The following Directory of Criminal Justice Journals was compiled by the Information Center of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency, from journals received by the NCIC Library. The annotated listing includes journals published by and for various groups with an interest in the criminal justice system. The journals included in general deal exclusively or predominantly with criminal justice issues and many focus on one specific aspect of the criminal justice system, such as correction or the police. The majority of the journals listed are U.S. publications. Included are selected foreign journals that are most likely to be of interest to an American audience.

Entries have been divided on the basis of subject matter emphasis:

1. Abstracting services—journals abstracting world-wide literature on all or selected criminal justice issues
2. Criminology and criminal justice journals—journals that cover the spectrum of criminal justice issues
3. Law journals—journals that focus on criminal law and its application
4. University law reviews—journals published by law schools that generally treat all legal issues
5. Law enforcement and police journals—journals concentrating on law enforcement issues and activities
6. Correctional journals—journals addressed to various aspects of the correctional system
7. Journals on juvenile delinquency and the juvenile—journals on criminal justice issues affecting juveniles and on the causes and treatment of delinquency
8. Journals on victimology—journals emphasizing the victim and his place in the criminal justice system
9. Behavioral journals—journals emphasizing sociology, social work, psychiatry, psychology, and medicine that frequently contain information pertinent to the criminal justice system
10. Journals on related social issues—journals concentrating on alcoholism, drug abuse, homosexuality and suicide.

Each bibliographic citation contains the journal title, publisher and address, frequency of publication and subscription information, and a brief annotation. The annotation describes the issues emphasized by each journal, mentions items of special interest, and includes topics of recent articles to indicate the scope of the publication. The following abbreviations have been used to indicate frequency of publication: A-annual, B-every two months, M-monthly, Q-quarterly, and T-three times per year.
Dissemination of this Directory to the criminal justice planning and operating agencies in Virginia is one phase of a comprehensive range of technical assistance services being developed and instituted by the Division of Justice and Crime Prevention. Companion bibliographies in this series of three annotated listings will include selected Criminal Justice Directories and Criminal Justice Newsletters.
ABSTRACTING SERVICES

An international abstracting service emphasizing European literature on the etiology of crime and delinquency, the control and treatment of offenders, criminal procedure, and the administration of justice. Each issue is indexed by author and subject. Annual cumulative indexes and a list of journals regularly abstracted appear in the final issue of each year.

Abstracts on Police Science. B; 144.25 ($55/US) Kluwer B.V., Box 23, Deventer, The Netherlands

An international abstracting service emphasizing European literature on police science, the forensic sciences, and forensic medicine. Each issue is indexed by subject and author. Annual cumulative indexes and a list of journals regularly abstracted appear in the final issue of each year.

An international abstracting service emphasizing current U.S. literature on law and the courts, law enforcement and the police, juvenile delinquency and the delinquent, crime and the offender, correction, drug abuse, and related social issues. In addition to abstracts, contains a section highlighting new research findings and unusual and imaginative programs; literature reviews on specific subjects, such as hidden crime, victimless crime, diversion, and depopulating the jails; and questions and answers on inquiries of wide interest. Detailed subject index in each issue, cumulated annually.

CRIMINOLOGY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE JOURNALS

Acta Criminologica. A; $5. University of Montreal Press, Casse Postale 628, Montreal 101, Quebec, Canada

An annual bilingual (English/French) review of anti-social behavior. Each issue contains a monograph, two to three theoretical or empirical articles, and a critical examination of the Canadian justice system in the judicial, police, and correction sectors. An article on comparative criminological research analyzes pertinent research projects. Summaries appear in English, French, German, and Russian. Recent issues have concentrated on organized crime and middle-class delinquency.

Acta Criminologica et Medicinae Legalis Japonica. Japanese Association of Criminology, Tokyo Medical and Dental University, 1-Choome, Yushima, Bunkyo-Ku, Tokyo, Japan

Articles and research studies on criminology and the forensic sciences. The emphasis is on Japanese studies; included are English, French, and German articles.

Australian and New Zealand Journal of Criminology. Q; $49/ nonmembers. Southdown Press, 36 Walsie Street, Melbourne, Victoria, 3001, Australia

A general criminological journal containing original papers and book reviews. Emphasis is on criminology in Australia and New Zealand. Indexed annually. Recent topics have included patterns of criminality in New South Wales, re-offending youth, the deterrent effect of fines and probation, international terrorism, and the possible criminal use of atomic or biochemical materials.

In U.S.: Fred B. Rothman & Co., 57! Lenning Street, South Hackensack, N.J. 07606

Emphasizes delinquency and deviant social behavior. Contains articles, notes, and extensive reviews of new publications. A reference section lists new periodical citations in criminology, penology and social work, psychiatry, psychology, and sociology, as well as official (Her Majesty's Stationary Office) publications. Annual index. Recent topics have included British aerial studies of crime, a follow-up study of bright delinquents, juvenile delinquency among Asians and half-Asians, and becoming prostituted.
California Youth Authority Quarterly. Q: $3. California Youth Authority, 747 $7 Street, Sacramento, Calif. 95814

Articles on all aspects of criminal justice, recently including lie detection, women in correction, the dilemma of separate youth center research programs, and Los Angeles police department diversion programs. Not necessarily restricted to California although many articles discuss California projects and programs.

Canadian Journal of Criminology and Corrections (formerly Canadian Journal of Corrections). Q: $10, $7/students. Canadian Criminology and Corrections Association, 55 Parkdale Avenue, Ottawa K1R 1S2, Ontario, Canada

Containing both theoretical and practical articles, this journal is an information source for criminological work and thinking in Canada. Contains book reviews and the working papers of the Law Reform Commission of Canada. Bilingual (English/French). Indexed semi-annually. Recent articles have been on confidentiality in correctional institutions, mentally abnormal offenders in a Toronto jail, probation effectiveness in Alberta, a classification of the associational personality, and American military deserters in Canada.

Information on all aspects of the criminal justice system, including the police, family, and criminal courts in law enforcement and correctional institutions. Articles with abstracts, book reviews, a listing of books received, and news briefs and notes. Publishes NCCD policy statements and resolutions. Annual index. Representative articles have discussed imprisonment for the nondangerous offender, the death penalty, correctional study in higher education, the medical model of delinquency, pre-arrest diversion, and racial discrimination in urban police departments. Annual article on legislation and court decisions.

Crime and Social Justice: A Journal of Radical Criminology. Twice yearly. $40/institutions. $6/individuals. Institute for Research on Criminology, 2121 Haviland Hall, University of California, Berkeley, Calif. 94720

The only radical journal of criminology in the U.S., committed to a search for socialist solutions to the crime problem. Articles on topics such as the repression of criminology, prospects for a radical criminology in the United States, and LGBA--a case study in the development of an industrial complex. Includes book reviews, lists publications received, and publishes course outlines accompanied by an extensive survey of the literature or an annotated bibliography.

Crime and Punishment and Correction (Mladna Straft on Hervoruing). Q: R.E. (W. 40/US) National Institute for Crime Prevention and Rehabilitation of Offenders, P.O. Box 10005, Cape Town 7905, South Africa

Bilingual (English/Afrikaans) international criminology journal. Articles and book reviews. Recent topics: sentencing--the training of judicial officers, investigation and prosecution of crime, corporal punishment and juvenile justice, victimology, crime and the African prison reform in Sweden and Denmark, and a symposium on the cause of crime in urban society.

Criminologie. Annual or semi-annual; $25. Les Presses de l'Universite de Montreal, Case Postale 6128, Montreal 101, Quebec, Canada

A theme-oriented review emphasizing different criminal justice issues. The most recent concentrates on juvenile delinquency in Quebec.

Criminologist. Q: 3 ($8/US); by subscription only to official or professional organizations in law enforcement, criminology, law, forensic science, and medicine; not sold or distributed to the general public. Forensic Publishing Co., 9 Old Bailey, London EC89 1AA, England

Authoritative views on all matters related to crime and criminology, emphasizing the police, law, forensic science, and criminology. Articles, brief book reviews, and case notes. Recent articles: post-mortem identification, forensic pathology, assessment of a doctor as a forensic witness, an analysis of child murderers, and the pathologist and sexual crime.

