660 pages, the report contains statistical data on court activity at all levels in the State of Texas for calendar year 1976. Also included are statistical analyses and articles on recent Attorney General's Opinions and variances in subject matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts. The reports on two new studies are included - one on the financing of the judicial branch of government at all levels and the second a revised and reworked look at data collected on cases in the criminal appellate system over the past several years. The Annual Report was sent to all judges and clerks, state agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials and libraries. A total of 4,000 copies were distributed.
- 2. Texas Juvenile Probation Report. Published and distributed this year was the first annual report on juvenile probation in Texas. Entitled Texas Juvenile Probation Report, this publication contains statistics and explanatory text concerning juvenile probation and juvenile courts in the state.
- 3. 65th Legislature. The 65th Legislature occupied much of the staff's time early in the year. Over 100 requests for statistical information by members of the Legislature were filled. 1976 caseload data on affected counties was provided both committees considering the creation of new courts as it became available. The Council's data on capital murder cases was also of great interest to several members of the Legislature. At the request of the Attorney General, the staff continued to collect data on the application of the capital murder statutes. As in past sessions, the Council staff offered its services to the members, committees and staff of the 65th Legislature. Assistance was provided in legal research, drafting of bills and answering inquiries on the operation of the court system. In particular, the staff was consulted on numerous occasions for assistance in preparing the fiscal notes for a wide range of bills affecting the judiciary and court system of the state. The staff also prepared a daily memo on bills introduced and/or pending which affected the judicial branch of government.

At the conclusion of the legislative session, the staff prepared a summary of legislation affecting the courts which was sent to all judges in the state.

- 4. Texas Adult Probation Commission. Legislation of the 65th Legislature resulted in the creation of several new agencies or groups which involved the staff. Because the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court was given some duties in initially organizing the Texas Adult Probation Commission, the staff assisted that group in beginning its operations, in terms of handling correspondence, posting notice of meetings, recording meetings and preparing necessary forms for the Commission to hire an Executive Director and generally serving as the secretariat to the Commission.
- 5. Speedy Trial Act Task Force. Passage of S.B. 1043, the "Speedy Trial Act," resulted in the Governor appointing a Task Force to identify potential problem areas associated with the Act's implementation, and develop recommendations to make the transition as smooth as possible. The Administrative Director is a member. An initial meeting of the Task Force was held on September 23rd. As one of its first needs, the Task Force identified certain statistical information on the state of the dockets in courts to be affected by the Speedy Trial Act. In cooperation with the County and District Attorneys Association, the Office of Court Administration designed questionnaires to elicit the necessary information from district and county level courts. For the lower courts, the office developed a questionnaire which was sent to a sample of courts across the state.

- 6. Continuing Legal Education of Municipal Court Judges. S.B. 387 of the 65th Legislature, concerning continuing legal education for municipal court judges, gave the Texas Judicial Council the duty of administering the Act. This includes accrediting the courses which municipal judges may take to satisfy the requirements of the law, encouraging that proper courses be offered, receiving and making reports on who has and has not satisfied the purposes of the Act. The staff prepared a set of proposed rules and forms for consideration by the Council at its October meeting for the accreditation of courses and certification of attendance. A letter, copy of the law and information form was sent to every incorporated city, town and village in the state for two purposes: (1) to inform them of the new law and (2) to provide a mailing list from which the Council's record-keeping for the Act can be started. The staff has also responded to numerous inquiries about the law from municipal judges and parties interested in offering courses of instruction.
- 7. Study of Court Reporting. Earlier studies pointed to substantial delays in the criminal and appellate processes due to delays in preparation of transcripts. Work in this area over the past several years intensified early this year on three related fronts: (1) drafting, in consultation with the court reporters' association, a group of bills for the legislative session; (2) drafting a set of proposed rules of civil procedure which were submitted to the Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on March 11; and (3) conducting a survey of fees charged by, items furnished to and salaries received by official court reporters across the state. S.B. 586, enacted into law, requires court reporters to be certified by the Supreme Court; and establishes a Court Reporters Committee to administer tests on the qualifications set out in the Act, collect fees, certify applicants to the Supreme Court, and revoke certificates for unprofessional conduct (appealable to the district court). Disciplinary rules are to be promulgated by the Supreme Court. A "grandfather" clause is included and official court reporters continued to be appointed by the individual judges.

- 8. Rules of Civil Procedure Study. At the request of Chief Justice Greenhill and Justice Pope, a major study was undertaken of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure with particular attention to the appellate process. The thrust of the study was to identify possible future changes in the Rules for consideration by the Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on the Rules. The results of the study were embodied in two memorandums. 3 Justice Pope listing 17 topics for his consideration for future study.
- 9. Citizen Pamphlets. Three pamphlets were prepared and supplied to courts for distribution to the public. Entitled "Your Rights in Municipal Court," "Your Rights in Traffic Cases in the Justice of the Peace Courts" and "Small Claims Court," these small pamphlets were written to give the layman an overview of three court processes with which the general public most often comes in contact.
- 10. State Appropriations Budget Estimates. One of the most significant duties placed in the Office of Court Administration by S.B. 192 is the direction to "prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system." In preparation for fulfilling this responsibility for the 66th Legislature in 1979, the Office of Court Administration has met with the staffs of the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Budget Office to coordinate the roles of the three agencies in preparing the budget estimates.

In the event the Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee or the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee is reappointed to such position, his immediate predecessor shall continue to serve on the Council as immediate past Chairman, it being the intent of the Legislature that two members of the Senate and two members of the House be at all times members of the Council; provided, however, that in the case of legislative members, cessation of membership in the Legislature shall not terminate their membership on the Council, but they shall continue to serve for their full term notwithstanding their cessation of membership in the Legislature. Five members of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the Council.

Sec. 5 It shall be the duty of the Council:

- 1. To make a continuous study of the organization of the courts; the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the judicial system of the State; of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expedited, and justice better administered.
- 2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar, and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.

All such reports shall be considered public reports and may be given to the press as soon as filed.

6. To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of justice as may be referred to the Council by the Supreme Court or the Legislature,

7. To hold one meeting in each calendar year, and such other meetings as may be ordered by the Council or under its authority, and at such time and place as may be designated by it or under its authority.

Powers of council

Sec. 6. The Council shall have nower:

1. To hold public meetings or hearings, by and through committees of three or more of its members, require the production of books and documents, require reports from the several courts of this State, including courts not of record, as may be deemed necessary, to administer oaths and take testimony.

For the purposes of any hearing, any Council officer, in advance of such hearing, or any Council member or officer sitting at such hearing, may issue under his official signature and cause to be served by registered or certified mail or by any adult person upon any prospective witness, a subpoena or like appropriate order. Upon the failure of a witness to testify, or upon his failure to appear or to produce books and documents as so ordered, any district judge of the county of residence of such witness shall, on written motion by, or on behalf of, the Council or Committee conducting said hearing, compel said witness to testify or, as the case may be, to appear and testify, by the same means, including attachment and penalties, whereby said judge may compel the testimony and appearance of witnesses in the trial of a cause pending in his own court.

- 2. To elect from its membership a president and such other officers as it may deem advisable; provided the secretary need not be a member of the Council; and provided further that the president of the Council may appoint, for and during his term as president, such committees as he may deem necessary for the proper organization of the Council.

It shall be an official duty of every justice, judge, clerk or other officer of every court of this State to comply with the reasonable requirements of the Council for the supplying of statistical data appertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by his court and of such other information concerning said court or the office of the clerk thereof as may be within the scope of the functions of the Council. Failure to supply such data or information within a reasonable time after request therefor shall be presumptively deemed a willful refusal to supply the same.

Due performance of the duty to supply data and information as aforesaid shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus, the corresponding actions for which shall be brought, and the corresponding courts shall have jurisdiction of the same, as follows: if against a district clerk or a clerk, judge or other officer of a trial court other than a district court, in a district court of the county of residence of the respondent; if against a district judge or clerk of a court of civil appeals, in the Court of Civil Appeals for the Supreme Judicial District in which the respondent resides; in all other cases, in the Supreme Court of Texas. The Attorney General of Texas shall file and prosecute the foregoing actions on behalf of the Council upon its written request, which shall be presumptively taken as the action of the Council if signed by its president or by as many as five of its members; but no such action shall be filed if the attorney general shall in writing certify his opinion that the same is without merit.

Compensation limited to traveling and necessary expenses

Sec. 7. No member of the Council shall receive any compensation for his services as such member, but shall be paid for actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties as such member, to be paid upon verified, itemized account approved by the President of the Council or by a Vice President thereof when so authorized in writing by the President. The necessary clerical expenses of the Council and its officers and committees shall be paid in like manner.

REPORT ON COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

Four meetings of the Texas Judicial Council were held during 1977 — on January 14, June 24, October 7 and December 2 — in Austin.

Officers elected for the year beginning July 1, 1977 are: President, Chief Justice Martin Dies, Jr., of the Ninth Court of Civil Appeals, in Beaumont; Vice-President, Hon. Ben Z. Grant of Marshall, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee; and Secretary, Mr. Richard Morehead of the Dallas Morning News Austin Bureau.

A variety of jurisprudential matters were considered during 1977. Those resulting in recommendations by the Council to the Legislature and Supreme Court include the following:

- 1. Granting Criminal Jurisdiction to the Courts of Civil Appeals. At its January meeting, early in the legislative session, the Council endorsed a joint resolution, later introduced by Representative Grant, to grant jurisdiction to the existing fourteen courts of civil appeals to hear intermediate appeals in criminal cases. Discussion centered on this proposal being the best approach to solving the problems of delay in the criminal appellate process and the heavy caseload of the Court of Criminal Appeals.
- 2. Full-time Prosecutors and Prosecutors Coordinating Council. After discussion of the results of an interim study of district attorneys' offices by Representative Grant's committee, the Council endorsed the requirement that prosecutors devote full-time to their duties of office and the establishment of a council to provide a grievance procedure for complaints against prosecutors and a continuing legal education program. (The Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council was created by ch. 345, p. 917, Acts of the 65th Legislature.)
- 3. Pre-Oral Argument Settlement Conferences. Coincidentally with a Council committee's study of appellate procedure, the Legislative Budget Board had proposed to the Legislature an appropriation to three courts of civil appeals for a pilot program of using retired justices to conduct pre-oral argument conferences in the courts to discuss the case, the issues, possibilities of settlement and to dispose of the case if possible. The Council voted to support this program (which did become a part of the Appropriations Bill) and to appoint a committee not limited to Council members to monitor the program and make recommendations to the Council on details for its continued use.
- 4. Central Staffs for Appellate Courts. The Council approved the recommendation of its Appellate Procedure Study Committee, chaired by Justice Thomas M. Reavley, that the Legislature provide funds for central professional staffs for each of the appellate courts in the State. (Such an appropriation was made to the Supreme Court.)

- 5. Revision of Article V. After a lengthy discussion at its January meeting of various joint resolutions which had been introduced in the Legislature to amend Article V of the Texas Constitution and the variance of those resolutions from the principles embodied in the earlier recommendations of the Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement, the Constitutional Convention and other bodies, the Council recommended rejection of those joint resolutions under discussion. It further recommended that the Legislature seriously consider the submission to the voters of a new Article V containing the principles of an efficient court system, as submitted to the voters in 1975. In the alternative, the Council recommended that the Legislature establish a broad-based commission composed of legislators, judges from all levels of courts and representatives of groups of interested citizens to report to the next session of the Legislature with recommendations for improvement of the court system of Texas. The Council noted that this approach would allow such a commission to utilize the past studies of the Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement, the Constitutional Convention, the 64th Legislature, the American Bar Standards, and other authoritative studies in this area, in their deliberations as well as considering developments since the submission to the voters of the proposed Article V in 1975.
- 6. Court Reporting. The report of the Court Reporters' Study Committee, chaired by Mr. Charles R. Griggs, was adopted by the Council. The report recommended changes to both statutory law and the Rules of Civil Procedure to insure the availability of efficient and professional court reporting services to the courts of the state. (Following closely the recommendations of the Council, the 65th Legislature created the Court Reporters Committee to establish qualifications for and certify to the Supreme Court court reporters for licensing. The Supreme Court amended several rules of civil procedure to better define the duties of court reporters, to strengthen the supervision of court reporters by trial judges, and to standardize the form of statements of fact.)
- 7. Commission on Judicial Conduct. By the time of the October meeting of the Council, the 65th Legislature had adopted a joint resolution to change the name of the Judicial Qualifications Commission to Commission on Judicial Conduct, restructure it somewhat and provide the agency more flexibility in its operations. The Council endorsed the resolution (which was adopted by the voters in November, 1977).
 - 8. Increased Jury Fee. An amendment to Rule 216,

T.R.C.P., was recommended to the Supreme Court to raise the jury fee in civil cases from $5.00 to $50.00 to ameliorate demands for juries being used as a dilatory tactic and to more nearly compensate the counties for the expenses of providing juries.

While not resulting in final recommendations during 1977, several other matters received the attention of the Judicial Council, among them:

- 1. Possible development of suggested criteria for the creation of new courts:
- 2. Limiting the excessive time taken for voir dire examination of jurors in trials;
- 3. Limiting the amount of recovery of exemplary damages in civil actions for damages; and
- 4. The consequences of Attorney General Opinion H-1076 requiring the use of 12 person juries in some cases in county courts at law.

In the exercise of two specific statutory duties, the Council:

- 1. Pursuant to Art. 200a, sec. 11(a), V.A.T.S., set the annual salaries of the Presiding Judges of the Administrative Judicial Districts for September 1, 1977 through August 31, 1979 at three thousand dollars ($3,000) per year except where otherwise provided by law; and
- 2. Pursuant to Art. 1200e, V.A.T.S., adopted Rules for the Continuing Legal Education of Municipal Court Judges, authorized a committee to act for the Council in accrediting courses for such education and authorized the staff to develop the necessary forms for accreditation and attendance at courses of instruction.

STATE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT (FORMERLY THE STATE JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION)

The State Judicial Qualifications Commission was created by Constitutional Amendment adopted by the electorate Nov. 2, 1965, and covered justices and judges of the district, criminal district, and appellate courts. An amendment to the Constitution adopted in the general election of 1970 increased the jurisdiction of the Commission to include all justices and judges of the state and added the sanction of censure, after a hearing, or private reprimand. An amendment adopted in the general election on Nov. 8, 1977, changed the name of the Commission to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct, added two new members (one lay member and one justice of the peace) provided for the suspension from office with or without pay by the Commission immediately upon an indictment by a State or Federal Grand Jury for a felony offense, or by the Supreme Court under certain circumstances. Suspension from office is with or without pay, pending final disposition of the charge. It gives to the master the same powers of a district judge relative to contempt for failure to appear as a witness or to produce documents; allows for a private or public reprimand; grants to the Supreme Court the power to prohibit a judge who has been removed from office from holding judicial office in the future; allows the Commission to issue a public statement when sources other than the Commission cause notoriety concerning a judge or the Commission, and upon a recommendation of the Commission for the suspension, censure, retirement, or removal of a Justice of the Supreme Court, seven Court of Civil Appeals Justices, selected by lot, shall serve in place of the Supreme

The Constitution empowers the Commission to consider complaints against any justice or judge concerning acts or conduct which are clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties or which cast public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice. The Commission may, if it deems necessary, initiate removal proceedings or take actions for the involuntary retirement of justices or judges who are disabled to the extent that they are unable to perform their duties, or when their disability is likely to become permanent in nature.

