INTRODUCTION

This is Volume II of the 1977 report on the operation of Titles I and II of the Speedy Trial Act of 1974. Volume one is the analytical portion of the report and volume two presents detailed statistical information on:

1. How long it took to bring criminal defendants to trial and
2. Incidence of and reasons for delay.

The accompanying tables, by circuit and district on facing pages, set out the time elapsing between stages of the criminal justice process. All intervals for which time limitations have been set under the Speedy Trial Act apply to the defendants in the first group. The time limitation respecting the interval from arrest to indictment does not apply to the defendants in the second group since the indictment preceded arrest. Similarly the time limitations respecting the intervals from arrest to indictment and from indictment to arraignment do not apply to defendants who are arrested and arraigned on the same day.

The tables presenting data on how long it took to bring criminal defendants to trial show time intervals on two bases (1) the overall time intervals (gross) elapsing between stages of the criminal justice process, and (2) the intervals (net) elapsing after "excludable time" is applied.

The statistics used for speedy trial tables differ from those used in the Director's Annual Report submitted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 604 (a) (3). Duplicate defendants (those charged in separate indictment) are counted only once in the Annual Report tables, but each filing is counted separately for speedy trial purposes. Also the speedy trial figures exclude remands from appellate courts, removals from state courts, appeals from magistrates, cases reinstated or reopened, Rule 20 and 21 transfers, juvenile cases and petty offenses.

Should there be any questions on these statistics please contact Mr. James A. McCafferty or Mr. George Shirley at 202-633-6094.

* NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(n). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by informal means.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion/dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses preceded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he should be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(f). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4 = 8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion disposition, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(n). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3181(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3181(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by Information.

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(m). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(D). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(p). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty officer(s) proceeded by information.

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3181(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4 = 8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion disposition, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

	NET

NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(b). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4 = 8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.

*NET MEANS GROSS DAYS LESS DAYS OF EXCLUDABLE TIME UNDER 18 USC 3161(h). Each reported defendant falls in both a GROSS and a NET figure in the applicable time column. However, the person may fall within the GROSS count of one time column and the NET of another. For example, if a defendant had a gross time interval of 12 days, he would be shown in the 11-30 day GROSS time interval. If the excludable time was 4 days, the NET time would be 8 days (12-4=8) and the defendant would be shown in the 0 to 10 day NET time interval.

DEFENDANT FIGURES DO NOT INCLUDE: Juveniles, Appeals from U.S. Magistrate decisions, Rule 20 transfers out of district, pretrial diversion dispositions, removals from State courts and any petty offenses proceeded by information.