The official publication of the American Society of Criminology, this journal is interdisciplinary in nature and is devoted to crime and deviant behavior as found in sociology, psychology, psychiatry, law, and social work, as well as urban design, systems analysis, and decision theory. The emphasis is on empirical research and scientific methodology. Also included are articles which review the literature or deal with theoretical issues. Contains articles with abstracts and short research notes. Recent articles: the female homicide victim, behavioral approaches to treatment in crime and delinquency, prisonization as an inhibitor of effective re-socialization, and a static-descriptive model of field supervision.

All phases of preventive and correctional activities in delinquency and crime. Regular sections review legislation, contain abstracts of professional periodicals, and give personnel and conference news. Extensive book reviews. Recent articles: the mentally retarded probationer, the federal probation system, an inmate grievance mechanism, and education for correctional careers.

Indian Journal of Criminology. Twice yearly; $6. 5, Willaima1 Street, Nadaas 600 018, India

The official publication of the Indian Society of Criminology, this journal publishes articles on all aspects of criminology, the criminological sciences (criminology, psychology, sociology, and penology), and the subsidiary sciences (forensic science, forensic medicine, and judicial psychology). The majority of articles concentrate on India. Recent topics: ethics of licensing brothels, diagnosis and correctional services in crime, legal aid, personality patterns among delinquents, and the functions of the juvenile court in India.

A compendium of writings, with text in English, French, and Spanish, on all aspects of criminology, such as clinical and therapeutic applications, legislation, statistics, education, and prevention. Book reviews.

Articles on all aspects of criminology and penology. Book reviews. Recent topics: racial-ethnic identification in prisons, work release in Belgium, the homosexual as a crime victim, the delinquent label and its effect on future behavior, and white-collar crime.

International Review of Criminal Policy. Irregularly; $6.

United Nations, Department of Social Affairs, New York, N.Y. 10017

Discusses applied criminological sciences, in English, French, or Spanish. A recent issue was devoted to human resources in the policy of the prevention and control of crime and treatment of offenders, including research and utilization of manpower in social defense, major nongovernmental organizations working in social defense, and recent international meetings dealing with criminal policy.

Issues in Criminology. Twice yearly; $6/libraries and institutions, $6/individuals. University of California School of Criminology, 101 Haviland Hall, Berkeley, Calif. 94720

A social science journal in the area of criminology and correction, with articles and book reviews. Recent topics have included channeling lawyers—the careers of public defenders; gang youth and hustling—the psychology of survival; racism; prisoners’ rights; and the eugenics movement—some insights into the institutionalization of racism.

An international journal for the dissemination of new information, ideas, and methods to criminal justice academicians and practitioners. Covers all aspects of the criminal justice system, emphasizing integrating the functioning of the individual elements of the system. Of special interest are papers reflecting the application of new disciplines or analytic methodologies to criminal justice problems. Contains articles with abstracts, book reviews, notes, current publications abstracts, a list of publications received, and Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences news and notes. Recent topics: measurement problems in official and survey crime rates, effects of increased security on prison violence, and a statistical analysis of urban homicides.
Comprehensive, in-depth coverage of criminology and criminal justice topics. (1) A criminal law section analyzes all issues in this area with articles by authors as well as student s. Recent analyses have included: procedural safeguards for involuntary civil commitments of the mentally ill and the exclusion of young adults from juries. Included in this section are a review of recent trends in criminal law and an annual Supreme Court review. (2) A criminology section emphasizes reports of original research. Recent papers have discussed the research and policy implications of general prevention, the effect of incarcerating juvenile offenders on reducing crime, self-reported delinquency—a comparison of structured interviews and self-administered checklists, and an assessment of work furlough as an alternative to incarceration. Included in this section are occasional symposia such as one recently published on the measurement of delinquency. (3) A section of brief research notes is intended to provide as much exposure as possible to native to incarceration. Included in and related fields. Notes have reported research examining the measurement of delinquency. (4) A book review section contains both article-length and shorter reviews.

Journal of Criminal Law and Criminal Justice. Q: $18.00/institutions, $15/individuals, $7/law students. Williams and Wilkins Co., 426 East Preston Street, Baltimore, Md. 21202

Recent analyses have included: procedural safeguards for involuntary civil commitments of the mentally ill and the exclusion of young adults from juries. Included in this section are a review of recent trends in criminal law and an annual Supreme Court review. (2) A criminology section emphasizes reports of original research. Recent papers have discussed the research and policy implications of general prevention, the effect of incarcerating juvenile offenders on reducing crime, self-reported delinquency—a comparison of structured interviews and self-administered checklists, and an assessment of work furlough as an alternative to incarceration. Included in this section are occasional symposia such as one recently published on the measurement of delinquency. (3) A section of brief research notes is intended to provide as much exposure as possible to

Recent analyses have included: procedural safeguards for involuntary civil commitments of the mentally ill and the exclusion of young adults from juries. Included in this section are a review of recent trends in criminal law and an annual Supreme Court review. (2) A criminology section emphasizes reports of original research. Recent papers have discussed the research and policy implications of general prevention, the effect of incarcerating juvenile offenders on reducing crime, self-reported delinquency—a comparison of structured interviews and self-administered checklists, and an assessment of work furlough as an alternative to incarceration. Included in this section are occasional symposia such as one recently published on the measurement of delinquency. (3) A section of brief research notes is intended to provide as much exposure as possible to

Justice System Journal. T: $7.50/institutions and individuals. 8333 Social Sciences Building, Fort Collins, Colo. 80523

Recent analyses have included: procedural safeguards for involuntary civil commitments of the mentally ill and the exclusion of young adults from juries. Included in this section are a review of recent trends in criminal law and an annual Supreme Court review. (2) A criminology section emphasizes reports of original research. Recent papers have discussed the research and policy implications of general prevention, the effect of incarcerating juvenile offenders on reducing crime, self-reported delinquency—a comparison of structured interviews and self-administered checklists, and an assessment of work furlough as an alternative to incarceration. Included in this section are occasional symposia such as one recently published on the measurement of delinquency. (3) A section of brief research notes is intended to provide as much exposure as possible to

Recent analyses have included: procedural safeguards for involuntary civil commitments of the mentally ill and the exclusion of young adults from juries. Included in this section are a review of recent trends in criminal law and an annual Supreme Court review. (2) A criminology section emphasizes reports of original research. Recent papers have discussed the research and policy implications of general prevention, the effect of incarcerating juvenile offenders on reducing crime, self-reported delinquency—a comparison of structured interviews and self-administered checklists, and an assessment of work furlough as an alternative to incarceration. Included in this section are occasional symposia such as one recently published on the measurement of delinquency. (3) A section of brief research notes is intended to provide as much exposure as possible to

Recent analyses have included: procedural safeguards for involuntary civil commitments of the mentally ill and the exclusion of young adults from juries. Included in this section are a review of recent trends in criminal law and an annual Supreme Court review. (2) A criminology section emphasizes reports of original research. Recent papers have discussed the research and policy implications of general prevention, the effect of incarcerating juvenile offenders on reducing crime, self-reported delinquency—a comparison of structured interviews and self-administered checklists, and an assessment of work furlough as an alternative to incarceration. Included in this section are occasional symposia such as one recently published on the measurement of delinquency. (3) A section of brief research notes is intended to provide as much exposure as possible to

Quaderni di Criminologia Clinica. Q: L. 5000. Ministero di Grazia e Giustizia, Via Arenula, 71, Rome, Italy

Recent analyses have included: procedural safeguards for involuntary civil commitments of the mentally ill and the exclusion of young adults from juries. Included in this section are a review of recent trends in criminal law and an annual Supreme Court review. (2) A criminology section emphasizes reports of original research. Recent papers have discussed the research and policy implications of general prevention, the effect of incarcerating juvenile offenders on reducing crime, self-reported delinquency—a comparison of structured interviews and self-administered checklists, and an assessment of work furlough as an alternative to incarceration. Included in this section are occasional symposia such as one recently published on the measurement of delinquency. (3) A section of brief research notes is intended to provide as much exposure as possible to