Members of the Commission consist of two appellate justices, two district judges, one justice of the peace, two attorneys, and four lay members. The judicial members are appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas, the attorneys by the Board of Directors of the State Bar of Texas, and the lay members by the Governor of Texas, all with the advice and consent of the Senate. No two members may serve from the same Supreme Judicial District, with the exception of the justice of the peace who is selected from a list of five names submitted by the Executive Committee of the Justice of the Peace and Constables Association of Texas to the Supreme Court and serves at large.

The Commission operates under Rules for the Removal or Retirement of Judges, Adopted and Promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas, and provides staff, confidentiality, and a hearing agency to receive, screen, and investigate complaints. The Commission is authorized to hold adversary hearings which are confidential. This provides a calm atmosphere for factfinding and the procedural protections necessary to insure the respondent justice or judge a fair hearing. As an alternative to the recommendation for removal or involuntary retirement, the Commission may choose the less harsh remedy of either public reprimand or censure.

It is the policy of the Commission to work with members of the judiciary to improve their image and service to the people of Texas, and a recommendation of removal is resorted to only as a last measure when the problem cannot be resolved in a more constructive way.

In addition to the duties set forth in the Constitution, the Commission serves as a repository for the financial records required by Canon 6, Section C, of the Code of Judicial Conduct which became effective September 1, 1974.

Although most cases are ultimately dismissed, this does not mean that they were without merit. Action was taken at the Commission level to remedy all matters where there appeared to be a breach of judicial ethics on the part of a judge.

Many complainants are not familiar with the legal procedure or how the courts operate, the jurisdiction of the judge, their right of appeal, and other aspects of the judicial system. They do know that they are unhappy with the system and want someone to hear their complaint. Usually, by letting them have all the time they need, and then explaining to them why the judge acted or ruled as he did, they are mollified somewhat. The tremendous caseload of the courts and the demand on the time of a judge does not permit him to give to these people the time they feel they deserve. To the individual, his case is the only one — to the judge it is one among hundreds of a similar nature. By serving as an intermediary, taking remedial action when necessary, the Commission feels that it negates much of the animosity toward the judicial system and provides the lay person a better understanding of the judiciary. Prior to the establishment of this Commission, there was no forum to hear complaints against members of the judiciary.

When it appears that a justice or judge is guilty of misconduct which is willful and persistent, or when it appears he cannot perform his duties because of a disability, the Commission acts promptly, adhering strictly to the Rules for the Removal or Retirement of Judges.

THE JUDICIAL PLANNING COMMITTEE

AUTHORIZATION

The 1976 amendments to the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1968 (Public Law 94-503) gave the court of last resort of each state the option of establishing a Judicial Planning Committee. The purposes of such a committee are 1) to provide a planning capability for the courts of the state and 2) to ensure that the state courts receive an adequate share of Law Enforcement Assistance Agency funds (in Texas, Criminal Justice funds).

The Supreme Court of Texas, by court order, created a Judicial Planning Committee in May of 1977. The Committee is chaired by the Honorable Joe R. Greenhill, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; and supervised by the Honorable Charles W. Barrow, Justice, Supreme Court of Texas. It has twenty-one members representing trial and appellate judges, criminal, civil, and juvenile judges, prosecutors and defenders, legislators, general practitioners, and law professors. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee is organized around its two purposes of 1) planning for the courts and 2) working with the Criminal Justice Division in the administration of LEAA funds. The Program Review Subcommittee, chaired by Mr. Jim Bowmer of Temple, is responsible for most of the work related to court grants. The subcommittee is developing a one-year plan for the courts, a budget for court projects for fiscal year 1979, and will review grant applications for court projects. The Judicial Planning Committee works in close cooperation with the Criminal Justice Division, Office of the Governor in this role.

The long range planning effort is conducted through several task forces. The criminal, civil and juvenile task forces have designated several planning issues for special study, including 1) planning for financial and staff resources for the courts; 2) planning for the development of court administration in Texas; 3) planning for the creation of new courts; 4) determining the feasibility of declassifying class C misdemeanors; 5) examining the need for a juvenile probation commission, and 6) proposing legislative, court or administrative rulings to promote the use of arbitration in Texas.

In the past six months of its operation, the Judicial Planning Committee has undertaken the following projects:

Court Grants

- 1) completed the draft of the plan for the use of Criminal Justice funds for court projects;
- started the preparation of the budget for court projects for fiscal year 1979;

Planning

- identified long range and short range planning issues for study to improve the court system of Texas;
- 4) established task forces to study the six special court planning issues listed above.

ADMINISTRATION

The Judicial Planning Committee is funded by a federal grant and employs a staff of one planner, one secretary and a part-time research assistant. The office is located in the Texas Law Center, Suite 650, 1414 Colorado Street, Austin.

TEXAS ADULT PROBATION COMMISSION Don R. Stiles, Executive Director 812 San Antonio Street, Suite 400 Austin, Texas 78701 512/475-1374

TEXAS ADULT PROBATION COMMISSION

The 65th Legislature created the Texas Adult Probation Commission with the passage of Senate Bill 39 in 1977. Senate Bill 39 amended Article 42.12 and created Article 42.121 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. This legislation created the Texas Adult Probation Commission consisting of three judges of the district courts of Texas and two citizens of Texas who are not employed in the Criminal Justice system to be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas and three judges of the district courts of Texas and one citizen of Texas not employed in the Criminal Justice system to be appointed by the presiding judge of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. The members of the Commission serve without compensation and the initial members appointed shall serve terms of two, four and six years respectively. Thereafter each member shall serve for six years.

The Commission was given the purposes:

"To make probation services available throughout the State, to improve the effectiveness of probation services, to provide alternatives to incarceration by providing financial aid to judicial districts for the establishment and improvement of probation services and community-based correctional programs and facilities other than jails or prisons, and to establish uniform probation administration standards." (Article 42.121, sec. 1.01 Code of Criminal Procedure)

The Commission was instructed to establish minimum standards for caseloads, programs, facilities, equipment and other aspects of the operation of a probation office necessary for the provision of adequate and effective probation services, and to establish a code of ethics for probation officers and provide for the enforcement thereof. The Commission is also empowered to require each probation office in Texas to keep such financial and statistical records as the Commission deems necessary.

In order to accomplish the purposes set forth above, the Commission was provided with $761,000 in fiscal year 1978, and $19 million in fiscal year 1979. The Commission is further empowered to provide financial assistance to judicial districts to achieve the purposes previously stated.

In the spring of 1978, the Commission adopted the first state-wide standards for adult probation services. Included were standards for administration, probation officer eligibility and training, supervision, caseloads, programs, facilities, equipment and fiscal management. The Commission also adopted a funding policy for fiscal year 1979 which will allow the distribution of approximately $18.3 million to judicial districts for probation departments and community-corrections.

The examination is given on the last Wednesday and Thursday of the months of February and July in six Texas cities: Austin, Dallas, Houston, Lubbock, San Antonio and Waco.

The bar examinations (February and July) consist of two sets of examinations covering fourteen (14) subjects, including Legal Ethics. The first is a one day, six-hour multistate (multiple choice type) examination covering six subjects and consisting of 200 questions prepared by nation-wide committees and coordinated by the National Conference of Bar Examiners with the assistance of the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey. The second portion of the examination is a one day, seven-hour essay type examination covering eight subjects, the questions for which are divided into four sections and are prepared by eight of the Board members working in teams of two.

Additionally, the Board meets in the Spring, usually during the month of April, to confer with the Deans of the eight (8) Texas law schools and the Justices of the Supreme Court as well as in the Fall in early October to meet with the Justices of the Supreme Court. In conjunction with the Board's Spring and Fall meetings, the Board interviews immigrant attorney applicants from sister states, the District of Columbia, and territories of the United States.

Furthermore, the Board conducts one or more special meetings at the site of the State Bar Convention and in Austin to consider special matters relating to the conduct of the Board's business including the processing of complaints and inquiries from legislators and law school deans.

The predominate aim and purpose of the Board is to insure to the Supreme Court of Texas that the persons recommended to be licensed by the Court to practice law in the State of Texas have been found to be of good moral character and fitness (fitness being defined as requisite mental and emotional stability); that they possess the necessary educational attainments; and that they have passed a bar examination designed to establish a minimum degree of competency to the end that the consumer public is protected against a person who might be licensed and who might be failing in any of these requirements.

TEXAS COURT REPORTERS COMMITTEE

The Texas Court Reporters Committee was established by Article 2324b, V.A.T.S. (Senate Bill 586 of the 65th Legislature). The Committee is composed of one active district judge who serves as chairman, two active members of the State Bar (with at least five years standing), three active official court reporters, and three active free-lance court reporters, each of whom is appointed by the Supreme Court to serve for a six-year term.

This article requires each court reporter to be certified by the Supreme Court and provides that the Committee shall perform the necessary executive functions to effectuate the purpose of this Act, and administer tests on the qualifications set out in the law, collect fees, certify applicants to the Supreme Court, and revoke certificates for unprofessional conduct (appealable to the district court):

Powers and duties of committee

"Sec. 12, (a) The committee shall have the powers and duties enumerated in Subsections (b) through (e) of this section.

(b) The committee shall administer tests to determine the qualifications of persons applying for certificates under this Act. Each test shall be given in two parts to be designated Part A and Part B. Part A shall be composed of five minutes of two-voice dictation of questions and answers given at 225 words per minute, five minutes of dictation of jury charge given at 200 words per minute, and five minutes of dictation of selected literary material given at 180 words per minute. Each applicant shall personally take down the test, either in his own writing or his own voice, and shall reduce to writing the takedown on either a manual or electric typewriter. The minimum passing grade on each section of Part A of the test shall be 95 percent accuracy. An error shall be charged for each wrong word, for each omitted word, for each added word not dictated, for each contraction where read as two words, for two words where read as a contraction, for each misplaced word, for each misplaced period that would materially alter the sense of a group of words or a sentence, for each misspelled word, for each plural or singular where the opposite was dictated, and for each wrong number. The use of a dictionary will be permitted during Part A of the test. Applicants will be allowed three hours to complete the transcription of Part A of the test. If time permits, the applicant may review his transcript but shall use only his original takedown from which his transcript was prepared to review the transcript. Part B of the test shall consist of objective questions touching on elementary aspects of court reporting, spelling, and grammar. The use of a dictionary will not be permitted during Part B of the test. The minimum passing grade on Part B will be 75 percent. Anyone discovered cheating on the tests is disqualified and will not be eligible for retesting for a period of two years.

(c) The committee shall charge and collect from all applicants for certificates and renewal of certificates the fees provided in this Act.

(d) The committee shall determine the qualifications and pass on the eligibility of all persons applying for certificates under this Act.

(e) The committee shall certify to the supreme court the applicants that are determined on examination by the committee to be qualified in professional shorthand reporting.

(f) Rules not inconsistent with this section may be promulgated by the supreme court." (art. 2324b, V.A.T.S.)

The Supreme Court is granted the authority to promulgate rules for the operation of the Committee and for the disciplinary functions of the Committee. Such rules were promulgated and became effective on Nov. 23, 1977.

The law further provides that any applicant who is an official court reporter of any court of record in this state as of the effective date of the Act (August 29, 1977), shall be issued a certificate by the Supreme Court and that any court reporter who can verify that prior to the effective date of the Act that he had been actively engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state shall be issued a certificate by the Supreme Court upon the approval by the Committee.

The Committee may revoke any certificate issued under the provisions of this Act . . . "for unprofessional conduct or other sufficient cause after notice and opportunity of a hearing . . ." (Sec. 13, art. 2324b, V.A.T.S.)

The law became effective August 29, 1977, and organizational matters occupied most of the Committee's time during the rest of the year. As of April 15, 1978, the Committee had received 1,041 applications for certification and certified 824 of the applicants based upon their prior experience and service as a court reporter.

On April 1, 1978 the first test under the provisions of the new law was administered to 61 applicants. Based upon this test, 14 applicants were certified as court reporters in the State of Texas. Presently 156 applications are pending before the Committee. The next test is scheduled for June 24, 1978.

STATE BAR OF TEXAS

The State Bar of Texas was created in 1939 pursuant to Article 320 a-1 R.C.S. as "an Administrative Agency of the Supreme Court of Texas . . ." The State Bar operates under the Rules Governing the State Bar of Texas promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas and serves the 29,000 lawyers of Texas.

The various departments of the Bar provide a va riety of services including one of the most extensive continuing legal education programs in the United States. The Professional Development Department, other Committees and Sections assist in the educational program. This program in addition to continuing the education of all lawyers, attempts to educate the younger practitioners through Skills Courses to understand the more fundamental aspects of the "practice of law." Seminars and institutes are held over the entire state to help lawyers in specific areas of the law and to keep them abreast of new developments. Through the use of videotape equipment and facilities of the Law Center these educational programs are taken to the lawyers and public in general all over the state. The Bar also prepares and distributes manuals and books dealing wit. arious fields of practice.

In addition, the Professional Development Department produces cassette audio tapes concerning bankruptcy, the Tax Reform Act of 1976, commercial practice, managing the lawyer's life, school law, personal injury, products liability, natural resources law, real estate investments, salvation for the solo practitioner, criminal law, municipal judges conference and commercial law.

A digest is prepared at the Law Center and distributed to all lawyers weekly. This publication gives the lawyers and judges a summary of significant decisions of the Texas Supreme Court, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals and the Texas Courts of Civil Appeals, Federal Court decisions, Attorney General opinions and the Comptroller's Administrative decisions.

The Texas Bar Journal published by the State Bar staff is distributed monthly, except August, to the attorneys of the state and to students attending all of the eight law schools in Texas. Informative articles dealing with specific areas of law, results of disciplinary actions over the state, proceedings of the Board of Directors and other topics of interest to lawyers and judges are published.

The legislative program of the State Bar coordinates the legislative efforts of the Bar's committees and sections. This effort helps insure an effective voice in the Capitol for the legislative needs of Texas' lawyers.

The General Counsel's office of the State Bar bears the responsibility of enforcing the Rules of discipline and to suppress the unauthorized practice of law. It serves as a clearing house for the Ethics Committee by providing ethics opinions and making available formal Ethics Opinions thereby aiding lawyers in avoiding unintentional grievances.

Other programs and services of the State Bar are listed below.

LAWYER REFERRAL SERVICE

This office receives 1,100 calls per month from persons seeking a lawyer. The service greatly increases public awareness of the need and availability of legal services as well as putting paying clients in touch with lawyers who can handle their specific legal problems.

PREPAID LEGAL SERVICES

This Bar sponsored program has the potential of reaching 8½ million Texans who represent 70% of the population which falls in the "middle income" range. Currently the program is providing coverage for 750 policyholders representing 19 different groups.

INSURANCE TRUST

The Insurance Trust sponsors insurance coverages for the lawyers of Texas such as: group life, major medical, accidental death and dismemberment, excess major medical and professional liability.

The Trust is sponsoring the formation of an insurance carrier to write professional liability insurance. When it is determined that this effort will be able to offer competitive rates and coverages, the Trust will proceed with its creation.

