STATE PRISONERS: ADMISSIONS AND RELEASES, 1970

Introduction

The National Prisoner Statistics program was transferred from the Bureau of Census to the Federal Bureau of Prisons in 1950, and from the Bureau of Prisons to the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in 1971. The NPS program relies on voluntary cooperation by the states in reporting both population movement and detail characteristics of inmate populations.

Coverage of this Report

This report presents detailed data on the characteristics of adult felons admitted to and released from State correctional institutions for adult felony offenders in the United States during calendar year 1970. Detailed information on court commitments includes data on age, length of sentence, offense, race and sex. Characteristics of data on first releases include time served, length of sentence, method of release, offense, race, and sex.

Whereas attempts to secure detail data from all NPS reporting sources did not always end successfully, the data that appears in this report does represent analyses and computations that are intended to provide a coherent, standardized picture of inmate populations for those states or institutions that did respond. Of the 50 states, only 33 responded on time or with sufficient information to enable analysis to be performed so that the results could be included in this publication.

A few states did submit data after the cut-off date, but in most cases where data is missing, the information was not reported by the responsible agency or institution. Personnel shortages, tight budgets and changes in a particular state's internal operating procedures were responsible mainly for the lack of data.

Significance of the Data

Considerable caution should be used in making state-to-state comparisons, due to the wide disparities in criminal codes and in sentencing and release policies from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, and because of the limited coverage of this report. Only prisoners in adult correctional institutions are covered in this report, thereby excluding prisoners confined in county or local jails, workhouses, work camps, juvenile institutions, etc. Coverage has also been reduced by the elimination of prisoners under sentence of death, prisoners with "indefinite" sentences (i.e., sentences with no minimum and no maximum), unsentenced prisoners, prisoners who died while serving their sentences, juveniles classified as juvenile delinquents or wayward minors, and prisoners with sentence lengths of less than one year in length.

State-by-state comparisons on the length of sentences are highly questionable, and comparisons of offense, race, and method of release, as represented in tables A-1, 2, 3 or R-1, 2, 3 should be undertaken only by the broad categories.

Using the information in this publication to compare a particular state's data for past years can be made since processing and analysis criteria have been similarly applied.

Since 17 of the 50 states' data are missing, no nation-wide or region-wide totals were accumulated. The meaningfulness of such totals would not be useful in making nation-wide comparisons to past reports, thus distorting any trends that may have been discernable; therefore, maximum value can be derived from these tables only in year-to-year comparisons of a particular state.

Explanatory Comments

Data on Federal prisoners for 1970 are available, on a fiscal year basis, from the Statistical Office, Federal Bureau of Prisons. Figures contained in this report may differ from figures found in previously published reports, due principally to the incorporation of data received subsequent to their publication. For the purposes of this report, a "felony" prisoner is defined as a prisoner with a sentence of one year or longer, who was committed for an offense other than one classified as a juvenile offense.

A "first release" is a prisoner who is being released for the first time on his current sentence.

When utilizing data on offense presented in this report, it should be remembered that the offense groups used are somewhat arbitrary, thus not necessarily revealing the precise nature of the offense committed.

The offense groupings used in this report contain the following offenses, as they are most commonly reported:

Homicide -- Murder, Manslaughter (negligent and non-negligent).

Robbery -- Armed and Unarmed Robbery, Muggings, Bank Robbery, Banditry, Hijacking, and attempts at any of these.

Sex Offenses -- Forcible Rape, Statutory Rape, Indecent Assault, Carnal Abuse, Sodomy, Adultery, Cohabitation, Incest, Indecent Liberties, Indecent Exposure, Lewdness, Peeping Tom, Seduction, Soliciting, Prostitution, Commercialized Vice, Pandering, Obscenity, and Pornography.

Assault -- Aggravated and Simple Assault, Batteries, Attempted Murder, Attempted Manslaughter, Threats, Kidnapping, and Abduction.

Burglary -- Burglary, Breaking and Entering, Safecracking, Forceable Trespass, Possession of Burglar Tools.

Forgery, Fraud and Embezzlement -- Embezzlement, Conversion, Confidence Game, Disposing of Mortgaged Property, Obtaining Money or Property by False Pretenses, Fraudulent or Fictitious Checks or Checks Drawn on Insufficient Funds, Counterfeiting, Forgery, Uttering.

Auto Theft -- Larceny of Auto, Joy-Riding, Unauthorized Use.

Other Larceny -- Simple Larceny, Grand Larceny, Shoplifting, Cattle Rustling, Auto Breaking or Tampering, Pocket-Picking, Purse Snatching; Receiving, Concealing, and/or Possession of Stolen Goods.

Drug Laws -- Sale or Possession of Narcotics, Dope, or other Drugs, including Marihuana.

Other Offenses -- Weapons Laws, Escape, Abortion, Arson, Bigamy, Bribery, Conspiracy, Blackmail, Extortion, Gambling, Liquor Law Violations, Malicious Mischief; Non-Support, Neglect, or Desertion of Wife and/or Children; Perjury; Violation of Automobile Laws, Contributing to Delinquency.