Revue Internationale de Criminologie et de Police Technique. Q: $10/US. Editions Medecine et Hygiene, Case Postale 129, 1213 Geneva 4, Switzerland

Recent analyses have included: procedural safeguards for involuntary civil commitments of the mentally ill and the exclusion of young adults from juries. Included in this section are a review of recent trends in criminal law and an annual Supreme Court review. (2) A criminology section emphasizes reports of original research. Recent papers have discussed the research and policy implications of general prevention, the effect of incarcerating juvenile offenders on reducing crime, self-reported delinquency—a comparison of structured interviews and self-administered checklists, and an assessment of work furlough as an alternative to incarceration. Included in this section are occasional symposia such as one recently published on the measurement of delinquency. (3) A section of brief research notes is intended to provide as much exposure as possible to Social Defense. Q; Rs. 8 ($2.88/US) National Institute of Social Defense, Department of Social Welfare, New Delhi-22, India

Reviews policies and programs in crime prevention and the treatment of offenders, dealing with criminal legislation, the judicial system, police, prisons, probation, parole, and after-care. Focuses attention on correctional training, research, and evaluation; juvenile delinquency; the suppression of immoral traffic; and the control of beggary. Contains articles, legal notes, research notes, book reviews, publications received, and statistical surveys. Recent articles: the prevention of begging; prison labor, and correctional treatment for offenders.

Staat und Recht. M; M. 60. Staatsverlag der DDR, Otto Grotewohlstrasse 17, 108 Berlin, E. Germany

An East German publication covering all aspects of criminal justice including socialist criminology and crime and delinquency prevention.
210 South Street, Boston, Mass. 02111

Information of interest to judges, practicing attorneys, prosecutors, administrators and correctional officials. Contains sections on U.S. Supreme Court decisions, other significant federal court decisions, selected state court decisions, legal literature, book reviews, and books received and briefly noted. Recent articles have discussed contemporary sentencing proposals, establishing rapport with a defendant, problems of pretrial publicity, and halfway houses in adult correction.

Criminal Law Quarterly. Q; $30 (Canadian) Canada Law Book
Limited, 60 Contra Court, Agincourt M1S 1E5, Ontario, Canada

A Canadian journal of criminal law for judges, magistrates, lawyers, and police officers. Contains sections on criminal appeals in the Supreme Court of Canada, decisions on sentencing, notes and comments, articles and addresses, magistrates' cases, supreme and county court decisions, and book reviews. Recent articles: gun control—the options, recent developments in the law of evidence, and the relationship of pretrial custody to the outcome of a trial.

Criminal Law Review. M; $6.75. Sweet & Maxwell, Ltd., 11 New Pettier Lane, London EC4P 4RE, England. In U.S. and Canada:
Carswell Co., Ltd., 233 Midland Avenue, Agincourt, Ontario, Canada

Articles on criminal law, as well as book reviews, notes on practice and procedure, case notes and comments, and acts and orders. Recent articles: the Butler Report on mentally abnormal offenders, police powers, and shoplifting.

Family Law Quarterly. Q; $15/nonmember, with $12.50 membership,
$5/students. Section of Family Law, American Bar Association,
111 E 60 Street, Chicago, Ill. 60637

Published as a service to members of the Section of Family Law, covering the legal, social, and psychological aspects of family life. Contains articles and reviews of books dealing with the family. Annual index. Recent articles: philosophy and principles of punishment in the juvenile court, child neglect laws in the U.S., dissolution of the family under Swedish law, child support provisions, and abolishing baby buying.

Kellogg Boulevard, St. Paul, Minn. 55102

Developments in federal criminal law and recent court decisions.

Goldammer's Archiv für Strafrecht. M; DM 135. B.V. Decker's
Verlag, G. Bonnem C.M.B.R., Heimanbergerstrasse 53, 2000
Hamburg 13, West Germany

Articles concentrating on criminal law in Germany.

Human Rights. Twice yearly; with $10 membership, $10/nonmembers,
$1/student members. Section of Individual Rights and Responsibilities, American Bar Association, 1155 East 60th
Street, Chicago, Ill. 60637

Compendium of information on legal rights and responsibilities, including articles, book reviews, reports, and recent developments and current literature in various legal areas such as the accused, civil rights legislation, due process, equal protection, privacy, religion, sexual discrimination, speech and association, etc. Recent articles have discussed human rights issues in education, human rights for the mentally retarded, achieving human rights for women, a lawyer's public responsibility, and juvenile justice in America.

JAG Journal. Q; $5.50. Office of Judge Advocate General of the Navy, Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing
Office, Washington, D.C. 20402

Information on military law, with index cumulated every four years.

Journal of Family Law. Q; $15. University of Louisville,
School of Law, Louisville, Ky. 40208

Articles and student comments on domestic and foreign family law. Covers all aspects of family law, including current and emerging issues as well as historical and theoretical aspects of domestic law problems. Contains articles, comments, recent developments, book reviews, and an annotated list of books received. Annual index. Recent topics: the family court, no-fault divorce, a lawyer's guide for intercountry adoption of South Korean orphans, the right to jury trial of juveniles committed to institutions, and the impact of law on family planning in Australia.
Juvenile Court Digest. M; $18. National Council of Juvenile Court Judges, University of Nevada, Box 8000, Reno, Nev. 89507
Interprets court decisions and related developments for those interested in the problems of juveniles who come in contact with the law and the courts. Contains articles and a compilation of decisions on topics such as right to counsel, transfer, truancy, confessions, and admissions, custody, adoption, termination of parental rights, the right to treatment, double jeopardy, and probation revocation.

Law in American Society. Q. Law in American Society Foundation, 33 North La Salle Street, Suite 1700, Chicago, Ill. 60602
The journal of the National Center for Law-Focused Education. Functions as an information clearinghouse to institute law-focused curricular reform on a national basis. Contains listings of resource materials available to teachers and practical analyses of these materials, annotated bibliographies of works in law and education, indexes of books and articles, and reports on the progress of law-focused education projects nationwide. Each issue concentrates on a specific topic such as children's rights, behavior modification and behavioral counseling, the citizen and criminal justice, and urban conflict.

A communication medium for military lawyers in the Department of the Army to share their research and experiences with colleagues.

Monatschrift für Kriminallogie und Strafrechtsreform. 8 issues per year; M. 120, Carl Heymanns Verlag KG, Gereon Strasse, 18-32, 5 Koln 1, West Germany
Criminal law and criminology, with special emphasis on developments in West Germany.

MLADA Briefcase. B; with membership, $5/libraries. National Legal Aid and Defender Association, 1253 East 60 Street, Chicago, Ill. 60637; and 2100 M. Street, Suite 601, Washington, D.C. 20037
Intended to promote and develop organized legal services for the indigent and provide information on issues of current interest to poverty lawyers. Contains the MLADA "Washington Memo" (newsletter), articles, book reviews, general news articles, professional ethics after Watergate, constitutional attacks on the death penalty, and defender-operated diversion.

A legal journal dealing exclusively with prisons. Provides a national forum for prisoners, prison officials, lawyers, judges, law students, and others on legal problems which face prisons, prison officials, and inmates. Articles, notes, recent cases, and lengthy book reviews. Recent articles and notes include concepts of political prisonerhood, pretrial confinement in the military, a symposium on behavior modification, prisoner's rights to unrestricted use of the mails, and medical experimentation on prisoners.

Pennsylvania Bar Association Quarterly. Q; $4. 401 North Front Street, Harrisburg, Pa. 17110
Articles on legal issues in the criminal justice system, reviews Supreme Court criminal law and procedural decisions, book reviews. Recent topics: the changing world of juvenile law—procedural justice for the juvenile and alternatives to formal court adjudication.
Prosecutor. B: $25, $15/libraries, $9/members. National District Attorneys Association, 211 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 60611

The journal of the National District Attorneys Association (NDAA). Contains NDAA news, grant projects and program reports, conference news, civil law topics of interest to criminal prosecutors, positions wanted and available, case commentaries and briefs on criminal matters and certain selected civil matters, book reviews, and articles on topics such as the prosecutor in juvenile court, the Columbus Night Prosecutor, uniform crime charging standards, and the major offense bureau.