MEMBERSHIP RECORDS

The Membership department serves as a clearing house for all address changes for members, processing some 10,000 changes annually. From this centralized, up-to-date file, local bars, Sections, committees, and other bar groups can request mailing lists of lawyers broken down geographically and by special interest area.

COMMITTEES AND SECTIONS

Some of the State Bars' most progressive achievements have been initiated through the committees structure. There are 43 active committees and 25 sections. The staff assists the committees and sections by maintaining records, scheduling meetings, providing meeting rooms and coordinating committee activities.

TEXAS BAR FOUNDATION

Established in 1965, the Texas Bar Foundation finances programs in continuing legal education and research on legal matters of mutual significance to the Bar and the public. Grants awarded by the Foundation funded such projects as revision of the Penal Code, State Bar Practice Skills Courses and the State Bar's continuing legal education video-tape project.

TEX-LEX

The Tex-Lex office edits for computerization 150-175 opinions per month for the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals and the 14 Courts of Civil Appeals. There are at present 22,519 cases in the Texas bank of the computer system. Through this program the State Bar makes computerized legal research available to its members and did so at no cost to the lawyers.

TEXAS YOUNG LAWYERS ASSOCIATION

All Texas lawyers under the age of 35 are members of this organization which has 42 active committees. The President and President-Elect are voting members of the State Bar Board of Directors and the President is a member of the Executive Committee.

Activities include the sponsoring of booklets and brochures. Texas Young Lawyers Association also incorporated the Texas Lawyers Credit Union, conducts a National Mock Trial Competition and is conducting a pilot program whereby young lawyers provide legal support for non-profit artistic projects.

This organization has won the ABA Award of Achievement nine out of the last ten years.

SPECIALIZATION

Specialization is a pilot program authorized by the Supreme Court which provides a mechanism for certifying special competence in selected fields of law. The program began in 1975, with three fields: Criminal Law, Family Law and Labor Law. The fields of Estate Planning and Probate, Civil Trial Law and Personal Injury Trial Law are recent additions to this program.

STANDARDS OF ADMISSION

This department conducts a background investigation of each person who files a Declaration of Intention to Study Law or an Application for Admission to the Bar of Texas thereby assisting the Board of Law Examiners in assuring that only those persons of good moral character and fitness are admitted to the Bar.

COMMUNICATIONS

This department issues approximately 8,000 news releases to newspapers, radio, and television each year on the activities of the Bar. In addition, two films ("Our Uncommon Law" and "Liberty and Justice for All") are distributed to high schools and civic groups under the direction of the Communications department.

CONVENTION AND SPECIAL EVENTS

The State Bar staff provides long-range planning and support for the 165 separate functions within a four day period during the convention involving arrangements for Section and Committee meetings, preconvention institutes, exhibits, entertainment, etc. Also, this department coordinates Board of Director meetings, new lawyer swearing-in ceremonies, judicial swearing-in ceremonies and other special events.

LEGAL SERVICES TO OLDER AMERICANS

The Governor's Committee on Aging has asked the State Bar to administer its grant on legal services for Older Americans. This program has provided more, than 5,800 man hours of training to 320 individuals who work with the elderly across the state in how to recognize legal problems of the elderly and how to get legal help for these problems.

In addition, this program also works with the 24 Area Agencies on Aging in Texas to utilize funds from the Older Americans Act in providing direct legal services to older Texans.

TEXAS CENTER FOR CORRECTIONAL SERVICES—a three-part program

VOLUNTEERS IN PAROLE:

The Volunteers in Parole Project recruits and trains attorney-volunteers to serve as one-to-one counselors with parolees in a general non-legal capacity to assist the parolees in reintegrating into society.

COUNSEL FOR INDIGENT PAROLEES:

The Counsel for Indigent Parolees Project provides legal counsel for both adult and juvenile indigent parolees at on-site and final parole revocation hearings.

INMATE LEGAL SERVICES PROJECT:

The Inmate Legal Services Project provides representation to inmates who complain of violations of their civil rights by the Texas Department of Corrections. Where necessary, the project appoints lawyers to represent inmates in federal actions.

TEXAS CENTER FOR THE JUDICIARY

The Texas Center for the Judiciary is the central agency in Texas providing continuing legal education programs for the state judiciary and supportive personnel. It also provides staff support for the Judicial Section of the State Bar.

Established January 1, 1973, the Center is funded by a grant from the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office (LEAA funds) to the State Bar. Operating budget for 1978 is $410,990.

The Judicial Section's Continuing Legal Education Committee is the governing body of the Center. The Center provides staff support for all Judicial Section Committees, including the CLE, Executive, Judicial Ethics, Juvenile Court Judges, Legal Specialization, and Uniform Punishment in Texas Committees.

Educational opportunities provided by the Center under the guidance of the Section's CLE Committee take several forms. In addition to conferences and seminars, the Center prepares and distributes training manuals to Texas judges and provides financial assistance for judges to attend seminars on the national level, such as the National College of the State Judiciary in Reno, Nevada. Publications include the two-volume Benchbook for Texas Trial Judges, Juvenile Court Judges Manual, County and District Clerk's Manual, Texas Adult Probation Manual, and the Texas College of the Judiciary Notebooks.

Continuing education and training programs sponsored by the Center cover the three major areas of criminal law, juvenile law, and administration of justice. Among the twelve conferences sponsored by the Center in 1977, with the number of persons attending, were: Juvenile Court Judges Seminar (50), Criminal Justice Conference (175), four Court Administration Seminars (50 average), Mid-Winter South Texas Judicial Conference (100), and the annual Judicial Section Conference (375 judges and a total of 650 persons). A conference for briefing attorneys of the Supreme Court of Texas, Court of Criminal Appeals, and the 14 Courts of Civil Appeals, and a workshop for clerks of the Courts of Civil Appeals also were held. Additionally, the Center during 1978 will sponsor regional judicial conferences covering seven of the nine administrative judicial districts of Texas with plans to expand to include all nine districts.

In December, 1974, the Center sponsored the first Texas College of the Judiciary, an orientation school for some 55 new judges offering instruction in basic court procedure. In 1976 the second College was held with 40 new judges in attendance. The appointment of some 30 new judges provided by Senate Bill 330 of the 65th Legislature in early 1977 necessitated a special session of the College, which was held in April. The fourth Texas College was held in March, 1978, in Huntsville. During its four-year history, the Texas College of the Judiciary has trained some 150 judges.

The 65th Legislature also passed the "Speedy Trial Act," Senate Bill 1043. Because this legislation could pose special problems for civil trial judges who have not had criminal trial experience, the Center sponsored a seminar providing a basic course in criminal law and procedure for civil trial judges in January, 1978.

In addition to the criminal procedure seminar and the Texas College, other 1978 conferences include: the annual Mid-Winter South Texas Judicial Conference in McAllen in February, the first annual Northeast Texas Judicial Conference in Longview in March, the first annual West Texas Judicial Conference in Lubbock in April, the annual Criminal Justice Conference in Huntsville in May, the Second Administrative District Judicial Conference in Huntsville in June, and the annual Judicial Section Conference in Arlington in September. Other conferences involving juvenile court judges, clerks, briefing attorneys, and court coordinators also will be held in 1978.

The Center's staff is composed of an executive director, associate director, publications director, an executive secretary, and a receptionist/bookkeeper. The executive director coordinates overall activities of the Center, concentrating on the planning of educational seminars to be sponsored by the Center. He is assisted by the associate director, who also acts as liaison with the Governor's Office and national judicial agencies. The publication of manuals, deskbooks, reports, and programs is the responsibility of the publications director. He also serves as editor of a bimonthly newsletter published by the Center. Completing the staff are an executive secretary and a receptionist/bookkeeper.

JUSTICE COURT TRAINING CENTER

The Justice Court Training Center is co-sponsored by the Justices of the Peace and Constables Association of Texas and Southwest Texas State University. Funding of the program is made possible from the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 and the Criminal Justice Planning Fund established by the 62nd State Legislature through Senate Bill No. 841.

The goal of the Training Center is to provide training to the more than 900 Texas Justices of the Peace. Training is available to lawyer and non-lawyer judges but particular emphasis is placed upon the non-lawyer judge.

An intensive forty-hour course is available to newly appointed or elected justices of the peace which satisfies the training requirement for new J.P.'s as established in House Bill No. 168, passed by the 62nd State Legislature. Continuing yearly in-service legal education which is required under the provisions of House Bill No. 81, as passed by the 63rd Legislature is proyided utilizing ten twenty-hour regional schools held throughout Texas.

The forty hour training curriculum includes instruction on: Judicial Ethics, Rules of Evidence, Bond Setting, Inquests, Truancy Laws, Complaints, Search Warrants, Examining Trials, Arrest With and Without Warrant, Peace Bonds, Administrative Practices as well as other duties and responsibilities of the justice court.

During 1977, the twenty hour curriculum was directed at increasing the judge's ability to apply certain skills in the procedural and administrative areas of his jurisdiction. Emphasis was placed in the following areas: Theft and Fraud cases, duties of the Office of Constable, Administrative Hearings, New Laws, Attorney General's Opinions, Civil and Small Claims Courts, discussions with Department of Public Safety personnel, Bond Forfeitures, Contempt and Texas Judicial Council reports.

The administrative offices for the training program are located at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas. The Training Center's staff is composed of an executive director, a deputy director, an office manager and an administrative assistant.

The Board of Directors is responsible for setting the operational policy of the Training Center. In addition to the staff and directors, numerous individuals from throughout the Criminal Justice System are involved in curriculum development and program implementation.

THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF TEXAS JANUARY 1, 1978

Descriptive Outline

The present court system of Texas, established by the constitutional amendment of 1891, provides for a Supreme Court which is the highest state appellate court in civil matters and a Court of Criminal Appeals which is the highest state appellate court in criminal matters. It has fourteen intermediate courts of civil appeals. There is no intermediate court for criminal appeals from trial courts, such appeals going directly from the trial courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, which in some metropolitan areas have been established as courts having primarily civil, criminal, domestic relations, or juvenile jurisdiction. It should be noted that the geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is established by the specific statute creating that court, and such jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to any previously established court. Each court has one judge.

In addition to the above state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge. To relieve the calendar congestion of the single constitutional county courts the legislature has established probate courts, and county courts at law in certain counties having large populations.

The Texas Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. Since 1953, these justice courts also serve as small claims courts.

The legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city. These courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts limited to the geographic confines of the municipality.

Trial in the justice of the peace courts and most municipal courts is not of record, and appeals therefrom are on trial de novo to the county court except in those counties having statutory county courts at law or where by statute the district court has assumed portions of the county court's jurisdiction.

State, county and municipal governments all contribute to the financing of the judicial system in Texas. The State finances the appellate courts and pays a base salary to all courts of civil appeals justices and district judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justices of the peace, and operating costs of district courts except the judge's basic salary. The cities finance the municipal courts.

S.B. 510 of the 65th Legislature, the general appropriations bill, appropriated $20,724,403 in general revenue funds for the operation of the judiciary in fiscal year 1978. This represents less than one percent of the $2,902,272,000 total general revenue funds appropriated.

e. Term: Six years.

D. District Courts (305)

1. Jurisdiction: There are 305 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge and geographical jurisdiction. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

District courts are trial courts of general jurisdiction, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections, and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with statutory county courts at law in cases of at least $500 and not to exceed $5,000. (In the counties which have no statutory county courts at law, district courts have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in cases of at least $500 and not to exceed $1,000.)

The district courts have original and appellate jurisdiction in probate matters and general supervisory control over commissioners court. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action whatever for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil or criminal cases. In some cases, the courts which have criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts.

A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Court of Criminal Appeals in criminal cases and to the Courts of Civil Appeals in civil cases.

- 2. Seats: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.
- 3. Membership:
 - a. Number: One judge per court.
 - Selection: Partisan district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections filled by gubernatorial appointment with advice and consent of Senate.
 - c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; age 25; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.
 - d. Salaries paid by the State:

eff. 9-1-77 $34,500 eff. 9-1-78 35,700

Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties, ranging from $600 to $17,000 per year. Total salary must be $1,000 less than received by associate justices of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Supreme Judicial District.

e. Term: Four years.

E. "Constitutional" County Courts (254)

1. Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that there shall be a county court in each county, but not all 254 courts perform judicial functions. The county court has civil, criminal, original and appellate jurisdiction. It has exclusive legal authority in civil cases when the contested amount is $200-$500, and it has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court in cases when the amount exceeds $500 but is less than $1,000. The county court also usually is given general control over probate cases. In criminal cases, the county court has exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors when the fine to be imposed exceeds $200 or when a jail sentence may be imposed.

Unless expressly provided by law, the county court does not have criminal jurisdiction in any county where a criminal district court exists. Decisions from the municipal and justice courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals in civil cases and to the Court of Criminal Appeals in criminal cases.

Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

- 2. Seats: County seat of county of jurisdiction.
- 3. Membership:
 - a. Number: One judge per court.
 - Selection: County-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
 - c. Qualifications: "Shall be well-informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary.)
 - d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
 - e. Term: Four years.

The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and is composed of four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue writs and contempt citations.

F. County Courts at Law (96)

1. Jurisdiction: The Legislature has the authority to create special county courts. Ninety-six of these statutory courts have been created in forty counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties. The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts are intended to exercise in practice subjectmatter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); but the names do not always disclose their complete functions. In general, the concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory courts with the district court is higher than constitutional county courts.

Geographical Jurisdiction: County-wide.

- 2. Seats: County seat of county of jurisdiction.
- 3. Membership:
 - a. Number: One judge per court.
 - Selection: Usually by county-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
 - c. Qualifications: Vary according to court-creation statute, some include two to five years experience as practicing attorney and requirement of residence in county.
 - d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
 - e. Term: Four years.
- G. Justice of the Peace Courts (approx. 900)
 - 1. Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least 4, and not over 8, justice precincts, in each of which shall be elected one justice of the peace, provided that if the precinct includes a city of 8,000 or more inhabitants, one additional justice of the peace shall be elected from such precinct.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases when the amount in controversy or the fine does not exceed $200. A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings. serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries when the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills when the amount does not exceed $150.

- Seats: Determined by county commissioners.
- 3. Membership:
 - a. Number: One judge per court.

- b. Selection: Partisan election by voters of respective precincts.
- c. Qualifications: None.
- d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
- e. Term: Four years.

H. Municipal Courts (approx. 1,000)

1. Jurisdiction: Authorized by statute, municipal courts are established in cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances (predominately traffic offenses). The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the state.

Trials in all but four municipal courts are not of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court, the county court at law or the district court upon trial de novo. The municipal courts of Houston, Midland, Sweetwater and Wichita Falls are courts of record with appeals on the record perfected in the municipal court.

- 2. Seats: Determined by the city or town.
- 3. Membership:
 - a. Number: Generally, limited by statute to one court per municipality and one judge per court. Other statutes allow some urban city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court.
 - b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city or town as provided by city charter or ordinance.
 - Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city or town.
 - d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city or town. Highly variable.
 - e. Term: Varies from one year to an indefinite term. Often at the will of the governing body of the city or town.

II OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System, created by the 65th Legislature (1977) (Art. 2328b, V.A.C.S.), assists the Supreme Court and the Chief Justice in the administration of the judicial system. Under the provisions of this article, the Supreme Court is authorized to promulgate rules of administration for the judicial system of the State. The Administrative Director of the Courts, appointed by the Supreme Court, also serves as the Executive Director of the Texas Judicial Council. The Office of Court Administration is to aid judges, clerks and court administrators in discharging their administrative duties, make recommendations for the orderly and efficient administration of justice and prepare and submit budget estimates for state appropriations for the judicial system.

III. TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL

The Texas Judicial Council is charged with making a continuous study of the organization and operation of the courts. The Council reviews and considers proposals on ways to improve the administration of justice and formulates methods for simplifying judicial procedures. The Council gathers judicial statistics from civil and criminal courts and makes a detailed annual report to the Governor and to the Supreme Court.

IV. ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICTS

For the administration of district courts, the state is divided into nine administrative judicial districts, each headed by a presiding judge. Such administrative judicial districts have limited administrative powers over the district courts located within the district relating to assignment of judges and transfer of cases to relieve congested court dockets.

V. COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

The State Commission on Judicial Conduct is empowered to act upon cases of misconduct or disability of judges. The Commission is responsible for investigating such cases and, after investigation, may issue a private reprimand or an order of public censure. The Commission may also recommend to the Supreme Court the removal or retirement of the judge in question.

VI. RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL

A. Appellate and District Judges

- Voluntary Retirement: Basic provision permits retirement at half-pay (of then salary) after ten years service, either upon incapacity or attaining age 65; subject to 10% increase under conditions designed to encourage retirement at age 70. Judges in active service contribute 6% per annum of their salaries (to State General Fund). Retired judges who have elected to continue as judicial officers may be assigned to special duties at active-duty pay rates.
- 2. Involuntary Retirement and Removal for Cause:
 - a. Automatic retirement at age 75.
 - b. Involuntary retirement for disability

- and removal for cause by Supreme Court upon recommendation of State Commission on Judicial Conduct.
- c. Removal for cause also by impeachment, address or (in case of District Judges only) by Supreme Court upon complaint of 10 or more lawyers, etc.
- B. Other Judges

- 1. Retirement only as may be provided by counties
- 2. Removal for Cause:
 - a. By Supreme Court upon recommendation of Commission on Judicial Conduct.
 - b. By District Court proceeding, with some exceptions.

SUBJECT-MATTER JURISDICTION © OF TEXAS COURTS JANUARY 1, 1978

INTRODUCTION

The present court system of Texas, established by the constitutional amendment of 1891, provides for a Supreme Court which is the highest state appellate court for civil matters and a Court of Criminal Appeals which makes the final determination in criminal matters. The state has fourteen intermediate courts of civil appeals. There are no intermediate appellate courts for criminal matters, such appeals going directly from the trial courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 305. (Ten of these courts are named "Criminal District Courts," but as will be noted later, only three are strictly limited only to criminal cases on the district level.)

The geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is established by the specific statute creating that court, and that jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to the jurisdiction of any previously established court. Each court has one judge. The state pays the judge's salary and some expenses.

In addition to the above state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge, who also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the calendar congestion of the single "constitutional" county court in each county, the legislature has established statutory county courts at law in certain metropolitan counties. As of January 1, 1978, there are seven probate courts and 87 county courts at law. (Two other courts are authorized, but not implemented by the counties in which they are located as of January 1, 1978.)

The Texas Constitution also provides for a minimum of four justice of the peace courts in each county. Today there are approximately 900 of the justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these justice courts have also served as small claims courts.

The legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city in the state. These courts have original jurisdiction over purported violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction over state statutes with the justice of the peace courts, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality.

Trial in the justice of the peace and municipal courts (with four exceptions) is not of record, and appeals therefrom are on trial de novo to the county court except in certain counties noted later, where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court.

Ø

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statute establishing the individual courts. Thus to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question and fourth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters, such as the Family Code, which requires a lawyer-judge to hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.

APPELLATE COURTS

As previously indicated, the Supreme Court is the court of last resort in the state in civil matters. It also has original jurisdiction to issue writs and conduct proceedings for the involuntary retitement or removal of any judge in the state. It is empowered to make rules for the administration of justice, rules of civil practice and procedure for use in all courts having civil jurisdiction and rules governing the licensing of members of the bar of the state. The Court of Criminal Appeals has final state appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases and may issue writs to enforce its judgments. The courts of civil appeals are the intermediate appellate courts of the state, limited however to civil matters.

DISTRICT-LEVEL COURTS

While the jurisdiction of the appellate courts is quite uniform for each level, that of the various trial court levels is not. To meet the diversified characteristics of the state, the legislature has established varying jurisdiction for the same level of courts depending on the location or local needs.

Broadly, the district courts are the general trial courts for the state, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more. The district court has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the, "constitutional" county court in cases of at least $500. In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts by general law have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases of at least $500 and not to exceed $5,000.*

In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a), which was placed in the district court and county court at law. The statute did not transfer any eminent domain cases pending in the "constitutional" county court on the effective date of the act, therefore, some county courts are continuing to dispose of eminent domain matters filed before 1971. This article lists several instances where eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred from the county court by "special" law pertaining to only one county. In some instances, this transfer was prior to 1971 and in others pending eminent domain cases were transferred. These situations are to be contrasted with the 1971 general statute which transferred jurisdiction of "new" eminent domain cases.

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the legislature cannot reduce the jurisdiction of a constitutional district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W. 2d 718 (1961); Zamora v. State, 508 S.W. 2d 819 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974). Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W. 2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W. 2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S.W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). See also Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W. 2d 211 (1933) and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W. 2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968). In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County expressly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the criminal district court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

Presently the state statutes purport to limit the jurisdiction of 18 district courts to civil matters only. They are:

14th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

17th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

44th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

48th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

58th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

60th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

67th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

*The concurrent civil jurisdiction of eight county courts at law has by special statute been increased to $10,000.

68th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

95th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

96th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

101st (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

116th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

134th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

135th (Calhoun, Goliad, Jackson, Refugio, Victoria) - art. 199(135)

136th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

153rd (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

156th (Aransas, Bee, Live Oak, McMullen, San Patricio) - art. 199(156)

160th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

The constitutional power to establish "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) apparently does authorize the legislature to establish special district courts with criminal jurisdiction only. Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W. 2d 597 (1941). A statute limiting the jurisdiction of a district court to criminal matters was recently recognized by a court of civil appeals. Cook v. Nelius, 498 S.W. 2d 455 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston 1st 1973, no writ). In a similar situation, the Court of Criminal Appeals did not comment on the question. Pittman v. State, 434 S.W. 2d 352 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

Several district courts with their jurisdiction so limited have been created, but at this time, only three courts are limited to exclusively criminal district-level jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (arts. 1926-41, 1926-42a)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-43)

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-44)

Four others are limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Dallas County (arts. 1926-11, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County (arts. 1926-13, 1926-22) 3

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County (arts. 1926-14, 1926-16, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (arts. 1926-61, 1926-62)

As will be noted later, other "Criminal District Courts" cannot be categorized as having district-level criminal jurisdiction only because they also have concurrent jurisdiction with county-level courts in certain matters.

While the courts have ruled the legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes in various ways express the intention of the legislature that certain district courts give their primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction. Three courts are instructed to "give preference" to criminal cases and the statutes further provide that only criminal cases are to be filed in those courts:

144th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

175th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

187th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.014

In the same manner, seven district courts are to give preference to civil cases and civil cases only are to be filed in those courts:

37th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
45th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
57th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
73rd (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
131st (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

Perhaps less stringent is the simple statutory instruction that certain courts are to "give preference" to certain matters, with no further restrictions. Thirty courts are thusly instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

105th (Nueces) - art. 199(105)

107th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(107)

Four courts are similarly instructed to give preference to civil cases:

224th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.051

225th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.052

One district court is to give preference to juvenile and family law matters:

241st (Smith) - art. 199a, sec. 3.066

One court is directed by statute to give first preference to family law cases and second preference to criminal cases:

148th (Nueces) - art. 199a, sec. 3.001

The 65th Legislature (1977) converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these 31 courts are to "have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters:"

300th (Brazoria) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.01

The other statutory provision observed above—that of limiting the types of cases which can be filed in a particular court—is used alone in several instances. Such a restriction is probably not mandatory on the clerk of the court. Lord v. Clayton, 663 Tex. 62, 352 S.W. 2d 718 (1961). The statutes provide that in four-teen courts, civil cases only are to be filed:

11th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

55th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
61st (Harris) - art. 199(11)
80th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
113th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
125th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
127th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
129th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
133rd (Harris) - art. 199(11)
151st (Harris) - art. 199(11)
157th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
157th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

In six courts, only criminal cases are to be filed:

165th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

174th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(174)

176th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(176)

177th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(177)

178th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(178)

179th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(179)

180th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(180)

Finally, for one court, the legislature has specified that criminal and tax cases only shall be filed:

49th (Webb) - art. 199(111)

As noted above, some 93 statutory county courts at law and 7 probate courts have been created, largely in metropolitan areas. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised by the county court at law concurrently with the district court. Four county courts at law are given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in specified domestic relations matters:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340) County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340.1)

County Court at Law of Orange County (art. 1970-349A)

County Court at Law of Webb Courty (art. 1970-360)

Three county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified family law matters, eminent domain cases and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10,000:

County Court at Law of Randall County (art. 1970-371) (eff. 1/1/80, or earlier as determined by the county commissioners)

County Court at Law of Reeves County (art. 1970-373)

County Court at Law of Walker County (art. 1970-367)

Nine county courts at law have, by special statute, concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts in eminent domain matters:

County Court at Law of Victoria County (art. 1970-356)

County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County (art. 1970-298d) (eff. 1/1/79, or earlier as determined by the county commissioners)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 4 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 5 (art_1970-31.2) (eff. 1/1/79)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341a)

County Court at Law of Midland County (art. 1970-370) (eff. 1/1/80, or earlier as determined by the county commissioners)

16

Five county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in eminent domain cases and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10,000:

County Court at Law of Angelina County (art. 1970-355)

County Court No. 1 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342a)

County Court No. 2 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342b)

20

Probate and County Court of Galveston County (art. 1970-342)

County Court at Law of Tom Green County (art. 1970-369) (eff. 1/1/80, or earlier as determined by the county commissioners)

Finally, the statute creating one criminal district court provides that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts at law in the county in matters of county court criminal jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (art. 1926-61)

A wide variety of statutory changes have been made blurring the line between district-level jurisdiction and county court-level jurisdiction. In nine counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Bowie (5th, 102nd, 202nd District Courts) - art. 1970-306

Cass (5th District Court) - Acts 1879, ch. 25, p. 21; Acts 1971, ch. 273, p. 1198

Jones (259th District Court) - art. 199a, sec. 3.085(b)

Real (38th District Court) - Acts 1917, ch. 53, p. 92

Shackelford (259th District Court) - art. 199a, sec. 3.085(b)

Stephens (90th District Court) - art. 1970-321

Webb (49th, 111th District Courts) - Acts 1893, ch. 9, p. 5

In two counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court (by general statute enacted in 1971 (art. 3266a), all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction):

Comal (22nd District Court) - Acts 1883, ch. 35, p. 24

Mason (33rd District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 73, p. 54

All civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, eminent domain and jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases has been transferred to the district court in one county:

Eastland (91st District Court) - art. 1970 141a

In a third county, all county civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have concurrent jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases:

Marion (76th, 115th District Courts) -Acts 1887, ch. 36, p. 38; art. 1970-322a

In another county, all county court civil and criminal cases appealed from justice of the peace courts, except probate and eminent domain, have been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have concurrent jurisdiction in juvenile delinquency cases and in cases where the county court would have had original criminal jurisdiction:

Red River (102nd District Court) - art 1970-314a

All civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court in four counties:

Mills (35th District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 97, p. 109; Acts 1907, ch. 101, p. 199

Sabine (1st District Court) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S., ch. 7, p. 90

21

22

23

San Augustine (1st District Court) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S., ch. 7, p. 90

Wichita (89th District Court) - art. 1970-166b

In one county all civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

25

29

Glasscock (118th District Court) - art. 1970-320 and Acts 1957, ch. 196, p. 399

In another county, all civil and eminent domain jurisdiction of the county court has been transferred to the district court:

Navarro (13th District Court) - art. 1970-326

Finally, in six counties, the general jurisdiction in eminent domain cases alone has been transferred from the county to the district courts by special statutes. In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a):

Camp (76th District Court) - Acts 1971, ch. 592, p. 1952

Fannin (6th District Court) - Acts 1971, ch. 89, p. 820

Gonzales (25th, 2nd 25th District Courts)
- Acts 1957, ch. 383, p. 867

Hopkins (8th, 62nd District Courts) - Acts 1967, ch. 44, p. 84

Morris (76th District Court) - Acts 1967, ch. 378, p. 872; Acts 1969, ch. 246, p. 707

Tarrant - art. 1970-62.1

Rather than transfer jurisdiction absolutely from the county court to the district court, the legislature has in several instances given both the district and county courts concurrent jurisdiction in certain matters. Seven district courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the county court in matters normally in the county court:

207th (Caldwell) - art. 199a, sec. 3.035(b)

Criminal District Court of Dallas County - art. 1926-21

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County - art. 1926-21 Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-41

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-43

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-44

Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-45

In two counties, the district and county court have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters normally in the county court and the district court assigns cases to the county court:

Hill (66th District Court) - arts. 1970-333; 1970-33a

Johnson (18th District Court) - art. 1970-335

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Generally speaking, "constitutional" county courts have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $200 or more and less than $500, general jurisdiction over probate cases and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors whose punishment for the offense upon conviction is by fine exceeding $200 or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts upon trial de novo.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $500 and not more than $5,000. Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts takes many forms. In the creation of three county courts at law, all civil, criminal and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law of Houston County (art. 1970-365)

County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County (art. 1970-361) 29 ₀

30

31

31

32

In the creation of fifteen county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 4 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)

County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301f)

County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360)

One county court at law was created to exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil and criminal matters, which had earlier been transferred from the county court to the district court.

