RESOURCES ON COMMUNITY CRIME PREVENTION

Bibliographical Publication No. 3

September, 1979

The Community Crime Prevention Resource Center is located in the Thomas J. Shanahan Library of Marymount Manhattan College, which is the Education Component of the Anti-Crime Through Organized Neighborhood Effort Program, ACT ONE.

This is the third bibliographic listing of the books, magazines, journals, newsletters, pamphlets, reports, article reprints, catalogs and audio-visual materials which are available to the community as part of the ACT ONE program.

As noted in the previous bibliographic listings, meeting the diverse needs of neighborhood residents has been a prime consideration in the acquisition of materials for the Center. For example, new books range from the popular Crime On Her Mind: Fifteen Stories of Female Sleuths From the Victorian Era to the Forties, to the more academic Crime Prevention or Weeping in the Playtime of Others. Other selections include the useful Directory of Criminal Justice Information Sources, the teaching manual, The Child's Keys to Crime Prevention and Victimology: An International Journal. We have acquired a 27-minute film, Mugging: You Can Protect Yourself!, and our collection of crime prevention information packets include programs from North Dakota, Huntington Beach, California, Florida, Michigan and Kentucky.

The Community Crime Prevention Resource Center also contains a listing of related local organizations involved in crime prevention, victim and witness assistance, ex-offender job counseling, and the like. Other materials deal with Block Watching, Operation Identification, new ideas in preventing burglary, robbery, shoplifting, employee theft, juvenile delinquency, helping victims of crime, safety for the elderly, self-defense groups, and new ideas to stop drug traffic. Selected tape cassettes are also available.

The Crime Prevention Resource Center is truly a Community project and suggestions for additional materials are encouraged. The Crime Prevention Resource Center is open to the community during the regular hours of the Thomas J. Shanahan Library:

Monday - Thursday	9:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Friday	9:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Saturday	10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Sunday	12:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Further information on the ACT ONE program and the Community Crime Prevention Resource Center is available from Ms. Judith Cestaro, Community Education Coordinator.