International developments in criminal law. Court decisions, book reviews, and articles on topics such as the social and economic consequences of crime, modern problems of reform of German law, and unification of law in the Benelux countries.

International journal with articles on military criminal law and the law of war.

Revue Pontificale et de Droit Pénal. Q; 39 F. Société Générale des Prisons et de Legislation Criminelle, 27, rue de Fleurus, Paris (6e) France

French correction and French criminal law.

Revue de Science Criminelle et de Droit Pénal Comparé. Q; 130 F./France, 150 F./foreign. Editions Sirey, 22 rue Soufflot, 75005 Paris, France

International developments in criminal and correctional law. Articles, book reviews, and notes on new developments in French case law. Recent articles have discussed the new Austrian criminal law and the execution of penal sanctions.

Schweizerische Zeitschrift für Strafrecht: Revue Penale Suisse. Q; 69 F. Verlag Stadtf., A.O., Mallestrasse 7, Bern, Switzerland

Emphasizes Swiss criminal law with frequent articles on all aspects of criminal justice and law. Book reviews.

Seton Hall Legislative Journal. Twice yearly, $7.50. Seton Hall Legislative Bureau, 1095 Raymond Boulevard, Newark, N.J. 07102

Articles and notes on significant topics of current legislative and legal import. Recent topics: inmate work alternatives, legislating child protection, and legal ethics in New Jersey.

Trial. B: $5, $1/students. Association of Trial Lawyers of America, 20 Garden Street, Cambridge, Mass. 02138

A news magazine for lawyers with in-depth articles on social/legal questions, interpretive news sections on recent legal developments, and how-to-do-it articles on questions of legal practice and points of law. Book reviews. Recent issues have concentrated on children's rights, crime and the victim, juveniles and justice, and the invasion of privacy and breach of confidentiality.

Zeitschrift für die Gesamte Strafrechtswissenschaft. Q; DM. 150. Walter de Gruyter & Co., Genthiner Str. 13, 1000 Berlin 30, W. Germany

Articles on criminal law and criminal justice with the emphasis on developments in West Germany. Book reviews.
UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEWS

General law review, with legal questions covered by members of the bar, students, and professors. Book reviews. Recent articles: alternative answers for juvenile justice, problems of categorizing and controlling organized crime, and a project on temporary release in New York State correctional facilities.

American Journal of Criminal Law. T: $8.50. University of Texas School of Law, 2300 Red River, Austin, Tex. 78705

Articles and notes on criminal law. Book reviews. Recent articles: necessity as a statutory defense in Texas, comparison of public defenders and private attorneys, determining indigency in Texas, and the use of involuntary inter-prison transfer as a sanction.

American University Law Review. Q: $10. Washington College of Law, American University, Massachusetts and Nebraska Avenues, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20016

A general law review containing articles, comments, notes on recent developments and a list of recently published books with short annotations. A recent article discussed the modernization of justice in the District of Columbia—The Court Reform and Criminal Procedure Act of 1970.

Baylor Law Review. Q: $10. Baylor University School of Law, Waco, Tex. 76706

Intended as a research tool for the practitioner, this journal surveys all aspects of Texas and federal law. Articles by leading authorities and comments on cases notes by students. Index cumulated every five years. The death penalty was a topic recently discussed.

Boston University Law Review. 5 issues per year $9. Boston University School of Law, 765 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Mass. 02215

Legal articles and book reviews. A recent article proposed and analyzed a unitary system for review of criminal judgments.

---

Brooklyn Law Review. Q: $10. Brooklyn Law School, 250 Joralemon Street, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11201

Legal articles and book reviews by lawyers and case notes and comments by students. Recent articles have discussed police interrogation and due process of law for police offenders.

California Law Review. B: $12.50. University of California, School of Law, Berkeley, Calif. 94720

Critical analysis of legal issues and cases in all areas of law. Book reviews. Annual index. Recently included were symposia on mental disability and the law and drugs and the law and articles on California's predelinquency statute, punishment, and pre-trial release.

Capital University Law Review. $3.25/issue. Capital University, Columbus, Ohio 43209

Concentrating on correction and institutional control, includes student notes, listings of books received and unpublished articles, and articles on topics such as legal issues and characteristics of pretrial intervention programs, community courts—decentralizing juvenile jurisprudence, Ohio commitments of the mentally ill offender, and the prisoner's right to stay where he is—state and federal transfer commitments and constitutional due process. Annual index.

Cincinnati Law Review. (formerly University of Cincinnati Law Review). Q: $8.50. University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio 45221

Articles on legal issues and student casenotes. Recent topics discussed have included the defective assistance of counsel, the Youth Services Bureau for treating "unruly" children in Ohio, and the sociopathic criminal offender.

Cleveland State Law Review. T: $8. Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, Cleveland State University, Euclid Avenue & East 24 Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44115

General review of legal and allied subjects, with articles, technical features, book reviews, and government affairs. Recent topics discussed include behavior modification legislation and rape reform legislation.

Journal of law and sociological jurisprudence. Recent articles have discussed the arrest record and New York City public hiring, interstate placement of juveniles, an analysis of the Miranda decision, and the need for alternatives to institutional treatment for nondelinquent children in New York.

Published by a student board of editors, contains articles by legal professionals as well as material written and edited by members of the Review. Recent articles: child neglect--due process for the parent, waiver in the juvenile court, and the impact of the Model Penal Code on statutory reform.

Analysis of current developments and problems in law. Articles by scholars and practitioners, student notes, and book reviews.

Fordham Law Review. 6 issues per year; $12. Fordham University Law School, 140 West 62 Street, New York, N.Y. 10023.

Articles and comments on legal issues, intended for use by attorneys. Book reviews. Annual index. Recent articles: electronic intelligence gathering, federal equitable relief in matters collateral to state criminal proceedings, habeas corpus challenges to prison discipline, neighborhood patrols and the law, and search and seizure rights of parolees and probationers in the Ninth Circuit.

Analyses legal problems, concentrating on federal law. Articles by leading authorities as well as students. Book reviews. Recently discussed: juvenile double jeopardy, addict diversion, and the right to treatment.

Articles on jurisprudence, legal history, political science, and legal problems. Recent topics include requiring a criminal defendant to submit to a government psychiatric examination.

Examines various legal problems, with analyses by scholars and student comments on recent developments in the law. Book reviews.

Articles on criminal law, recently including topics such as the juvenile court and the emotional neglect of children, legal rights in a juvenile correctional institution, and standards for accepting guilty pleas to misdemeanor charges.

Articles on legal issues in the criminal justice system. Recent topics have included the Scandinavian myth--the effectiveness of drinking-and-driving legislation in Sweden and Norway, an analysis of crimes punishable by imprisonment, firearms and federal law--the gun control act of 1968, private enforcement of law, and delays in the criminal court.

A current survey and analysis of changing areas of the law. Feature articles and book reviews. Annual index. Recent articles have discussed the right to counsel and family courts.

Symposium on issues of current legal importance, with special attention to their sociological, economic, and political aspects.
The Journal of the Law and Society Association, primarily concerned with the political, social, and economic aspects of the law. Articles and research notes by lawyers, social scientists, and other scholars which bear on the relationship between society and the legal process. List of books reviewed and annual index. Recent topics: the incapacitative effect of imprisonment, theoretical considerations of deterrence, litigation and dispute processing issues, and the no-fee and low-fee legal practice of private attorneys.

Marquette Law Review. Q: $8, Marquette University Law School, 1100 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis. 53233
All areas of law with articles by attorneys and students. Emphasizes Wisconsin law. A recent article discussed inferential imprisonment—the presence of parole officers at subsequent juvenile adjudications.