The county court at law and county court have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Comal County (art. 1970-368)

The legislature provided, in the creation of three county courts at law, that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and that the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301d)

County Court of Jefferson County at Law (arts. 1970-112, 1970-113)

County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-126a)

For four county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County (arts. 1970-64, 1970-301)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301)

County Court at Law No. 5 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)

County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)

In one county, all civil, criminal and juvenile jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and it was provided that the courts were to have concurrent jurisdiction in eminent domain cases:

County Court at Law of Taylor County (art. 1970-343)

Four county courts at law were created with the provision that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in both probate and eminent domain cases:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339B, 1970-339C)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324, 1970-324d) 34

33

36

County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a, 1970-324d)

County Court at Law No. 3 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a.1, 1970-324d)

In one instance, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and eminent domain and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to original jurisdiction criminal cases:

37

39

40

County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339, 1970-339A, 1970-339C)

Similarly, to another county court at law in the same county was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and eminent domain and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to civil cases and criminal cases appealed from courts of inferior jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339A, 1970-339C)

When the four Harris County civil courts at law were created, it was provided that all civil and eminent domain jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to them:

County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-79)

County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110d)

County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110e)

County Civil Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County (art. 1970-110f)

For one county court at law, all civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to it, and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent criminal jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County (arts. 1970-33, 1970-34)

For another in the same county, all civil jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62.2) (eff. 1/1/79) Eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred to two county courts at law, and in all other matters the county court at law and "constitutional" county court have concurrent jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of McLennan County (art. 1970-298b)

County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County (art. 1970-298d) (eff. 1/1/79, or earlier as determined by the county commissioners)

In nineteen instances, the "constitutional" county court and the county court(s) at law have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters:

County Court at Law of Angelina County (art. 1970-355)

In two counties, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except probate and eminent domain, of which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction (eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred out of all "constitutional" county courts by general law in 1971):

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347) (inactive)

County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a)

Six of the county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except probate:

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1 (art. 1970-3)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-16)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-31.1)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 4 (art. 1970-31.1)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 5 (art. 1970-31.2) (eff. 1/1/79)

County Court at Law of Henderson County (art. 1970-366) (inactive as of 1/1/78)

In two counties, the county court and the county court at law have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters except eminent domain:

County Court at Law of Guadalupe County (art. 1970-351)

County Court at Law of Hays County (art. 1970-358)

Two county courts at law were created with the proviso that they and the county court were to have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters, but that no probate cases were to be filed in the county court at law:

County Court No. 1 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342a)

County Court No. 2 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342b)

In four counties, the probate jurisdiction of the county court has been vested in specialized probate courts. Under the provisions of a constitutional amendment adopted in 1973, proceedings in these specialized probate courts are on the record and appeals therefrom are to appropriate court of civil appeals rather than to the district court on trial de novo as is the requirement for probate cases tried in the "constitutional" county courts. The statutes creating six of these probate courts provide that they are to have concurrent probate jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court:

Probate Court of Dallas County (art. 1970-31a)

Probate Court No. 2 of Dallas County (arts. 1970-31a, 1970-31b)

Probate Court No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31c)

Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a)

Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a.2)

Probate Court of Tarrant County (art. 1970-345)

One probate court has concurrent jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court and is to have "primary" responsibility at all times for all mental illness proceedings:

Probate Court No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a.3)

Another specialized probate court, however, has concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters, but only probate cases are to be filed in the probate court:

50

Some county courts at law have been created primarily to handle criminal cases. Most of these (18)

52

are limited to criminal cases, concurrent with the "constitutional" county court:

County Criminal Court of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.10)

County Criminal Court No. 2 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.11)

County Criminal Court No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.12)

County Criminal Court No. 4 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.13)

County Criminal Court No. 5 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.14)

County Criminal Court No. 6 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.15)

County Criminal Court No. 7 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.15)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-96)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-31.11)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.1)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.3)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.3)

County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62a)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62b)

Three county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in criminal matters, and further have sole jurisdiction of appeals from justice of the peace and municipal courts:

County Criminal Court of Appeals of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.20)

County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62c)

County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62d)

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy does not exceed $200 and in criminal misdemeanors where punishment is by fine only not to exceed $200. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries where the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills where the amount does not exceed $150. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In 32 counties, the county court has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in that county:

In two additional counties, the county court at law has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts:

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347) (inactive)

County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County (art. 1970-311b)

The county court in eight counties has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in both civil and criminal matters:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339A)

County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339C)

Finally, one county court at law has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in the county in criminal matters only:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363)

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Municipal courts have original and exclusive jurisdiction over purported violations of city ordinances and concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts over state misdemeanors occurring within the jurisdiction of the municipality where punishment upon conviction is by fine only not to exceed $200.

Trials in all but four municipal courts are not of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo. The municipal courts of Houston, Midland, Sweetwater and Wichita Falls, were created by special statutes as municipal courts of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court on the record perfected in the municipal court.

SUPREME JUDICIAL DISTRICTS (COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS)

The First and Fourteenth Supreme Judicial Districts are coextensive.

The Corpus Christi Court may sit in any county seat within the 13th Supreme Judicial District.

ADMINISTRATIVE JUDICIAL DISTRICTS

Article 200a, V.A.C.S., establishes nine administrative judicial districts in the State for administrative purposes. In each such district an active or retired district judge or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience on a district court serves as the Presiding Judge upon appointment by the Governor.

The Presiding Judge convenes an annual conference of the judges in the administrative district to consult on the state of business in the courts. The conference is empowered to adopt rules for the administration of cases in the district. The Presiding Judge may assign active or retired district judges residing within the administrative district to any of the district courts within the administrative district. The Presiding Judge of one administrative district may request the Presiding Judge of another administrative district to assign district judges of that district to sit in the district court located in the administrative district of the Presiding Judge making the request.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas convenes an annual conference of the nine Presiding Judges to determine the need for assignment of judges, and to promote the uniform administration of the assignment of judges. The Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative district for service in another whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

APPELLATE COURTS

S.J.R. 18, voted on November 8, 1977, creates a nine-member Court of Criminal Appeals which may sit and decide cases in three-judge panels, the designation thereof to be under rules established by the Court. The Court must sit en banc for capital punishment cases. The Court is empowered to appoint Commissioners as provided by law. The writ of power of the Court is increased to include mandamus, procedendo, prohibition and certiorari for the purpose of protecting its jurisdiction or enforcing its judgments. The two present permanent commissioners of the Court become two of the new judges, and the Governor appoints the other two judges from among qualified persons on or after January 1, 1978. (art. V, sec. 1,4,5, Const.)

S.J.R. 45, to be voted on November 7, 1978, would allow the legislature to increase the membership of courts of civil appeals and authorize them to sit in sections. (art. V, sec. 6, Const.)

H.B. 1355 is anticipatory implementing legislation for S.J.R. 45. Upon adoption of S.J.R. 45 by voters, the First and the Fourteenth (Houston) and the Fifth (Dallas) Courts would each consist of one Chief Justice and five Associate Justices. Effective January 1, 1983, the Second (Fort Worth) Court is similarly increased. The courts may sit in panels of not less than three. When the courts are increased, the new justices draw lots for terms of office. (art. 1812)

Another section of the bill provides that a justice of a court of civil appeals may be assigned temporarily to another court of civil appeals by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court regardless of whether a vacancy exists in the court of civil appeals to which he is assigned. A qualified retired justice may be assigned to a court of civil appeals for active service regardless of whether a vacancy exists.

JUDICIAL RETIREMENT

S.B. 12 lowers the service requirement from 24 to 20 years for judicial retirement regardless of age. (Section 4 of Article 6228b, V.A.T.S.) EFF. 5-20-77 (art. 6228b)

S.B. 343 allows an additional 10% benefit for judges who retired at or before age 70 and are serving as presiding judges of administrative judicial districts. EFF. 8-29-77 (art. 6228b)

S.B. 949 provides that the compensation a retired judge receives while on assignment to a court or while serving as a commissioner to the Court of Criminal Appeals is retirement allowance and is not to be construed as salary or remuneration for service. EFF. 8-29-77 (art. 6228b)

H.B. 617 provides a system for persons to receive retirement benefits from more than one statewide retirement system, including the Judicial Retirement System. EFF. 1-1-78 (art. 6228k)

S.B. 609 permits retired appellate and district judges to conduct marriage ceremonies. EFF. 8-29-77 (art. 1269m)

JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION

S.J.R. 30, voted on November 8, 1977, changes the name of the Judicial Qualifications Commission to the Commission on Judicial Conduct and adds one citizen (appointed by the Governor) and one justice of the peace (appointed by the Supreme Court) to its membership. The Commission is empowered to suspend a judge upon indictment and to recommend suspension to the Supreme Court in other instances. The powers of a master are strengthened. The Commission may issue a public reprimand or censure and the Supreme Court is empowered to prohibit a removed judge from holding judicial office in the future. The resolution empowers the legislature to diminish the confidentiality of the Commission's proceedings and allows the Commission to issue public statements at any time concerning cases of notoriety. A case against a justice of the Supreme Court will be heard by a 7-member panel of judges of courts of civil appeals. (art. V, sec. 1-a, Const.)

S.B. 365 changes the name of the Judicial Qualifications Commission to the Commission on Judicial Conduct and strengthens the power of a master in compelling testimony. EFF. 8-29-77 (art. 5966a)

COURT ADMINISTRATION

S.B. 192 creates the state Office of Court Administration to assist the Supreme Court and Chief Justice in administrative matters. It directs the Supreme Court to promulgate rules of administration and to appoint an administrative director of the courts who shall serve under the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice and as an additional duty of office, shall also serve as executive director of the Texas Judicial Council. As a duty of office the administrative director is directed to consult with various court administrative officers to encourage a more efficient operation of the Texas judicial system and to aid judges, clerks and court coordinators in this regard. This bill makes no changes in Article 200a which provides for the administrative judicial districts and the presiding judges thereof. The bill specifically prohibits any infringement upon the judicial discretion of any judge, does not limit authority of any court to appoint clerical personnel, and does not authorize a judge to act in a case of which his court would not have potential jurisdiction. EFF. 4-5-77 (art. 2328b)

H.B. 828 directs the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to deliver a "state of the judiciary" message at the commencement of each regular session of the legislature. EFF. 8-29-77 (art. 5429h)

S.B. 1164 allows the assignment of a retired district or domestic relations judge by the presiding judge of the administrative district in which he resides to a court outside that administrative district and allows assignment of retired district judges to domestic relations or special juvenile courts. EFF. 8-29-77 (art. 200a)

H.B. 609 allows the assignment under Article 200a of "former" district judges, who have not been removed from office, who are not more than 70 years of age and who agree to the prohibition of practice of law as do retired judges subject to assignment. EFF. 8-29-77 (art. 200a)

S.B. 65, amending Article 200a, V.A.T.S., makes it the duty of a district judge "to diligently discharge the administrative responsibilities of office [and] to rule on a case within three months after that case has been taken under advisement." The bill also makes it a duty to request the presiding judge to assign an outside judge for election contests, suits to remove local officials and motions to recuse the regular judge. RECENT ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

Selected Opinions Affecting Court Operations During 1977

The authorization for the rendition of advisory opinions by the Attorney General is found in Section 22 of Article IV of the Texas Constitution and has been more specifically defined in Article 4399, V.A.T.S. This is a quasi-judicial function, Glimpse v. Bexar County, 160 S. W. 2d 996 (Tex. Civ. App. San Antonio 1942, writ ref'd), and while the opinions do not have the force of law, they are entitled to be given considerable weight in determining proper construction of statutes. City of Houston v. Southern Pac. Transp. Co. 504 S. W. 2d 554 (Tex. Civ. App. Houston [14th] 1973, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

JUDGES

H-1021 July 5, 1977. A former district judge is eligible for assignment as a special judge if he fulfills certain requirements under article 200a, V.T.C.S., without regard to whether or not he is presently eligible for retirement. A former district judge, not yet retired, who is assigned as a special judge under the provisions of article 200a, accrues additional creditable service toward retirement during the period of such assignment.

H-1006 June 1, 1977. When the judge of a county court at law has disqualified himself from presiding in a misdemeanor case, and the county attorney is himself disqualified from participating in the selection of a special judge, the county commissioners court should appoint a special judge to hear the case.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE

H-1069 October 11, 1977. A justice of the peace may move his residence to a different precinct within the county without vacating his office.

H-1088 November 9, 1977. A county may not combine its justice precincts so that there are only two justice precincts in the county.

H-1099 November 30, 1977. Harris County justices of the peace are not required by section 6 of article 1200ff, V.T.C.S. to publish semi-annual status reports because the caption of the bill which enacted the statute indicated it would apply only to the city of Fort Worth.

VENUE

H-1026

July 21, 1977. Article 45.22, Code of Criminal Procedure, controls the venue of actions in justice precinct courts in counties over 225,000. Its provisions are mandatory, and thus, an officer should file a speeding case under State law in the precinct in which the alleged offense occurs. A case filed in the wrong precinct should be dismissed. A magistrate who refuses to observe the provisions of article 45.22 is subject to fine under that article, and a corrupt and willful violation of article 45.22 could constitute official misconduct and subject the magistrate to removal. Attorney General Opinions C-602 (1966); V-496 (1948); and O-6940 (1945) are overruled.

COURT REPORTERS AND ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANTS

H-1003 May 27, 1977. The 156th Judicial District Court may be provided with a deputy court reporter or an administrative assistant, or both, and the salaries for such personnel may be budgeted and paid by the counties comprising the 156th Judicial District.

JURIES

H-982 April 18, 1977. Harris' County must pay jurors from its jury fund, and not from a separate fund entrusted to the district clerk. The county treasurer must sign jury checks, and he is the proper person to deliver checks to jurors.

H-1076 October 24, 1977. While Jordan v. Crudgington remains unaltered, juries of twelve persons appear to be required in the Dallas County Courts at Law. We caution, however, that major changes in the law of the federal government and other states since the time of Jordan suggests the possibility that the Texas Supreme Court may reexamine Jordan if the issue is presented to it.

SELECTED RECENT COURT DECISIONS

Affecting Court Operations

During 1977

JUDGES

The disqualification of a judge, arising from a constitutional or statutory provision, to preside over the trial of a case affects jurisdiction and cannot be waived. The judgment rendered is a nullity, is void, and subject even to collateral attack.

The mere fact that one was a district or county attorney when a criminal case was pending in a court in that county does not ipso facto disqualify one as a judge to preside over the trial of that case. If, on the other hand, one participated in any manner in preparing or investigating the case when he was in office, he would be counsel for State. Lee v. State, 555 S.W.2d 121 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

There cannot be a de facto judge when there is a de jure judge in actual performance of duties of office.

A home rule city ordinance providing for the appointment of additional temporary ("alternate") municipal judges is void for conflict with article 1196(a). RCS, in contravention of article 11, section 5, Texas Constitution. The appointment of R.A.H. (who signed search warrant in this case) and others to such office is void in that there would have been four municipal judges in the city.