Articles and comments on legal topics, discussions of recent court decisions, book reviews, and a periodical index. Recent topics: empirical research and jury size, reexamination of defense costs as a condition of probation for indigents, conjugal visitation rights, and the constitutionality of laws forbidding private homosexual conduct.

Mississippi Law Journal. B: $12. University of Mississippi Law School, Box 196, University, Miss. 38677
Articles, student comments, and notes on state and national developments in the law. Book reviews.

Developments and issues in all legal areas. Book reviews. Recent topics discussed have been employment discrimination against rehabilitated drug addicts and the First Amendment rights of policemen.
Syracuse Law Review, Q; $10. Ernest I. White Hall, Syracuse University College of Law, Syracuse, N.Y. 13210

Articles and notes on legal issues and recent legal decisions. The winter issue includes an annual survey of proceedings in bankruptcy law, New York law, tracing recent developments in public law, commercial law, property law, and constitutional law. The spring issue is devoted to the civil rights movement and the relevant legal decisions. Recent reviews include the adjective (procedural) law and its impact on the practice of law.

Tennessee Law Review, Q; $10. Tennessee Law Review Association, Inc., 3235 West Cumberland Avenue, Knoxville, Tenn. 37916

Articles and notes on legal issues and recent legal decisions. Book reviews. A topic recently discussed was the role of the police in the prevention of crime.

Articles, comments, notes, and book reviews on subjects of interest to lawyers. Recent topics: prisoner classification and administrative decision-making, and judicial review of police methods in law enforcement.

U.C.L.A. Law Review, 5 issues per year; $14. University of California School of Law, 405 Hilgard Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif. 90024

Articles by judges, professors, and practicing attorneys on current legal issues and student case notes and comments. Recent topics: judicial intervention in education, and the double standard of morality and the prosecutor's role in California sentencing.

University of Chicago Law Review, Q; $20. University of Chicago Law School, 111 East 60 Street, Chicago, Ill. 60637

In-depth articles by scholars, practitioners, and students on the entire spectrum of legal problems. Book reviews. Recent topics: the constitutionally of denial of credit on race, the constitutionality of the Chicago school desegregation plan, the rights of prisoners to medical care, and the rights of prisoners to private police.

University of Colorado Law Review, Q; $35. Fleming Law Building, Room 490, University of Colorado, Boulder, Colo. 80302

Articles by practitioners, judges, legal professors, and students providing comprehensive coverage of Colorado law as well as selected coverage of legal topics of national interest. Recent topics include sex and the law in contemporary perspective and due process, equal protection, and state parole revocation hearings.

University of Pennsylvania Law Review, 6 issues per year; $15. University of Pennsylvania Law School, 3400 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19104

Intended to serve as a forum for constructive criticism and to inform and influence courts, scholars, and the bar on important legal developments. The emphasis is on constitutional developments, civil rights, labor relations, urban planning. Recent issues have discussed issues of relevant public policy.

Valparaiso University Law Review, 3 issues per year; $7. Valparaiso University School of Law, Valparaiso, Ind. 46383

Articles and notes on legal issues and book reviews. Recent topics: drug abuse and the law, the narcotics lobby and the drug problem, problems in defending a drug case, Indiana's response to drug abuse, and drug testing procedures in crime laboratories.

Vanderbilt Law Review, 6 issues per year; $10. Vanderbilt University School of Law, Nashville, Tenn. 37240

Articles of current interest to practicing attorneys, educators, and students. One issue each year contains a seminar or a symposium on a particular field of law and jurisprudence. Recent topics: discrimination in hiring practices due to arrest records, prisoner's rights, and post-conviction problems and the defective delinquency.
Virginia Law Review. 6 issues per year; $24. Virginia Law Review Association, University of Virginia, Duke Tract, Charlottesville, Va. 22901

Articles by practitioners, law professors, and students synthesizing the rules of law on particular subjects and detailed analyses of important recent cases by students. Not limited to Virginia Law. Recent topics: capital punishment in Virginia, the emerging judicial role in prison reform, the ascertainment right to treatment, and the Justice of the Peace in Virginia.

Washburn Law Journal. 3 issues per year; $6. Washburn University School of Law, Topeka, Kans. 66621

Articles by lawyers, judges, and students on all aspects of the law of practical significance to lawyers. Book reviews. Recently examined was the expungement of criminal convictions in Kansas.

Legal topics of general interest with a special section on Virginia law. Recently discussed was jury trials for juvenile delinquents in Virginia.

Wisconsin Law Review. Q; $12. University of Wisconsin Law School, 975 Bascom Hall, Madison, Wis. 53706

Reviews recent developments in the law. Contains articles by lawyers, law professors, and political scientists; student comments analyzing particular legal questions; and student notes on recent legal decisions. Book reviews. Annual index. Recent topics: inmate problems and correctional administration, legal services for prison inmates, and transfer of juveniles to adult correctional institutions.

Yale Law Journal. 8 issues per year; $18. Yale Law Journal Co., Inc., 1101 A Yale Station, New Haven, Conn. 06520

A legal periodical with research done by Yale Law School students. Articles, notes, comments, and book reviews. Recent topics: the defense attorney's role in plea bargaining, the administration of pretrial release and detention, bargaining in correctional institutions, and pretrial diversion from the criminal process.

Law Enforcement and Police Journals

Crime Prevention Review. Q. Office of the Attorney General, Crime Prevention Unit, 27 West First Street, Room 203, Los Angeles, Calif. 90012

A professional forum for the criminal justice system in California to provide discussion of concepts and issues in crime prevention and useful resources for the practitioner. Contains articles on topics such as school vandalism and neighborhood team policing, a listing of books received, a project ideas section, book reviews, and news on training, seminars, and conferences. A resource section lists both AV materials and literature related to numerous aspects of crime prevention (general, burglary and building security, drug abuse, community involvement, urban and physical planning, and youth and the law).

Criminal Justice Quarterly. Q. Free. Division of Criminal Justice, Appellate Section, 7 Glenwood Avenue, East Orange, N.J. 07017

Articles and notes concentrating on New Jersey law enforcement issues. Recent topics have included combating official corruption in New Jersey, commitment of the criminally insane, elements of drunken driving, the duty to retreat, and a national survey of the grand jury.

Compendium of recent developments in all types of economic crime: charity fraud, merchandising fraud, housing, health, medicine, welfare, home improvements, securities fraud, travel fraud, insurance and repairs fraud, etc. Mentions publications of interest and includes a section of economic crime case notes.

Enforcement Journal. Q; $6/nonmembers, $2/members. 14500 S. Tamiami Trail, Venice, Fla. 33555

Official journal of the National Police Officers Association of the American and National Police Reserve Officers Association. Contains general news briefs, new product news, and technical features of interest to the law enforcement officer, as well as Association personnel changes. Recent articles: community oriented prevention, crime busting, identifying who fired a weapon, and a patrol car computer used to combat organized car thefts.
FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. $; free to qualified personnel.
Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20535

Information of interest to law enforcement personnel, including articles, an occasional crime digest, messages from the FBI director, and a "wanted by the FBI" section. Recent articles: mental health workshops for law enforcement, coordinated team patrol, use of charter airlines in extradition cases, white-collar crime, bank fraud and embezzlement, and forensic pathology in crimes of violence.

Fire and Arson Investigator. International Association of Arson Investigators, 333-A East Main Street, Marlboro, Mass. 01752

Articles on arson, its causes, and prevention as well as cases of fires. Recent articles: the adolescent mind and arson, fires from gas and electrical appliances, arson control, and court admissible evidence.

The official publication of Interpol, this journal is intended to be strictly confidential. Published in English, French, and Spanish. Articles, short news briefs, and book reviews. Recent topics: fraudulent business practices, reducing assaults on police officers, and traffic studies in Saudi Arabia and the Arab world.