Two persons cannot, at same time, be in actual occupation and exercise of an office for which law provides only one incumbent. Thus, an officer de jure and an officer de facto cannot be in possession of the same office at the same time. Nor can two different officers de facto be in an office for which the law provides only one incumbent. French v. State, 546 S.W.2d 612 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

A person arrested when a magistrate is unavailable can be detained until magistrate's normal working hours without violating the statutory requirement of an appearance "immediately" or "without unreasonable delay." Hokr v. State, 545 S.W.2d 463 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

The salary of the justices of the peace of precinct 2 of Tyler County was $400/month from January 9, 1973 to October 25, 1973 and thereafter was $50/month. The plaintiff took office on January 2, 1975 and sued defendant for the difference between $50/month and $400/month. The trial court entered a judgment for the defendant. Held: Reversed and remanded. Article 3912K, section 1, RCS, gave commissioners courts the power to set salaries. In no event, however, could salaries be set lower than those existing at the effective date of act, which, for article 3912k, was January 1, 1972. Article 3912k was amended to include justices of the peace effective May 25, 1973. The salary of the justice of the peace of precinct 2 was $400/month on May 25, 1973. The salary could not be set lower than it was on that date. Broom v. Tyler County Commissioners Court, 560 S.W.2d 435 (Tex. Civ. App. Beaumont 1977)

COURTS

Two judges of court of civil appeals recuse themselves in this case because of previous experience with the parties and the matter in controversy. Held: A court of civil appeals does not have power to transfer a case on its own authority under article 1819, RCS, and Rule 385a because nothing on appeal requires immediate action. Consequently, the court of civil appeals certifies to the Supreme Court that two justices have recused themselves so that the Supreme Court may determine whether good cause exists for transferring case to another court of civil appeals. Willis v. North Dallas Bank and Trust Co., 552 S.W.2d 518 (Tex. Civ. App.-Dallas 1977)

The admission into evidence at the defendant's county court trial de novo (from a justice of the peace court conviction) of co-defendant's guilty pleas at the justice of the peace court trial was prejudicial error. In a trial de novo in a county court, the evidence must be heard and the verdict and the judgment rendered in accordance with the law in the superior court. Tidwell v. State, 547 S.W.2d 34 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

A complaint filed in a justice of the peace court will not toll the running of the statute of limitations in a felony case. The justice of the peace court had authority to take a complaint and issue a warrant of arrest, but it did not have jurisdiction of a felony offense so as to come within the ambit of article 12.05, Code of Criminal Procedure. Ex parte Ward, 560 S.W.2d 660 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

The commissioners court of a county may provide facilities for justice of the peace courts at a location other than at courthouse for a justice of the peace whose precinct includes courthouse. While article 2370b, RCS, did not expressly repeal article 2379, there is a positive repugnance between provisions, and later expressions of legislative intent (article 2370b) must control. Esquivel v. Reeves, 555 S.W.2d 152 (Tex. Civ. App.-El Paso 1977)

JURIES

After conviction in a Texas constitutional court and exhaustion of state remedies on the claim of racial discrimination in the selection of the grand jury that indicted him, defendant filed this federal habeas corpus petition. Held: 5th Circuit holding of denial of equal protection is affirmed. Defendant's evidence (including 1970 census figures showing 79.1% of county's population to be Mexican-American and figures showing that only 39% of the persons summoned for grand jury duty during 11-year period were Mexican-American) established a prima facie case of discrimination. The state did not present evidence that explained the statistical disparity. The evidence was largely about selection of jury commissioners. There was no evidence about how commissioners chose the members of the list from which grand jurors were drawn. The fact that the "governing majority" in the county was Mexican-American does not dispel the presumption of purposeful discrimination under the circumstances of this case and is of questionable relevance. The court rejects the presumption that "human beings of one definable group will not discriminate against other members of their group." Under the facts in the record, the "governing majority" theory is not developed fully enough to satisfy the state's burden of rebuttal. Castaneda, Sheriff v. Partida, 524 F2d 481 (1975)

In multiple-party cases, article 2151a, RCS, does not require, as a matter of law, that each side, after alignment, be entitled to the same number of peremptory challenges as allowed the opposite side. The parties to a multiple-party lawsuit may confer in making peremptory challenges, and this was not changed by passage of article 2151a, RCS. However, where there are multiple parties and they are permitted to collaborate prior to exercising their peremptory challenges, the fact that they will confer with each other should be taken into consideration by the trial judge in equalizing the number of peremptory challenges in accordance with the ends of justice so that no party is given an unequal advantage because of the number of peremptory challenges allowed that party. This matter is left to the discretion of the trial judges since the Legislature, in enacting the statute, did not state that following proper alignment each side would have the same number of peremptory challenges. King v. Maldonado, 552 S.W.2d 940 (Tex. Civ. App.-Corpus Christi 1977, writ ref'd n.r.e.)

The grand jury indictment moots an appeal from the denial of an injunction to enjoin the state from taking criminal proceedings before a grand jury prior to the time that the appellant had an examining trial in which she was permitted to produce certain witnesses. Perez v. State, ____ S.W.2d ____ (Tex. Civ. App.-San Antonio 1977)

JURISDICTION

The defendant plead guilty in July 1975, to the possession of marijuana. His sentence was suspended, and he was placed on probation subject to conditions that included requirements that he pay court costs (including an attorney's fee for the court-appointed attorney) and that he submit his person, place of residence, and vehicle to search and seizure at any time of day or night, with or without a search warrant. The defendant objected to these conditions, but he did not appeal at that time. In November 1975, the defendant filed a motion to modify the conditions of probation, asking that these two conditions be stricken. The trial court denied the motion, and the defendant appealed. Held: There is neither constitutional nor statutory authority that would confer jurisdiction on the Court of Criminal Appeals to hear either a purported appeal entered pursuant to article 42.12, section 6, Code of Criminal Procedure, altering or modifying probationary conditions or an order, as here, refusing to alter or modify conditions. However, the facts raise a proper habeas corpus issue and fall within the habeas corpus jurisdiction of the Court of Criminal Appeals. The imposition of conditions of probation that contain unconstitutional infringements of freedom of action constitutes a "restraint" within the scope of habeas corpus relief. The proceedings are considered as a habeas corpus proceeding. To dismiss the appeal and require a new and separate habeas corpus application would require a useless thing. Basaldua v. State, 558 S.W.2d 2 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

Section 5, Probate Code, provides that, in counties in which there are statutory probate courts, the statutory court has exclusive jurisdiction over applications, petitions, and motions regarding probate and administration. The section dealing with "matters incident to an estate" applies only to those matters in which the "controlling issue" is settlement, partition, or distribution of an estate. Section 5 does not affect the jurisdiction of the district court over matters considered incident to an estate (such as claims by an estate) when no administration is pending and none is necessary. Sumaruk v. Todd, 560 S.W.2d 141 (Tex. Civ. App.-Tyler 1977)

New family courts have jurisdiction to enforce by contempt proceedings orders of the domestic relations courts they replace. Ex parte West, 559 S.W.2d 674 (Tex. Civ. App.-Dallas 1977)

Since the repeal of section 30, Probate Code, appeal from a probate court to a district court by writ of certiorari is no longer available. Parr v. White, 559 S.W.2d 344 (Tex. 1977)

The Legislature by a 1975 amendment to article 2324, RCS, deprived the court of civil appeals of its original ancillary jurisdiction to decide the question of the reasonableness of a court reporter's fee. City of Ingleside v. Stewart, 554 S.W.2d 939 (Tex. Civ. App.-Corpus Christi 1977)

Article 2324, RCS, is unconstitutional in that it delegates to the judiciary the exclusive compensation-setting function of the Legislature in violation of article II, section 1, and article III, section 44, Texas Constitution. The standards established in article 2324 are too subjective to prevent arbitrary and unequal fees from being charged. The statute also violates article III, section 56, Texas Constitution, since it is incapable of uniform application throughout the state. Consequently, paragraph 3 of the 1961 amendment to article 2324 (prior law) remains in effect. This will permit court reporters to charge $.30 per 100 words for preparing the original transcript of testimony. In addition, they may make a reasonable charge for postage, reproduction of exhibits, and other actual expenses. In re Johnston, 554 S.W.2d 775 (Tex. Civ. App.-Corpus Christi 1977)

JUDGMENTS

The jury returned a guilty verdict on October 4. 1974. The punishment hearing was held on September 15, 1975. After evidence was introduced, the court stated "it is the sentence of this court" that the defendant serve 5-7 years (later reduced to 2-7 years) for murder with malice. Held: Appeal dismissed with direction to enter judgment. The punishment of the defendant, a necessary element of the judgment, was first determined and announced during the sentencing of the defendant, and no valid judgment was ever announced. The sentence must be based on a valid judgment, for without a valid judgment, the court is not authorized to sentence the defendant. A judgment and a sentence are not the same thing but are distinct and independent. Conaway v. State, 549 S.W.2d 181 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

A letter from the trial judge addressed to the attorneys of record was not the proper method for entry of summary judgment. However, the final judgment, which did not mention the parties' motion for summary judgment, which did not dispose of such summary judgments by direct language, but which awarded damages to the plaintiff, impliedly made all findings necessary to support the judgment, including the liability issues. Frank v. Kuhnreick, 546 S.W.2d 844 (Tex. Civ. App.-San Antonio 1977, writ ref'd n.r.e.)

The Texas recoupment scheme granting the trial court discretion to require, as a condition of probation, that a convicted defendant repay the county for providing him with court-appointed counsel, is constitutional Liability can be imposed only on a convicted defendant. Probation may not be revoked for failure to pay these costs unless the state shows that probationer was able to make such payments and that his failure to do so was intentional. While there is no provision for remission of costs, the probationer can petition the court to modify the conditions of probation (thus giving an opportunity for the probationer who is financially unable to pay costs to call his hardship to the court's attention and to have this condition modified or eliminated). Revocation is improper if the petitioner establishes that he is unable to make such payment. Basaldua v. State, 558 S.W.2d 2 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

The defendant filed a request for the judge to assess the punishment in a misdemeanor case and objected to the submission of punishment to jury that had assessed guilt. The judge persisted in submitting the question of punishment to the jury. Held: Reversed and remanded as to punishment. The defendant did not invoke the statutory right afforded by article 37.07, Code of Criminal Procedure, to have jury assess the punishment. It was the responsibility of the judge to assess the punishment, and the trial court was without authority to deny the defendant's request to have the court assess it. Gibson v. State, 549 S.W.2d 741 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

The trial court instructed the jury at penalty stage of bifurcated DWI trial that they must assess both a fine and jail time. It also instructed the jury on the law of misdemeanor probation. By verdict forms attached to the court's charge, the court authorized the jury to assess jail time and probate the fine, assess a fine and probate the jail time, or probate both fine and jail time. The jury assessed jail time and recommended probation as to the fine assessed. The court accepted such a verdict and entered judgment and sentence as to jail time. Held: Reversed. In authorizing a jury to probate either fine or jail time and to exact from defendant that portion of the penalty not probated, the court fell into error. Article 42.13, Code of Criminal Procedure, does not contemplate such a procedure. A jury may recommend probation or not, but if it recommends probation then the penalty assessed (whether fine, jail term, or both a fine and jail term) must be probated. Taylor v. State, 549 S.W.2d 722 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

RECORD ON APPEAL

When the time for filing matters under article 40.09 (3), (6), (9), and (10), Code of Criminal Procedure, has expired, the trial court has authority to see that such items are filed. Provisions of article 40.09(16), Code of Criminal Procedure, notwithstanding, the trial court has a duty under the Texas and United States Constitutions to provide an indigent defendant with an adequate record on appeal and with effective assistance of counsel on appeal. A court reporter is an employee of the trial court, and the trial court has ample authority to require such reporter to file a transcript of his notes in a timely fashion. If the court reporter neglects or refuses to do his duties, the trial court can order him to do so within a specified period of time. If the court reporter refuses to comply with the trial court's order, the court can issue another order requiring the court reporter to show cause why he should not be held in contempt. If all else fails, the trial court can dismiss the court reporter from employment.

If the court-appointed counsel fails to file a brief in the appellant's behalf under article 40.09(9), Code of Criminal Procedure, the trial court can issue an order commanding the counsel to file the brief within a specified period of time. If no brief is filed within that time, the trial court can issue an order requiring the counsel to show cause why he should not be held in contempt. The trial court can then also report the counsel to the appropriate grievance committee for disciplinary action. In the alternative, the trial judge can relieve an appointed attorney who has not fulfilled his duties to his client and can appoint an attorney who will act as an advocate to represent the indigent on appeal. The trial court can also see that recalcitrant attorneys receive no further appointments to represent indigents in that court.

Since the trial court ordered the court reporter to prepare and file the transcript of her notes on February 23, 1976, the reporter has had more than 18 months in which to comply with the trial court's order. However, the court reporter has yet to file a transcript of her notes with the clerk of the trial court. Held: Appeal abated. It is ordered that the court reporter shall prepare, complete, and file with the clerk of the trial court a transcript of her notes within 15 days after the delivery of this opinion. Failure to comply with this order is grounds for contempt proceedings in the Court of Criminal Appeals under article 1911a, RCS. Guillory v. State, 557 S.W.2d 118 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

When the time to file a brief under article 40.09, section 9, Code of Criminal Procedure, has expired, the trial court still has the authority to require counsel to file a brief even though article 40.09, section

16, requires extension of time to be sought from the Court of Criminal Appeals and not the trial court, contrary to former practice. The trial court has a duty under the Texas and United States Constitutions to provide an appellant with effective assistance of counsel on appeal. This assistance, however, cannot be afforded without requiring that the counsel file a brief on appellant's behalf. The trial court has control over the case until the record reaches the Court of Criminal Appeals. Even though a late brief is filed, the trial court can grant a new trial. If the court refuses to grant a new trial after a late brief has been filed and the record has been forwarded to the Court of Criminal Appeals, then the Court of Criminal Appeals will determine if the brief will be considered on appeal, giving the trial court an opportunity to pass upon grounds raised in the brief before it reaches the Court of Criminal Appeals. Yates v. State, 557 S.W.2d 115 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

The appellant's attorney had the record in time to file in the court of civil appeals, but he withheld filing to obtain the maximum time to file brief. Appellant's attorney miscalculated the time for filing the appeal by one day, and since the 60th day fell on a Friday, the record was tendered on the 63rd day. Held: The explanation was reasonable within the ambit of Rule 21c, and the appeal is ordered filed. The court of civil appeals expressly overrules its prior opinion in Sloan v. Passman, 536 S.W.2d 575, and adopts the view expressed by Chief Justice Guittard in his dissent therein. A reasonable explanation under Rule 21c is any plausible statement of circumstances indicating that failure to file within the 60-day period was not deliberate or intentional but was the result of inadvertence, mistake, or mischance. This is the standard applicable to the avoidance of default judgments enunciated by the Supreme Court in Craddock v. Sunshine Bus Lines, 133 S.W.2d 124. Only the time after appellant receives the transcript is material and requires explanation. The explanation of delay in ordering the transcript would be necessary only if it prevented appellant from obtaining it in time for filing on the 60th day. The court of civil appeals does not construe the term reasonable explanation as giving the court of civil appeals absolute discretion to permit late filing as was held in Hildyward v. Fannel Studio, Inc. United States Fire Ins. Co. v. Stricklin, 556 S.W.2d 575 (Tex. Civ. App.-Dallas 1977)

After a habeas corpus hearing, bail was reduced from $70,000 to $40,000 (under indictment for aggravated robbery), the defendant gave notice of appeal. The record is before the Court of Criminal Appeals without a transcript of the court reporter's notes. Held: Appeal abated and the clerk of the trial court is directed to prepare a complete record. Article 44.34, Code of Criminal Procedure, is mandatory and requires that testimony at the hearing be included in the record on appeal. Prior cases placing the burden of obtaining a transcript of the court reporter's notes on defendant (and affirming appeal when no such transcript appeared in the record) are overruled. (15 specific cases are listed in the opinion as being among those overruled.) No want of diligence may be attributed to defendant, and he may not be denied a full review on appeal for some third party's failure to act. Exparte Sims, ____S.W.2d ____ (1977)

The trial court rendered a default judgment granting the wife a divorce and appointing her managing conservator of the minor child. The husband did not file pleadings or appear in person or by counsel. Neither party requested the official court reporter to be present. The husband could not secure a statement of facts when he brought the case to the court of civil appeals for a review by writ of error. Held: Judgment for wife reversed and cause remanded for new trial. The Supreme Court has jurisdiction because, the court of civil appeals holding affirming trial court judgment is in conflict with Smith v. Smith, 544 S.W.2d 121 (Texas 1976). The facts in this case, as in Smith, disclose that the husband's right to proper appellate review can be preserved only by new trial. (Smith did not rest on the requirement formerly imposed by article 2324, RCS, that the official court reporter attend and report all trials or on the section 11.14(d), Family Code, requirement that a record be made in parentchild relationship cases unless waived by the parties with the court's consent. Rogers v. Rogers, 549 S.W. 2d 471 (Tex. Civ. App.-Austin, 1977)

Since the amendment to article 2324, RCS, a party is bound by the trial court's statement of facts no matter how dissatisfied if the party failed to request that a court reporter be present at the trial and if an agreement from the adversary on the statement of facts cannot be obtained. Glass v. O'Hearn, 553 S.W.2d 15 (Tex. Civ. App.-Fort Worth 1977)

MISCELLANEOUS

A peace officer may take bail in a misdemeanor case before the accused is formally charged.

Since article 17.20, Code of Criminal Procedure, authorizes the sheriff or other peace officer to take bail in misdemeanor cases, article 17.15 compels the conclusion that such an officer is also to regulate the amount of bail in such cases. However, the officer's authority to set the amount of bail should be limited to situations in which no magistrate is available, or arrests pursuant to a warrant in which the proper magistrate (as specified in article 15.16, Code of Criminal Procedure) is unavailable. A bond, once given, may bind the defendant throughout the criminal proceeding to appear before any magistrate or court when required. Hokr v. State, 545 S.W.2d 463 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

The defendant plead guilty before the court and waived a jury. The evidence clearly raises the issue of self-defense. Held: Reversed. The rule was and is that, when evidence introduced before a jury (when the defendant entered guilty plea) makes the defendant's innocence evident - or reasonably and fairly raises an issue as to such fact — and such evidence is not withdrawn, the trial court is required sua sponte to withdraw the defendant's guilty or nolo contendere plea and enter a not guilty plea for the defendant. The rule has been, and continues to be, recognized and applied when a guilty or nolo contendere plea was before the court without a jury. The rule is also applicable to a probation revocation proceeding where, as in a guilty plea before the court, the trial judge is the trier of the facts and the judge of the credibility of the witnesses and of weight to be given their testimony. Moon v. State, ___ S.W.2d ___ (Tex. Crim. App. 1977) #54,352

The defendant did not understand the English language during the trial at which he was convicted. An interpreter was not present during many phases of the trial and was asked to interpret only while the defendant was on the stand and when the defendant was asked to change the plea. The interpreter, in his affidavit, stated: 1) that he felt bound to express to the defendant only what he was directed to by defendant's attorney: 2) that the defendant appeared confused and in state of mental shock all during trial; and 3) that he did not believe that the defendant thoroughly understood exactly what was transpiring. Held: Writ of habeas corpus granted. The defendant was denied the right of confrontation of witnesses at his original trial because he was not afforded an interpreter throughout the proceedings. Ex parte Nanes. 558 S.W.2d 893 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

If the defendant found to be indigent and entitled to appointed counsel on appeal has sufficient funds to cover the cost of transcription of the court reporter's notes, then it is the defendant's responsibility to secure the transcript. If the funds are not sufficient to pay the full cost of the transcript, the county should be ordered to pay the balance. Ex parte Combs, 545 S.W.2d 171 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977)

EXPENDITURES AND REVENUES TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM

Almost $150 million were spent to operate the Judicial System of Texas in 1976. This report explores those expenditures and the revenue produced by the courts.

FINANCING THE TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM

The Judicial System of the State of Texas is financed by a combination of funds appropriated by state, county and municipal governments, as is the case in many other states. In addition to these appropriations, certain federal funding sources (primarily the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration) are utilized for special projects for the courts and judicial agencies. The state government is the main source of funds for the appellate courts, while state, counties and cities provide funds for the trial courts. The responsibility for funding state judicial agencies and the Judicial Retirement System rests with the state government.

JUDICIAL EXPENDITURES

STATE EXPENDITURES*
F.Y. 1976

*State Funded Portion of the Judicial Budget

Revenue generated by the courts in fines, bond forfeitures, filing fees and assorted court costs accrue to the level of government responsible for the basic operating costs of the courts. While a small portion of these revenues is dedicated to specific uses, the majority is available for general expenditure.

STATE GOVERNMENT — EXPENDITURES

The basic salaries of all state court judges are paid from the state's general revenue fund. Most appellate court support personnel and operating expenses are state funded. In addition, the state appropriates funds to the Judicial Retirement System and state judicial agencies.

The state allocated 0.29 percent of the total 1976 state appropriations, or $17,262,504, to the maintenance of the courts.

The approximate distribution of funds from the state for the judiciary is shown in Chart 2, including the Judicial Retirement System, which is not funded under the Judicial Article of the Appropriations Act.

ALLOCATION OF STATE FUNDS - FOR THE JUDICIARY F.Y. 1976

The decade 1968-1977 witnessed a large increase in both total state expenditures and state expenditures for the judiciary. Total state expenditures increased from $2,386,083,269 in 1968 to $6,130,665,725 in 1977, an increase of 157 percent. During the same period, state judicial expenditures increased from $7,189,549 to $17,961,344, an increase of 150 percent. A substantial portion of this increase is accounted for by judicial salaries:

	'68	'77
Supreme Court & Court of Criminal Appeals
Chief Justice and Presiding Judge	27,000	47,900
Justices & Judges	27,000	47,400
Courts of Civil Appeals
Chief Justices	24,000	42,300
Justices	24,000	41,800
District Judges	182@18,000	230@32,800

The percentage of the total state budget used to finance the judiciary has remained fairly constant—0.30 percent in 1968 and 0.29 percent in 1977.

COUNTY GOVERNMENTS - EXPENDITURES

Some counties pay a salary supplement to the justices of the courts of civil appeals and to the judges of the district courts in which the county is located. Counties furnish support personnel and operating funds to the district courts and provide all operating costs for the county courts, county courts at law, justice of the peace courts, county clerks, district clerks, county law libraries and prosecutors' offices, other than that provided by state appropriation.

The counties surveyed in this report allocated 27.34 percent of their total 1976 budgets, or $113,321,996 out of a total of $414,462,773, to the courts and court-related agencies.

The approximate division of this $113 million in county budgets for the judiciary is shown in Chart 4.

ALLOCATION OF COUNTY FUNDS BUDGETED FOR THE COURTS 1976

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENTS — EXPENDITURES

The cities in Texas have full responsibility for funding the municipal courts. These courts range from the 24-judge, $2 million-budget City of Houston court to numerous village courts paying token salaries to parttime judges who hear cases infrequently.

The statewide estimates derived from the survey described elsewhere in this article show that the cities of Texas allocated 0.65 percent of their total 1976 budgets, or around $19 million out of a total of almost $3 billion to operation of the municipal courts.

REVENUES V. EXPENDITURES (TABLE I)

A total of almost $150 million was expended by all levels of government for the operation of the courts during 1976. Of this total, 76 percent was by the county governments, 12 percent by the state (not including the Judicial Retirement System) and the remaining 12 percent by the city governments. (Chart 6)

A total of $123 million in revenue was generated by all courts in the state during 1976, including fines, bond forfeitures, filing fees and assorted court costs. These revenues accrue to the level of government which bears the financial responsibility for the operations of that level of court which generates the revenue. While a small portion of these revenues is devoted to specific uses, most of the money is placed in the general treasury of that unit of government.

Virtually all of the revenue generated by the courts presently accrues to local governments, with municipalities collecting about 54 percent and counties most of the balance.

Municipalities are the only level of government which collects more in revenue from courts than it expends on their operation. On the average, municipal courts produce almost four dollars of revenue for every dollar spent, with most of the money coming from parking and traffic fines.

^{*}Excess of Expenses over Revenues

SOURCES OF FINANCIAL DATA

The state of Texas provides funds for the court system through the judicial article of the state Appropriations Bill. The appropriated amounts are treated as expenses for the purposes of this report because they are designated for certain areas and must be spent as such. The 1975 Appropriations Bill, Judicial Article, provided appropriated amounts for 1976.

The judicial article itemizes appropriations to the appellate courts, the state agencies and offices, the district courts and specific counties. The funds provided to the counties are (1) for the assumption of the duties of the district attorney's office by the county attorney and the criminal district attorney and (2) fees and salaries paid to sheriffs, attorneys and clerks for duties related to felony cases. For the purpose of this report, these funds have been listed as expenses at the district

The county budget is the most complete source of information on the funds provided to the courts by the county. The county budgets are filed with the Comptroller's Office in Austin by each county. All but seven county budgets were obtained from this source or directly from the counties.

Financial data on municipal courts were obtained from a special survey sent to 1,082 cities, towns and villages. Complete responses were received from 58% of the cities in Texas which are estimated to have municipal courts. Since the respondants were fairly well spread over the range of large and small cities, the totals obtained from the questionnaire were multiplied by 1.72 to arrive at a statewide estimate.

PROBLEMS OF DATA COLLECTION

The expenditures and revenues included in this report are only those designated as being applicable to the court system. In all cases, capital expenditures, building maintenance, utility expenses and janitorial expenses have been excluded. In cases where adequate detail was available, court costs, expenses of pre-trial release, bail bond and the tax collection expenses of the district and county attorney's offices were also excluded. Revenues include all fees and fines of court-related office, trial fees, jury fees, bond forfeitures and income from certified copies and exclude interest income on deposits.

The most frequent problem in collecting data from county budgets is the lack of itemized expenses and revenues. In most cases, benefits for all county employees were combined into one sum. The courtrelated portion could not be determined and benefits, therefore, were excluded from the report. Frequently, benefits of one level of court were combined into one figure. In those cases, the benefits were listed under Support Personnel which explains why the benefits of this category are greater proportionately than any other office. The report lists benefits where and as they occurred in the budgets although they are estimated to be 15% of salaries. When itemized. benefits include social security, withholding tax, group insurance and retirement.

In some instances, the expenses of an office were combined rather than itemized according to salaries, benefits, operating expense and travel. For purposes of the report, the total amount was included under the heading, Other Expense. Allocation by court level was not always available. In the case of jury expenses, two-thirds of the total were listed in the category "Unallocated by Level," Other Expense.

The fees of indigent defense attorneys, or court-appointed attorneys, were often difficult to distinguish from attorneys paid to represent the counties.

Fees paid to the members of the Probation Board were recognized as additional fees paid to the district judge for service on the board and were, therefore, included in the district-level salaries section.

In many cases, the salaries and expenses of the district and county clerks, and also the district and county attorneys were combined. This grouping is sometimes an accounting procedure but most often it represents a situation where one officer handles the duties of both offices. In these cases, the combined figures were presented in the district level.

Occasionally, fees and fines of court-related offices were combined with non-court-related offices into one sum. In these cases, the court portion of the total fees and fines in the eight most populous counties were determined and the percentage (47%) was applied to the total for each county. It was still not possible to allocate these revenues to specific levels so they were listed as "Unallocated by Level," Other Revenues. This category contains a substantial portion of the revenues generated by the courts.

The expenses of district and county clerks' offices in 1976 were $32,050,000 or 22.83% of the total county budgets. The clerks have responsibilities other than those related to the judiciary making only a portion of their revenues and expenses applicable to the courts. The court-related portion is estimated to be 20% of revenues and 30% of expenses. The effect of applying this allocation factor to the expenses of the clerks' offices state-wide is a 16% reduction. This is a significant reduction and should be noted when the amount of total expenses is considered.

STATISTICS AND ANALYSIS OF COURT ACTIVITY

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least two factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated or lengthy cases.

2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities as a result of their position in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of the state. It is composed of the Chief Justice and eight associate justices.

A record number of applications for writs of error were filed in the Supreme Court during 1977. Seven hundred sixty-six applications were filed, compared to 693 in 1976—an increase of 11 percent and 20 percent higher than the ten-year average of 638. In 1977, 103 new "regular causes"—primarily cases in which the Court hears oral argument and delivers an opinion—reached the docket, compared to 111 in 1976 and the ten-year average of 100. New civil mandamus matters remained practically the same—86 in 1976 and 88 in 1977 but criminal mandamus matters decreased 11 percent—from 171 to 153 in 1977.

In 1977, the Supreme Court disposed of 78 percent of the regular causes docketed during 1977 or carried over from 1976, the same percentage as in 1976. Eighty-one percent of the applications for writs of error were disposed of during the year, compared to 85 percent during 1976.

The Court delivered 84 deciding opinions in 1977 compared to 107 in 1976. A total of 109 opinions was written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 12 per justice.

The Supreme Court disposed of 717 applications for writs of error from decisions of the courts of civil appeals, compared to 667 in 1976, and an average of 80 per justice. Fourteen percent of the 717 applications were granted. Of the granted writs, the Court of Civil Appeals was reversed in 66 percent of the cases for an effective reversal rate of the courts of civil appeals of 6 percent.

Forty-two regular causes were pending at the end of 1977—12 more than at the end of 1976, and 8 cases more than the ten-year average. The number of applications for writs of error remaining on the docket at the end of 1977 was 171—40 percent more than the 122 at the end of 1976 and 63 percent more than the ten-year average of 105.

^{*&}quot;Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. "Regular Causes" are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and derinion, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Civil Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference. Cases other than "Regular Causes" include such actions as the court's rejection in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of "Regular Causes.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and during 1977 was composed of a Presiding Judge, four judges and two permanent commissioners. By a constitutional amendment adopted in November, 1977, the Court is now composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges. In addition, pursuant to Article 1811e, V.A.T.S., five special commissioners served the Court at various times during the year. The special commissioners included two retired judges who assisted throughout the year and three justices from the courts of civil appeals who assisted during January and February, 1977.

The Court of Criminal Appeals faced another record caseload in 1977. The 3,267 new cases docketed in the Court represent a 33 percent increase over the 2,458 cases docketed in 1976 and were 101 percent higher than the ten-year average of 1,625.

A total of 1,396 applications for writs of habeas corpus and mandamus were filed during 1977. One thousand three hundred sixty-one matters were disposed of in 1977, an increase of 27 percent over the 1976 total of 1,092 and 65 percent higher than the tenvear average.

An amendment to Article 40.09, sec. 16, C.C.P., effective May 25, 1977, gave the Court exclusive power to grant extensions of time for the filing of transcriptions of court reporters' notes, bills of exception and briefs in criminal cases. The Court heard and disposed of 1,887 such applications.

In 1977, the Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 57 percent of the cases docketed during the year or carried over from 1976, compared to 67 percent the previous year. Eighty-two percent were disposed of by per curiam opinions, compared to 75 percent in 1976.

Two thousand seven hundred seventy-eight opinions (including dissents and concurrences) were written in 1977, 28 percent more than the 1976 total of 2,177. Twenty-four percent of these were authored opinions.

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision in 74 percent of the cases reviewed and dismissed or abated the appeal in an additional 10 percent.

One thousand nine hundred four docketed cases were pending at the end of 1977 — 77 percent higher than a year earlier and 167 percent higher than the ten-year average of 714.

Based on the service of five judges and four fulltime commissioners, the caseload per judge in the Court of Criminal Appeals was higher than that of the other appellate courts. The number of cases filed per judge or commissioner increased to 363 in 1977 from 273 in 1976.