California Peace Officers' Association, 800 Forum Building, Sacramento, Calif. 95814

A professional law enforcement journal with articles, a calendar of California Peace Officers' Association (CPOA) events, reviews of articles in law enforcement journals, book reviews on law enforcement monographs, police training films available from the CPOA, news of law enforcement organizations in California, and recent cases of interest to law enforcement personnel. Recent articles have discussed a model firearms law for California, a California Highway Patrol auto theft reduction program, obstacles to team policing, and electronic surveillance in custodial settings.

International Association of Chiefs of Police, 11 Firstfield Road, Gaithersburg, Md. 20760

Articles on police science and administration, plus police science technical abstracts, notes from law enforcement journals, and police science and administration book reviews. Annual index. Recent topics: use of excessive force by police, police unions, minority recruitment and promotion in the police department, higher education and police discretion, the police personality, and small-town police.

Law and Order. $77. 37 West 36th Street, New York, N.Y. 10018

A journal for the police professional, emphasizing "how to," management, and operations information for municipal police. The topics covered include education, communication, public relations, photography, collective violence, traffic control, fraud and embezzlement, and welfare of police officers. Contains new product news, an annual index, articles, book reviews, film reviews, and police equipment news. Recent articles have been on in-service training, ammunition, body armor, women police, gun laws, and working with youth.

Law Officer. $4. International Conference of Police Associations,
2000 Louisiana Avenue North, Minneapolis, Minn. 55427

For the dissemination of information for the detection of crime, apprehension of offenders, traffic safety, prevention of juvenile delinquency, and welfare of police officers throughout the United States, Canada, and the Panama Canal Zone. Full coverage of the law enforcement activities of affiliated ICPOA member police associations. Contains feature articles, book reviews, and new product news.

The official publication of the National Sheriffs' Association (NSA), containing law enforcement articles, news notes, new product news, conference news, NSA meetings, and sheriff's meetings in various states. Recent articles: how a Connecticut sheriff copes with juvenile crime, strengthening patrol operations, and an aerial anti-sniper tactical program.
Police Chief. M; with membership, $9/nonmembers. International Association of Chiefs of Police, 11 Firstfield Road, Gaithersburg, Md. 20760

The official publication of the International Association of Chiefs of Police. A professional journal of federal, state, and local law enforcement activities. Contains professional news notes, books briefly annotated, a training digest (programs and schedules), new products news, personnel notices, and employment opportunities. Recent articles: establishing a counseling service in the Chicago Police Department, a detective personality profile, the effect of lowering the legal drinking age in Maine and Massachusetts, preparation of search warrants, and police unions.

Police Journal. Q; (£5.00 ($20.75/US)) Justice of the Peace, Ltd., East Row, Little London, Chichester, Sussex, England

An international police review. with articles, commentaries, recent judicial decisions, and books received. Recent articles have discussed the emergency treatment of alcohol poisoning, social and community involvement for police cadets, the police and urban terrorism, juvenile crime, and private police.

Police Law Quarterly. Q; $10. Illinois Institute of Technology, 3300 South Federal Street, Chicago, Ill. 60616

Articles on legal issues relating to law enforcement. Annual index. Recent articles: courtroom discrimination; use of the polygraph; electronic eavesdropping; right to counsel; pre-disposition options; and sanctions, deterrents, and rehabilitation.

Police Research and Development. Q. Bureau of Police Research and Development, Ministry of Home Affairs, G-55, Safdarjung Development Area, New Delhi 110016, India

A journal of research and development for the police forces of India, covering criminological research, forensic science, and the application of science and technology to police work. Other aspects of police administration and organization. Contains articles, trends (summaries of articles from newspapers and law enforcement journals worldwide), police equipment news, and lengthy book reviews. The emphasis is on India. Recent articles have discussed crime statistics, traffic enforcement, forensic science and medicine, bail, drugs and accidents, therapy for offenders, and women police in India.

Die Polizei. M; DM. 60. Carl Heymanns Verlag KG, Gereon Strasse 18-32, 5 Köln 1, West Germany

Developments in law enforcement in West Germany, with occasional articles on all criminal justice topics.

Published for professional security administrators, security-concerned management executives, security organizations involved in the prevention and detection of crime and loss, governmental security agencies, and crimes, fire, and fidelity insurance underwriters. Covers retail and industrial security, industrial espionage, etc. Contains product news, schedule of upcoming security events and courses, new films and literature, classified advertising, and news briefs on security professionals and noteworthy people and events in the security industry. The "School Security Journal" is included as a supplement. Recent articles: management rules on white-collar crime, fraud, security equipment and technology, and a special round-up on anti-intrusion hardware.

Spring 3100. Monthly except Jan/Feb. and July/Aug.; $5. New York City Police Department, 51 Chambers Street, New York, N.Y. 10007

A house organ for police officers emphasizing department news.
CORRECTIONAL JOURNALS

American Journal of Correction. B; $2. American Correctional Association, 2117 West River Road No., Minneapolis, Minn. 55411

Official publication of the American Correctional Association (ACA). Information on developments in the ACA and affiliated organizations, correction newbriefs, new products of use to administrative and custodial personnel, conferences and institute schedules, current book reviews, and ACA publications. Recent articles have discussed the crisis in prison populations and correctional agency perceptions of the usefulness of research.

Balans (formerly Maandschrift voor het Gevangeniswezen. M; Tl. 2.50. Keulenhoff & Co., N.V., P.O. Box 197- Beulingstraat 2, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

News articles emphasizing trends in correction in the Netherlands. Book reviews.

Bewahrungshilfe. Q; 15 DM. Deutsche Bewahrungshilfe, §300 Bonn\Godesberg, West Germany

Articles and studies on the offender, emphasizing probation and parole in West Germany.

Beyond Time. T; $10. free to U.S. correctional institutions, correction-related agencies in Conn., Conn. state colleges, and selected U.S. justice institutes. Connecticut Criminal Justice Academy, P.O. Box 36, Middletown, Conn. 06457

Articles on correction, most of which are reprinted from other sources. Also contains fiction and poetry.

Bulletin de l'Administration Penitentiaire. B; 200 F. Administration Penitentiaire, Direction Etudes et Affaires Generales, Ministero de la Justice, 4 Place Poelaert, 1000 Brussels, Belgium

Emphasizes correction and prison administration. Contains articles, book reviews, and notices for practitioners. Text is bilingual in French/Flemish. Recent topics include the objectives of imprisonment, attitudes of judges on decision-making, and criminology as an interdisciplinary science.

Community Home Schools Gazette. M; §2.40. 85 Exeter Road, Dawlish EX7 4AG, England

Emphasizes community school programs and personnel. School news, personnel changes, employment advertising, and school-related articles such as education in community homes for observation and assessment, some characteristics of school non-attenders, and staff developments in the residential setting.

Correctional Research: The Crime and Justice Foundation, 100 Franklin Street, Boston, Mass. 02110

Each issue concentrates on one issue in law enforcement and the administration of justice and summarizes the best and most recent writings on that subject. Reports on studies and services conducted by the Crime and Justice Foundation.

Information on America's changing prison system, with detailed profiles of state correctional systems. Planned for the future are profiles of city correctional systems. Recent articles have discussed parole contracts, the Minnesota Restitution Center, prison grievance procedures, and behavior modification for child molesters. Detailed subject index sent free in October.

Correctional and Social Psychiatry and Journal of Behavior Technology Methods and Therapy (formerly Corrective and Social Psychiatry and Journal of Applied Behavior Therapy). Q; $20/institutions, $15/individuals. Martin Psychiatric Research Foundation, Inc., Mid-Continent Hospital, 122 North Cooper, Olathe, Kans. 66062

A forum for the publication of original papers on the therapeutical community in all institutional settings--correctional institutions, hospitals, churches, schools, industry, and the family. Recent articles have discussed adolescent peer networks as an alternative to alienation, activity groups for juvenile offenders, and behaviorally-oriented treatment for juvenile offenders.

Information on penology and crime prevention including articles, book reviews, and lists of books received. Recent articles: spatial patterning of burglary, pre-sentence reports, recent U.S. experiences with juvenile offenders in the community, remedial education and the adult offender, and criminal justice decision-making.

The official publication of the Association for Psychiatric Treatment of Offenders, the journal contains therapeutic, psychiatric, and other scientific articles dealing with the problems of anti-social behavior, emphasizing treatment and therapy. Articles are in English with summaries in English, French, German, and Spanish. Table of contents appears in final issue of each volume. Articles, book reviews, and a list of books and reports received. Recent topics: delinquency work in Great Britain, psychiatric treatment of violent patients, principles of offender therapy, behavioral treatment of child abuse, treatment of violent sex offenders, and violence in institutions.

Journal of Community Correctional Centers: Semi-annual; $5. Community Correction and Research Center, Inc., 500 River Road, Baton Rouge, La. 70802

This publication is designed as a vehicle for the dissemination of information on the origins, dynamics, treatment, and cost of crime, emphasizing advances in the use of the therapeutic community in combating recidivism. Recent topics: psychotherapy in criminal rehabilitation, a cost-effectiveness analysis of a community-based offender treatment program, preparing a budget for a halfway house, developing a community correctional center, and attitudinal change in a community treatment center.

Journal of Correctional Education (formerly Correctional Education): 4. P.O. Box 80, Huntsville, Tex. 77301

Official publication of the Correctional Education Association. Articles and book reviews. Recent topics have included identifying the educational needs and interests of institutionalized delinquents, a rationale for advanced education in prison, and a study of the educational program at Montana State Prison.

Articles on prisons and other correctional institutions. Book reviews. Recent topics: the place of prison in punishment, day-training centers, the prison chaplain, social work in prison, and detention centers.

Probation and Parole. With $5 membership, $1.50 per issue/non-members. New York State Probation and Parole Association, Madison Square Station, P.O. Box 408, New York, N.Y. 10010

The professional journal of the New York State Probation and Parole Association, with articles from all disciplines applicable to correction and rehabilitation. Recent topics: capital punishment, probation revocation, differential classification and profile of adult probationers in Suffolk County, manpower and recruitment problems in probation and parole, and juvenile delinquency and family casework in probation and parole.

Probation Journal (formerly Probation). Q; 42, free to members. National Association of Probation Officers, Ambassador House, Brigstock Road, Thornton Heath, Surrey CR7 7JG, England

Emphasizes delinquency and crime prevention and rehabilitation in Great Britain. Contains articles, comments, book reviews, and an occasional probation forum. Recent articles have discussed the role of the probation service, a comparison by color of boys in a classifying school, social and biological aspects of delinquency, and working with the client in his family.

The Quarterly. Q. Pennsylvania Association on Probation, Parole and Correction, 4075 Market Street, Camp Hill, Pa. 17011

The purposes of the Pennsylvania Association on Probation, Parole and Correction are to advance methods and standards in probation and parole for juveniles and adults and in institutional care. The journal contains Association news; feature articles; short notes on programs, people, and publications; new books and booklets; international news notes; and announcements. Recent articles have discussed county prison work release, inmate education in Pennsylvania state correctional institutions, a survey of theories of crime causation, and the relationship of law and social work.

Rassegna di Studi Penitenziari. B; L. 5000. Ministero di Grazia e Giustizia, Via Arenula, 71, Rome, Italy

Articles on law and legal proceedings relating to prisons. Book reviews.
JOURNALS ON JUVENILE DELINQUENCY AND THE JUVENILE

Adolescence. Q; $10. Libra Publishers, Inc., 391 Willets Road, Roslyn Heights, N.Y. 11577

Articles on the physiological, psychological, psychiatric, sociological, and educational aspects of adolescence. Book reviews. Recent topics have included vandalism, parent/child drug abuse, legal and social aspects of drug abuse, treatment of narcotic addiction, and high school drug use.

Annales de Vaucresson. A; 17,00 F. Centre de Formation et de Recherche de l'Education Surveillée, Vaucresson, France

A thematically-oriented annual on the juvenile and juvenile delinquency. Articles and research studies on the causes and treatment of delinquency, and developments in juvenile law. A recent issue contained a bibliography on ten years of French writing on youth and articles on the social determinants of delinquency, delinquent adolescent conduct, family dissociation and delinquency, and self-image in the socially maladapted girl.

Intended especially for child welfare workers, the journal of the Child Welfare League of America, Inc., covers all aspects of child welfare, including their health, education, and psychological needs, and all aspects of child welfare services--administration, supervision, casework, groupwork, community organization, teaching, innovations in practice, staff development, and research. Contains articles, a practice forum, notes on program developments, book reviews, occasional special reports, and classified ads. Indexed annually. Regularly features articles on child neglect and abuse, children's rights, child welfare, group homes, and residential treatment.

Covers all child-related topics, including child abuse and maltreatment, emotional neglect, and sexual molestation, as well as noncriminal justice issues--the handicapped, adoption, retardation, day care, etc. Contains feature articles, short news briefs, and book reviews.

Experienze di Rieducazione. M. Via Giulia, 52, 00186 Rome, Italy

Emphasizes prevention and treatment of juvenile delinquency.

International Union for Child Welfare, Rue de Varenne 1, 1211 Geneva 20, Switzerland

Intended as a communication medium for those concerned with children, youth, and social action, the journal addresses the continuing training of child and youth welfare professionals. Contains news of the activities of the International Association of Workers for Maladjusted Children, the Friends of Youth Work Assn., the International Association of Youth Magistrates, the International Federation for Parent Education, and the International Union for Child Welfare, as well as their publications. Sections on worldwide news, principal international meetings, and a practice forum on social work training. Articles fall into the main categories of the child and his surroundings, youth and their surroundings, and continuous training. Published in English, French, and Spanish. Book reviews and book briefs. Special features have included recent trends in drug abuse, and child welfare and community development. Each issue has a bilingual (English/French) supplement--Bibliotheque/Library--of selected articles on child welfare.

Information on the U.S. juvenile justice system, juvenile and family courts, and the control and treatment of juvenile delinquency. Articles and book reviews. Annual index. Recent topics: effects of crisis intervention counseling on predelinquent and misdemeanor juvenile offenders, analysis of group homes, education, juvenile justice, and the public schools--mutual benefit through educational reform, and child maltreatment in military communities.

Revue des Services de Bien-Etre à l'enfance et à la Jeunesse (Review of the Childhood and Youth Welfare Services). Q; free. Quebec Ministere des Affaires Sociales, Service de l'Information, Hotel du Government, Quebec, Canada

Bilingual (French/English) journal emphasizing juvenile delinquency and the treatment of offenders. Emphasis is on Quebec.
JOURNALS ON VICTIMOLOGY

Victimité et Civilisation. 50 F/France, 60 F/Foreign. Société Internationale de Prophylaxie Criminelle, 43, Rue Chaudet, 91290 Saint-Germain-lès-Arpajon, France

International journal on victimology, with articles, book reviews, and news briefs.

To begin publication in March 1976, this journal is intended to provide a forum for the exchange of theories, methodologies, concepts, and practices concerning the victim. The emphasis is on the victim and the dynamics of victimization. Issues are planned. In English only, with translations of original manuscripts submitted in other languages. Articles scheduled for the first issue: victimology and the needs of contemporary society, compensation for the child conceived in rape, and the prison inmate as a victim.

Theme-oriented issues focus on emerging cross-disciplinary interests, research, and problems in the social sciences. Recent issues have examined social policy research including illegal immigration and the American labor force, the juvenile delinquency prevention system, new technologies and strategies for social control, and urban violence and disorder.

Emphasizes the collaborative approach of psychiatry, psychology, psychiatric social work, and the other behavioral sciences to the study and treatment of behavioral problems. Articles (theory and review, clinical, research, delivery of services), brief reports, special reports, and literature reviews. The annual index appearing in the last issue of each volume to authors, subjects, and book reviews also contains table of contents pages for each issue. Recent topics include post-divorce antisocial behavior and social alienation and counter-transferrence and counter-experience in the treatment of violence prone youth.

American Journal of Sociology. B: $30/institutions, $15/individuals, $12/students. University of Chicago Press, 5801 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 60637

Professional journal of sociological research, theory, and analysis in all areas of human relations. Contains articles, research notes, extensive book reviews, and commentary and debate. Criminal justice issues such as deference exchange in police/civilian encounters are occasionally included.