The intermediate state appellate courts in Texas do not have criminal jurisdiction. As a result, appeals in criminal cases are directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals from the district and county courts. Due to the absence of an intermediate appellate court system for criminal cases, the Court of Criminal Appeals hears cases which in other states would be heard by one or more intermediate courts.

The Court of Criminal Appeals is also burdened by the provision of Article 44.24 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which requires the Court to deliver a written opinion or certificate with citation of supporting authorities in each case it decides. This rule resulted in the five judges and four commissioners of the Court writing an average of 308 opinions each during 1977. In 1976, the average was 242.

COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS

The 14 courts of civil appeals exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil cases. Each court has geographical jurisdiction in a supreme judicial district. Each of the courts has three justices, for a total of 42 intermediate appellate justices in the state.

Cases filed in all the courts of civil appeals during 1977 increased 8 percent over 1976 and were 35 percent higher than the ten-year average. More new cases were filed in 1977 than in 1976 in all but six courts. Of the courts with increased filings, the El Paso court experienced the largest percentage increase — 54 percent (38 cases) — and the First Court in Houston the largest increase in actual number of filings — 44 cases. The Dallas Court continued to receive more new filings than any of the other courts — 346, compared to the average of 141 (Figure 5). The two courts at Houston, each of which have jurisdiction over the same geographical area, received a total of 443 new cases, 25 cases more than in 1976.

In 1977, the courts of civil appeals together disposed of 64 percent of the cases filed during the year or carried over from 1976, the same as the previous year. The 1,898 dispositions were 32 percent higher than the ten-year average of 1,434 and eleven percent higher than 1976's 1,717 dispositions. The Dallas Court had the highest number of dispositions — 181—compared to the average for the 14 courts of 136. All but two of the courts disposed of more cases in 1977 than in 1976.

In 1977, a total of 1,771 opinions were written by the courts of civil appeals, compared to 1,562 in 1976. The Beaumont Court wrote the largest number of opinions.— 163— compared to the average per court of 127 (up from 112 in 1976).

The average number of written opinions per justice for all courts was 42, up from 37 in 1976.

The courts of civil appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 27 percent of the cases disposed, compared to 28 percent in 1976.

At the end of 1977, 1,080 cases remained on the courts of civil appeals dockets for subsequent disposition, a 10 percent increase over the previous year. The number of cases pending at the end of 1977 was 57 percent higher than the ten-year average of 689. Of the 1,080 cases pending December 31, 1977, 194 had been on the docket six to 12 months and 9 had been pending more than a year.

One hundred two cases were pending on the docket of the Dallas Court at the close of the year. The number for the other courts ranged down to 50 at Texarkana. The average number pending for all courts was 77, up from 70 at the end of 1976.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a case in a court of civil appeals and its disposition ranged from 4 1/4 months in the Dallas and Waco Courts to 8 1/4 months in the Amarillo Court. The average for all courts was 6 months, up from 5 1/2 months in 1976.

While the 14 courts of civil appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographical areas, some desirable aspects of unification are achieved by transfer of cases among the courts by order of the Supreme Court pursuant to Article 1738, V.A.T.S. The Supreme Court transferred 415 cases during 1977, 18 percent more than 351 transferred in 1976.

Cases filed, disposed and pending 1968-1977

FILED --- DISPOSED --- PENDING.....

The Dallas Court received the most relief from these transfers: of the 415 cases transferred to other courts (disregarding transfers between the two Houston Courts), 157 were transferred from the Dallas Court. The Eastland and Waco Courts received the most transferred cases — 85 and 101, respectively.

The net result of these transfers for the year 1977 is shown in Figure 4. The workload of the courts after transfers were made is shown by the total bar above the center line. This workload ranged from 97 cases at Amarillo and 98 at Fort Worth to 189 in Dallas and Waco, a range considerably narrower than the range of filings (41 at Tyler to 346 at Dallas).

DISTRICT COURTS

The 284 district, domestic relations and special juvenile courts experienced a five percent increase in new cases filed in 1977—to 356,042 from 338,382 in 1976. The trend of filings is shown by Figure 9.

New civil cases filed increased four percent over 1976 while criminal cases increased six percent and juvenile cases one percent.

Civil cases accounted for 77 percent of the new cases filed in 1977. Almost half of the civil cases filed (45 percent) were for divorce or annulment. Personal injury cases (including workmen's compensation) comprised nine percent and tax cases seven percent of the civil cases filed.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for almost three percent of the total cases filed in district courts.

Criminal cases accounted for 20 percent of the total new cases filed in 1977. Of the criminal cases, 21 percent involved a charge of burglary, 21 percent theft, six percent each robbery and felony D.W.I. and 13 percent drug offenses, including marijuana. Fourteen percent of the criminal cases filed in the district court were by information, the remainder by indictment.

The number of all categories of cases filed in the eight Texas counties with 1970 population over 200,000 increased five percent, the same increase as in all other counties. These eight large population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Jefferson, and Nueces) had 51 percent of the State's population in 1970 and 56 percent of the total cases filed during 1977. Total case filings in the eight counties increased in all but two (Travis and Nueces)—as much as a 16 percent increase in El Paso County and 14 percent in Bexar County.

Considering criminal cases only, filings increased eight percent in the eight urban counties and four percent in all other counties. In the urban counties, the changes from 1976 ranged from an increase of 17 percent in Harris and El Paso Counties to a decrease of 14 percent in Nueces County. Civil case filings also increased in all urban counties but Travis and Nueces—up to an 18 percent increase in Bexar County.

In 1977, the district courts of the state disposed of 48 percent of the total cases on their dockets (filed in 1977 or carried over from 1976)—the same as in 1976. The district courts in the eight counties with population over 200,000 disposed of 53 percent. In all other counties of the state, 43 percent were disposed of. In all counties, 57 percent of the criminal cases and 45 percent of the civil cases on docket were disposed of during the year.

In the eight urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 64 percent, ranging from 72 percent in Tarrant County to 41 percent in El Paso County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 200,000 averaged 49 percent of those on the docket.

Comparable figures for civil cases show an average disposition rate of 49 percent in the eight urban counties and 41 percent in the rest of the state. The range was from 66 percent in Dallas County to 41 percent in Harris County.

An average of 1,219 cases per judge were disposed of in 1977, down from 1,262 in 1976, a decrease of three percent. The dispositions per judge in the eight counties with population over 200,000 decreased from 1,643 to 1,531 (seven percent) while in all other counties increased two percent from 946 in 1976 to 960 in 1977.

Fifty percent of all civil cases were disposed of by non-jury trials. (Seventy-one percent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Fourteen percent were dismissed for want of prosecution and 15 percent at the request of the plaintiff.

Of the 77,303 criminal cases disposed of, in 54 percent the defendant had entered a guilty plea. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 57 percent of the cases and acquitted in 1.2 percent. Thirtynine percent of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of those cases dismissed, 21 percent were because of insufficient evidence and 19 percent because the defendant was convicted in another case. In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not-guilty and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 84 percent of the cases and was acquitted in 16 percent. In trials before the judge alone on non-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 55 percent of the cases and acquittals in 45 percent. The defendant was convicted of a lesser offense than that originally filed in 15 percent of the cases resulting in convictions.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by conviction was the category of Felony D.W.I. with 82 percent of the dispositions being by conviction. The highest rate of disposition by dismissal was in theft (56 percent). Conversely, the lowest rate of dismissal was for Felony D.W.I.—17 percent were dismissed.

Twenty-four death sentences and 584 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during 1977. Nine thousand two hundred ninety-nine persons were committed to the Texas Department of Corrections, 2,828 to local jails and $4,688,900 in fines were assessed.

In the juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in 59 percent of the cases disposed of. The defendant was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in one percent and 39 percent of the dispositions were by dismissal.

Texas courts granted five percent more divorces in 1977 than in 1976. In 1977, 117,539 divorce cases were disposed of—34 percent of all cases handled by district courts. Fifteen percent were dismissed for want of prosecution.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories. Only 26 percent of the tax cases filed in 1977 or carried over from 1976 were disposed of by the district courts in 1977. Of those dispositions, 48 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff and another 23 percent were default judgments.

Thirty-one percent of the personal injury cases ended in agreed judgments and 29 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff.

The total number of cases pending in the district courts at the end of 1977—378,826—was six percent higher than the 357,353 pending at the end of 1976.

Another way to look at the volume of cases pending December 31, 1977, is to assume that no new cases are filed in 1978 and that the district judges dispose of cases at the same rate as during 1977. At that rate, it would take an average of 399 days to dispose of the cases pending at the end of the year. The average for the eight counties with population over 200,000 would be 329 days; for all other counties, 492 days.

COUNTY COURTS

The county clerk in each of Texas' 254 counties is supplied forms by the Judicial Council for reporting the judicial activity in the county-level courts ("constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, probate courts, etc.). For 1977, the clerk in 242 counties reported all twelve months, six others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and six submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 2,954 reports out of a possible 3,048 for the twelve-month period (97 percent).

In terms of numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 66 percent of the 405,273 new cases filed or ap-the county court.

Of the new civil cases docketed, 31 percent were classified as a suit on debt. Eleven percent concerned automobile-related damage suits and 0.4 percent were condemnation actions.

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county courts of the state disposed of 50 percent of the total criminal, civil and juvenile cases on their dockets (filed during 1977 or carried over from 1976). No statistics on the disposition of probate cases are recorded. This disposition rate was highest for criminal cases (52 percent). Forty-three percent of the civil pealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 20 percent and probate 14 percent. New juvenile cases filed were less than one-half percent of the total.

Concerning the criminal cases only, 31 percent (81,441) of those filed or appealed to the county courts from lower courts were for driving while intoxicated. Thirteen percent (34,221) were for worthless checks and nine percent (25,303) for violations of law concerning marijuana possession or delivery.

Again concerning criminal cases only, 18 percent of the cases added to the county court dockets came by way of appeal from justice of the peace or municipal courts rather than being filed originally in cases on the docket were disposed of and 49 percent of the juvenile cases. Within the criminal cases category, 63 percent of the marijuana charges were disposed of but only 39 percent of the worthless check cases were disposed.

Looking at all cases (except probate), the county courts disposed of 345,098 cases, which is 98 percent of the 352,992 cases added to the dockets (excluding probate), up from 92 percent in 1976.

Fifty-three percent of the criminal cases in county courts were disposed of following a plea of guilty or nolo contendere. Thirty-nine percent were dismissed. Trials were held in two percent of the criminal cases,

2,117 before the judge alone and 1,972 before a jury. The highest percentage of dismissals occurred in the worthless check cases—76 percent of the dispositions were by dismissal. Pleas of guilty or nolo contendere accounted for 82 percent of the driving while intoxicated and 73 percent of the marijuana case dispositions.

The methods of disposition of civil cases parallel those for criminal cases except that a higher percentage of cases involved a trial. Five percent of the civil cases were disposed of following a trial, 1,116 before a jury and 3,078 before the judge alone. Fifty percent of the civil cases were disposed of following a default or agreed judgment and 43 percent were dismissed.

The county courts disposed of fewer cases than were added to their dockets during 1976 and the cases pending on the dockets increased two percent from the first to the end of the year—342,478 on January 1 and 350,372 on December 31. (This does not include probate cases.) Four percent more civil cases but two percent fewer criminal cases were left pending December 31, than on January 1.

JUVENILE ACTIVITY

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court(s) designated must be either a district, criminal district, domestic relations, county court at law or constitutional county court. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

Juvenile court activity is therefore reported to the Judicial Council by either the district clerk, or the county clerk, or both, depending on which courts have been designated under Section 51.04.

Looking at total statewide activity, it appears that about 90 percent of the juvenile cases in the state were handled by district-level courts (district, criminal district, domestic relations or statutorily created Juvenile Courts) and the remaining ten percent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Combining the reports from both sources produces the table shown below. Statewide, 12,791 new juvenile cases were docketed during 1977. The courts disposed of 12,177 cases. Findings of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in 60 percent of the dispositions and a finding of no delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in two percent. Thirty-seven percent were dismissed.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

From various sources, the Judicial Council determined that there were 925 justices of the peace in Texas during 1977. Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in his court. All twelve months' activity for 1977 was reported by 618 justices of the peace, 141 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and 166 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 8,521 reports out of a possible 11,100 for 1977 (77 percent).

In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 67 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Over one million traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1977. Non-traffic criminal cases and civil cases (including "small claims" cases) provided 21 and 12 percent of the new cases filed, respectively.

In addition, the reporting courts received 10,741 peace bond applications and held 6,991 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In the justice of the peace's capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 44,723 complaints within the jurisdiction of county courts and 82,073 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). Sixteen thousand three hundred thirty-four examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held and 10,260 inquests were conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 39,109. Five thousand six hundred fourteen search warrants were issued and 88,975 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Seventy-three percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 16 percent at trial and 11 percent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 83 percent were disposed of prior to trial, practically all by payment of fine. Of the 13 percent that went to trial, 98 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining two percent were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 95 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 78 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 62 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Nineteen percent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 98 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 92 percent of the trials before a judge alone and in 68 percent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (28 percent) of civil suits went to trial than criminal cases. Thirty-five percent of the civil suits were settled before trial and 37 percent were dismissed. Of the cases that went to trial, 98 percent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported disposing of 1,325,330 cases, which is 84 percent of the 1,583,808 filed.

Seventeen thousand three hundred seventy-eight cases were appealed from the justice of the peace courts, or sightly more than one percent of the cases disposed of.

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1977 was $32,823,947. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for a $2.50 court cost on each case which is remitted to the state Criminal Justice Planning Fund.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

The municipal courts in the 214 cities with 1970 population of 5,000 or greater were asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in the court. The residents of these cities represent 71 percent of the population of the entire state, according to the 1970 census. All twelve months' activity for 1977 was reported by 174 of the courts, 18 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and 22 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 2,168 reports out of a possible 2,568 for the year (84 percent).

In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 85 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Over 2,300,000 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1977, ten percent more than those reported during 1976. Non-traffic criminal cases provided the other 15 percent of the new cases filed.

In addition to those cases, 2,549,391 parking citations were received by the courts and 1,322,945 parking offenses were disposed of. In the municipal judge's capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 10,085 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 3,738 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). Four hundred three examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 43 inquests were conducted by municipal judges. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 13,198. Two thousand seven hundred eighty-seven search warrants were issued and 57,228 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Seventy-one percent of all cases were disposed of before trial (by payment of fine or forfeiture of bond), 15 percent at trial (after an appearance before the judge) and 14 percent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 72 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 86 percent of those by payment of fine and 14 percent by bond forfeiture. Of the 14 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the other one percent before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 80 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 62 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 67 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Twenty percent went to trial and 13 percent were dismissed. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 86 percent of the trials before the judge alone and in 59 percent of the jury trials.

The courts reported disposing of 2,035,527 cases, which is 74 percent of the 2,751,953 filed.

Thirty-seven thousand eight hundred thirty-seven cases were appealed from the municipal courts, nearly two percent of the cases disposed of.

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1976 was $53,922,849. This was 27 percent higher than the amount collected by the courts reporting in 1976. This revenue becomes a part of the treasury of the city in which the court has jurisdiction except for a $2.50 court cost on each case which is remitted to the state Criminal Justice Planning Fund.