The official publication of the American Group Psychotherapy Association, the journal reports on and interprets research and practice in group psychotherapy internationally. Criminal justice system applications are not emphasized but are mentioned occasionally. Articles, book reviews, and a list of books received.

Articles and case notes in abnormal and social psychology. Recent articles have examined the effects of alcohol on aggression in male social drinkers and volitional control of marijuana intoxication—a study of the ability to "come down" on command.

A professional journal concerned with education for social welfare—trends, new developments, issues, problems—at the undergraduate, master's degree, and post-master's levels. Contains articles and book reviews. The emphasis of the journal is not on criminal justice issues, but recent articles have discussed the role of the graduate school of social work in criminal justice higher education and a professional school's role in training ex-addict counselors.

Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease. M; $30. Williams and Wilkins, Co., 420 E. Preston Street, Baltimore, Md. 21202

An educational journal of neuropsychiatry with occasional articles bearing on criminal justice. A recent issue concentrated on aggression associated with psychosis, mental retardation, alcoholism, and narcotic addiction and its treatment with major tranquilizers, antidepressants, neuromuscular blocking agents, minor tranquilizers, and lithium.

Examines the application of psychiatry to legal issues. Includes a section of essays and reviews of recent publications, a list of books received, announcements, and a glossary of terms used in the articles. Recent topics: determining the continued dangerousness of psychologically abnormal sex offenders, the prediction of dangerousness as a criterion for involuntary civil commitment—constitutional considerations, and psychological aspects of jury performance.

Kölner Zeitschrift für Soziologie und Sozialpsychologie. Q; DM. 64. Westdeutscher Verlag, Opladen, Rhld., West Germany

West German sociological journal with frequent articles on delinquency and crime. A recent topic was juvenile delinquency in the German Democratic Republic.

The journal of the British Academy of Forensic Sciences. Articles (some purely medical in emphasis), book reviews, news notes on law and science. Recent topics: battered wives, fatalities among drug users in Denmark, interparental violence and its effect on children, familial transmission of criminality, and mental illness and criminal liability.

Social Casework. Monthly except Aug. and Sept.; $15/institutions, $42/individuals. 44 East 23 Street, New York, N.Y. 10010

Published by the Family Service Association of America, this journal is directed toward the interests of social work practitioners. The emphasis is on articles that describe social work theory or practice, that report on professional research, or that are relevant to current social problems and the professional concerns of social workers. Articles, book reviews, news briefs, and job opportunities. Annual index. Recent articles have discussed the social worker as a courtroom witness, cognitive approaches in the treatment of alcoholism, the abused wife, and police and social workers in a community outreach program.

Social Forces. Q; $12/institutions, $10/individuals. University of North Carolina Press; Box 2288, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514

Sociological articles, book reviews, and commentaries. Recent criminal justice topics include: general deterrent effects of imprisonment, a study of reactions to shoplifting; social stereotypes of deviants and judgments of guilt or innocence, and a test of the deterrence hypothesis.
Social Problems. 5 issues per year; $15. Society for the Study of Social Problems, P.O. Box 533, Notre Dame, Ind. 46556

Original articles by professional sociologists and others in related fields on the entire spectrum of social problems, including crime and juvenile delinquency, alcoholism and drugs, community resource development, the family, international tensions, psychiatric sociology, social problems theory, and sociology and social work. Book reviews. Recent issues have contained articles on various aspects of prisons and police, differential association, labeling theory, and delinquency and crime.

Social Service Review. Q; $12. University of Chicago Press, 5801 S. Ellis Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 60637

Devoted to the scientific and professional interests of social work. Book reviews. Recent criminal justice topics have included family surrogates as correctional strategy, prostitution and social justice, social group work in juvenile corrections—a synthesis of clinical and group dynamics principles, and victim compensation.

Social Work. B; $20, $10/students. 49 Sheridan Avenue, Albany, N.Y. 12210

The journal of the National Association of Social Workers, published to improve practice and extend knowledge in social work. Emphasizes articles that provide new insights into established practices, evaluate new techniques and research, and examine current social problems. Concentrates on social work rather than criminal justice issues. Contains articles, practice notes, book reviews, and occasional literary pieces. Recent criminal justice-oriented topics discussed are managing child abuse cases and social work in a training school.

Society (formerly Trans-action). M; $8.50. Transaction Periodicals Consortium, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N.J. 08903

Social issues, psychological research, and political affairs concerning social science and modern society. Contains commentaries, articles, book reviews, classified advertising, columns, and a list of the best social science books received for review. A recent issue focused on crime and punishment: political misuses of crime rates, the professional bondsmen, and prisoners as laboratory animals.

Sociology and Social Research. Q; $15/libraries and institutions, $15/individuals, special rates for Alpha Kappa Delta students and members of American Sociological Assn. and American Psychological Assn.

An international journal on sociology and social problems. Book reviews and articles on topics such as narcotic addiction, race relations, juvenile delinquency, and social class. Recent criminal justice topics have included the social context of jails and over-criminalization and the measure of consensus.
JOURNALS ON RELATED SOCIAL ISSUES
(ALCOHOLISM, DRUG ABUSE, HOMOSEXUALITY, AND SUICIDE)

Addictions. Q; $6 (Canadian) Addiction Research Foundation of Ontario, 13 Russell Street, Toronto M5S 2E1, Ontario, Canada
Intended for the professional and interested layman, contains articles on drug addiction and alcoholism, emphasizing research, treatment, and preventive education.

A collection of articles on all aspects of narcotics use. Published by the United Nations Division of Narcotic Drugs in English and French, with selected articles published subsequently in Spanish and Russian. A summary of each volume is issued annually in Chinese. Recent articles have discussed cross-sectional surveys of student drug use in Toronto; attitudes toward drug users and the use of alcohol, tobacco, and cannabis on the campus of a provincial university; and drug abuse and its prevention as seen by the international legal profession.

Crisis Intervention. Q; $18/institutions, $9/individuals. Crisis Intervention Institute at the Suicide Prevention and Crisis Service, Inc., 250 Main Street, Suite 405, Buffalo, N.Y. 14202
Designed to promote communication among crisis intervention centers by publishing articles of general interest on crisis training, research, and clinical practice. Recent articles: characteristics of crisis outreach clients, considerations in evaluating a crisis outreach service, counseling the abusing parent by telephone, the role of the lawyer in crisis intervention services, and a bibliography of hotlines.

Articles discuss sociological perspectives on drugs, alcohol, and public policy, emphasizing treatment of alcoholism and drug abuse. Contains book reviews and an annotated book digest. Recent topics: some aspects of the "tough" New York State drug law, how police administrators and public officials view decriminalization, the Synanon alternative to the criminal justice system, and alcohol as a precursor of violent death.

A journal devoted to empirical research and its clinical applications on lesbianism, male homosexuality, gender identity, and alternative sexual lifestyles. Intended to serve the allied professional groups represented by psychology, sociology, anthropology, medicine, and the law. Articles present empirical data, reviews of empirical work, basic research and its application. Also contains articles of heuristic value, book reviews, news briefs and notes, and a list of publications received. Recent issues have contained a cumulative annotated bibliography of articles published in other journals on the topics covered and a discussion of the Atascadero Project—a sexual retraining program for incarcerated homosexual pedophiles.

Journal of Studies on Alcohol. H; $35/libraries, institutions, and organizations, $25/individuals. Center of Alcohol Studies, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N.J. 08905
The contents of this journal alternate monthly. (1) Odd-numbered months contain original articles from all scientific fields on all aspects of alcohol use and alcoholism. A recent article presented a comparative study on alcoholism and crime using three groups of alcoholics. (2) Even-numbered months provide access to current literature. Included are informative abstracts (on all aspects of alcoholism including legal aspects and treatment), reviews and current notes on books and other documents, new titles of periodical literature (to provide a complete bibliography of new periodical literature), new titles of books and other documents, and indexes.